STEWARDSHIP
THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son...” JOHN 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you “fit it in” when it’s convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

How heavy are you guys?

There's a story about a huge fortress on a hill overlooking the town of Weinsberg, Germany. One day, back in feudal times, the fortress was surrounded by an enemy. The commander of the enemy troops was determined to punish those hiding behind the fortress, especially the men who had rebelled against him. "Death to them all!" Despite these bloodthirsty intentions, though, he did proclaim that women and children would be spared. He declared a certain day for their exit from the fortress and went so far as to allow each woman to bring one valuable possession with her.

Imagine his amazement and frustration when he saw each woman leave the fortress with her husband on her back.

So, like I asked, how heavy are you guys? I'd sure like to take all of you with me as I go from the southernmost part of St. Louis County to the westernmost.

As I mentioned to a few of you a last week, the first phone call hinting that I might be transferred came the day before Palm Sunday. I knew that our Personnel Board (a group of priests that we elect to advise the Archbishop on assignments) had taken a few days away from St. Louis to begin the process of priest's assignments, which figured to be many in light of what was happening with All Things New. I was surprised that I was called so quickly after their meetings and further surprised when Chesterfield was mentioned, especially since I had indicated on our surveys that, if I were to be moved, I wanted to stay in South City or South County. I may have grown up north, in Normandy, but I've spent 25 years south. I like it here.

That April 1st phone call asked what I thought of taking Ascension Parish. After a few seconds of thought I said if that's where the archbishop wants me to go, I'll go. The priest on the line said, "You hesitated. Why did you hesitate?" "Because," I answered, "I like where I am, both the parish and the locale. I would prefer to stay." "Well," said he, "this is just a preliminary call, a sounding out." Immediately I began praying they would change their mind. They didn't.

Last weekend I concelebrated the Mass of Priestly Ordination for our five new priests. It's impossible for any priest attending an ordination to not reflect back on his ordination day, to remember the prayers, readings, and people; to remember the thoughts one had when it was you laying prostrate on the floor during the Litany of the Saints; when it was you having your hands anointed with Sacred Chrism; you receiving a chalice, you being vested with priestly vestments. So many emotions, memories, and prayers flood your heart, mind, and soul - when it was you. Or when it was you taking that vow of obedience. I never thought on my ordination day, as I placed my hands into the hands of Archbishop May and promised obedience to him and his successors, that one day, when my archbishop and archdiocese needed me to say yes, that I would say no. For reasons perhaps known only to God and him, the archbishop believes that for now the best way for me to help this archdiocese is to be at Ascension Parish. I don't claim to understand it or like it, but I'll go.

I go with hope and confidence. If there's one thing I've learned in the priesthood it's that the people of God are wonderful everywhere. Each one of my assignments has allowed me a front row seat as I see Jesus Christ work among his Disciples. It's inspiring and amazing and I thank God for the privilege. You have been that amazing people. I know I'll find more of the same at Ascension.

You're getting three nice guys here. Your new pastor, Fr. Murphy, and one of the associates, Fr. D'Amico, were one year behind me in the seminary. They were ordained in January, 1987. Fr. Hopmeir was ordained in January, 1991. Fr. Murphy has called me already and is excited to be coming to Queen of All Saints. He'll be a good pastor to you.

At least I'll be here for the picnic. I'm looking forward to two great days of good fun and good food, a very special gathering for our parish and community. Pray that God blesses us with terrific weather.

May God bless all of you.

Fr. Hambrough

ANNUAL MISSION COOPERATIVE MISSION APPEAL

When we think of Jamaica, we think of Ocho Rios, beautiful beaches, vacations and wonderful scenery. But, just beyond all of that, Jamaica is among the poorest countries in our hemisphere and the Diocese of Mandeville is the poorest of the three dioceses in Jamaica. Many of the people have no running water. Many youth are "functionally illiterate," there is an alarming number of destitute elderly and abandoned children, and the average Sunday collection is 10% of the operating cost at half of our parishes. The Diocese of Mandeville is VERY POOR!

Each year, a missionary is assigned to our parish by our diocesan Mission Office for an appeal asking our assistance for ministries to assist the very poor. On the weekend of June 10th/11th we will welcome Fr. Gary Wiesmann for our annual mission appeal on behalf of the DIOCESE OF MANDEVILLE, Jamaica. In our second collection, please consider supporting the evangelization programs and outreach to the extremely poor people of this diocese.

LET'S PLAY CARDS

Come one, come all! There will be cards, dominos, or any game you want to play, in the Church Hall on June 14th, 12:00 noon until 2:30 p.m.

It's free, and cake, coffee, and tea will be served. Make it a special day. Bring your spouse, a friend, or a shut-in.

The only time cards will be cancelled on the 2nd Wednesday of each month is if there is a Funeral Luncheon in the Hall.

