STEWARDSHIP
THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
(CORPUS CHRISTI)

"Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread."

CORINTHIANS 10:17

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. We are called to be fed and to feed others. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other's relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

An anonymous woman writes:

They huddled inside the storm door, two children in ragged outgrown coats, “Any old papers, Lady?” I was busy. I wanted to say no - until I looked down at their feet. Thin little sandals, sopped with sleet. “Come in, and I’ll make you a cup of hot cocoa.” There was no conversation. Their soggy sandals left marks upon the hearthstone.

I served them cocoa and toast with jam to fortify them against the chill outside. Then I went back to the kitchen and started again on my household budget. The silence in the front room struck me. I looked in.

The girl held the empty cup in her hands, looking at it. The boy asked in a flat voice, “Lady, are you rich?” “Am I rich? Heavens, no.” I looked at my shabby slipcovers, worn carpets, walls that screamed for fresh paint. My thoughts were interrupted as the girl put her cup back on its saucer carefully, declaring, “Your cups and your saucers match.” Her voice was old, with a hunger that was not of her stomach. They left then, holding their bundles against the wind. They hadn’t said thank you. They didn’t need to. They had done more than that. Plain blue pottery cups and saucers. But they matched. I tested the potatoes and stirred the gravy. Potatoes and gravy, a good match there, too. I thought of more - a car and a garage, a washer and a dryer, heat and air conditioning. Pretty good matches. Then more, then better. My husband and me - wonderful. We as parents with our children - what wealth we have!

I moved the chairs back from the fire and tidied the living room. The muddy prints of small sandals were still wet upon my hearth. I let them be. I want them there in case I ever forget again how very rich I am.

Today’s Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) is for us the muddy footprints on the hearth, the great reminder of how rich we are. What a treasure, the Eucharist; Bread come down from Heaven, the Bread of Life, food that nourishes us as we journey from this world to the Kingdom. At the Last Supper, Jesus took, blessed, broke and gave His own flesh and blood, real food and real drink. The Apostles were enriched by this gift, and so are we.

After all, look at all the things that match during the Mass. We praise God in word and song. We hear from the Old Testament, and the New. We have the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Great matches all!

There’s still more. We have a pulpit and an altar. We have a paten and a chalice. We have a priest and a congregation. We have bread and wine which becomes Body and Blood. They all match so well!

It goes further than the church building to the entire parish. We have a church and a school. We have buildings and fields. We have time for work and play. We are mindful of the living and the dead, the rich and the poor, the young and the old. This week, we have good matches, like Parish and Picnic, and the people of this Archdiocese and the people of the Diocese of Mandeville, Jamaica. They’re good matches and we are rich because of them.

I thank Fr. Gary Weismann for coming to St. Louis and Queen of All Saints today. Please be generous in response to his appeal. These people in Jamaica need our help.

I’m writing this on a Wednesday and it’s raining outdoors. The forecast, though, is promising for the weekend. I trust that God will have heard our prayers and blessed us with a great picnic.

May God bless all of you.

Fr. Hambrough

ANNUAL MISSION COOPERATIVE MISSION APPEAL

When we think of Jamaica, we think of Ocho Rios, beautiful beaches, vacations and wonderful scenery. But, just beyond all of that, Jamaica is among the poorest countries in our hemisphere and the Diocese of Mandeville is the poorest of the three dioceses in Jamaica. Many of the people have no running water. Many youth are “functionally illiterate,” there is an alarming number of destitute elderly and abandoned children, and the average Sunday collection is 10% of the operating cost at half of our parishes. The Diocese of Mandeville is VERY POOR!

Each year, a missionary is assigned to our parish by our diocesan Mission Office for an appeal asking our assistance for ministries to assist the very poor. On the weekend of June 10th/11th we will welcome Fr. Gary Wiesmann for our annual mission appeal on behalf of the DIOCESE OF MANDEVILLE, Jamaica. In our second collection, please consider supporting the evangelization programs and outreach to the extremely poor people of this diocese.

REST IN PEACE

Please pray for the repose of the soul of parishioner, Eileen Buxton, wife of Larry Buxton. May she, and all the faithful departed, rest in peace.

EXPECTANT MOTHER’S BLESSING

June 11th is the “second Sunday of the month” and therefore is the expectant mother’s blessing. This special blessing will take place following the 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses. All those expecting a child, through their pregnancy or awaiting adoption of a child, are encouraged to come for this blessing every month.

LET’S PLAY CARDS

Come one, come all! There will be cards, dominos, or any game you want to play, in the Church Hall on June 14th, 12:00 noon until 2:30 p.m.

It’s free, and cake, coffee, and tea will be served. Make it a special day. Bring your spouse, a friend, or a shut-in.

The only time cards will be cancelled on the 2nd Wednesday of each month is if there is a Funeral Luncheon in the Hall.

TOTUS TUUS THIS WEEK

Sunday, June 11th-Thursday, June 15th, 7:00-9:00pm

This week, the Totus Tuus missionaries will be putting on programming every night! Totus Tuus is a summer catechetical program run by college-age missionaries on fire for their faith. They work with the younger kids during the day, and they put on programming for teens at night. All incoming 7th graders-outgoing seniors are invited to join each night!

“Totus Tuus” comes from St. John Paul II’s papal motto, which translates to “Totally Yours,” more specifically, totally Jesus’s through His mother, Mary. Come meet our missionaries tonight, and come learn from and pray with them each night this week!

WEDNESDAY MORNING SPORTS

We will NOT be meeting for Wednesday Morning Sports this week.

CAMP COVECREST

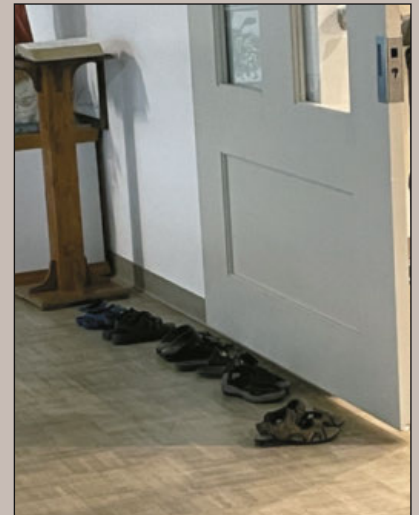

A group of us will also be traveling to Tiger, Georgia for LifeTeen’s Camp Covecrest this week. Please pray for our teens that they will encounter the Lord through their adventures and prayer!

Pictured above is the group of teens who attended Camp Covecrest the last time we went in 2021. We are excited to see how the Holy Spirit moves in our teens’ hearts this week. Thank you to all who made this year’s trip possible for our teens! Your generosity to our ministry is an investment that will produce fruits far beyond the next few days!

This past week Fr. Detwiler had the opportunity to celebrate Mass with the Missionaries of Charity at their community in North St. Louis. As a tradition of embracing poverty, they do not wear shoes inside the Chapel.

Last Thursday Queen of All Saints hosted the Oakville High Baccalaureate service. This all-faith