PRAYER STUDY GROUP

Wednesday, June 14th is the next session of the Prayer Study Group. This group meets in the Church Hall at 9am. For more information please contact Jackie McClanahan at 314-392-3430 or email at jackiemccclanahan12@gmail.com.

EXPECTANT MOTHER'S BLESSING

June 11th is the "second Sunday of the month" and therefore is the expectant mother's blessing. This special blessing will take place following the 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses. All those expecting a child, through their pregnancy or awaiting adoption of a child, are encouraged to come for this blessing every month.

BABY BOTTLE DRIVE

The QAS annual baby bottle drive is now underway. Please bring your baby bottle back to church on Fathers Day weekend with your donation for South County Pregnancy Help Center. This amazing organization, right here is 63129, is on the front line helping women choose life for their unborn child.

GREAT NEWS: Donations of $100 or more qualify for a TAX CREDIT in addition to a tax deduction. Checks must be made payable to So County Pregnancy Help Center.

Thanks for praying for the unborn!

SALAD DONATIONS NEEDED FOR ST. PATRICK CENTER

Queen of All Saints collects bagged salads and bottles of dressing on the first Wednesday of each month. Please place your donations in the coolers on the front porch of 129 Staehle Ct. before 9:30 a.m. on the first Wednesday of each month. The need is always great as a meal for 250 homeless people is served every day.

For more information about this donation please call Sheila Treptow at 314-846-4015.

For more information about St. Patrick's Center meal program contact Katie Joseph at kjoseph@stpatrickcenter.org or 314-802-1976.

FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTHRosary Crusade*SUN . JUNE 4 . NOON*Monastery of St. Clare*(On Telegraph Road near Monument)

Please join us every First Sunday of the month at the Cross monument near the Monastery of St. Clare on Telegraph Road to publicly pray the most Holy Rosary. In this way, we very visibly honor the Immaculate Heart of Mary and ask her to intercede on behalf of all of her children, born and unborn, in the USA and throughout the whole world.

May 27, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Having received, studied, and prayed over all the input and feedback that has been submitted by your pastor, by your key parish leaders, by you yourselves, and by our archdiocesan Presbyteral Council, I have discerned the following decisions regarding the future footprint of the Archdiocese of St. Louis:

- Moving forward, the Archdiocese of St. Louis will be reshaped from 178 individual parishes into 134 parishes. These parishes will be overseen by close to 90 diocesan pastors and 17 religious order pastors. These modifications include the merging of 35 parishes that will be subsumed into neighboring parishes and 15 parishes being merged to create 5 new parishes. There will also be a new personal parish for the Spanish-speaking community in St. Charles County.
- Even in parishes where there is no change to the pastor or parish structure, all of our communities are asked to re-evaluate their current pastoral care, social outreach and evangelization efforts to see if they can be streamlined, refined or re-invented. Our new Vicariate structure will support this.
- Over the next several months our priests will be discerning with their people what the best use of our facilities should be to provide the Sacraments and necessary pastoral care to all who live in their boundaries and begin to reimagine what a vibrant, evangelizing parish ought to look like.
- Implementation of these plans will begin in summer/fall of 2023 and may continue through 2026. The newly formed Office of Parish Mission and Vitality will also begin developing new plans for evangelization and social outreach to build upon the strength of our new archdiocesan footprint.

Details can be found at allthingsnew.archstl.org. Anyone who is a parishioner and who considers themselves to be aggrieved by my decision has the right to appeal my decision to me in writing concerning the way that their parish is being altered. Per Canon law, the request must be made in writing, postmarked no later than June 12, 2023, and addressed to the Archbishop at 20 Archbishop May Dr, St. Louis, MO 63119. We cannot accept emails or phone calls as a request for appeal.

I look forward to sharing with you soon how we, as the Curia, will be restructured to support this new footprint.

May the Holy Spirit embolden each of us to follow the example of the early Church and do our very best to go, make disciples of all nations and to reach out in loving service to those around us in need. May the Spirit make our efforts bear much fruit!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Mitchell T. Rozanski
Archbishop of St. Louis

Where faith and healing unite

Glennon Sunday

Lavender,
Glennon Kid

GLENNON SUNDAY

When SSM Health Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital opened its doors as the nation's first free-standing Catholic pediatric hospital, a promise was made to the community that any child in need of care would be welcomed, regardless of whether their parents could afford to pay. That promise still holds true today.

The generosity of the faithful made Cardinal Glennon a reality in 1956. Still today, the faithful uphold our Mission of faith-filled services: Through our exceptional health care services, we reveal the healing presence of God.

Queen of All Saints please join us in helping make miracles possible by making a gift during Glennon Sunday weekend, June 3-4, online at <https://glennonsunday.org/faith>. On behalf of our patients and families, may God bless you for providing hope, healing, faith and compassion to every child who walks through the doors at SSM Health Cardinal Glennon.
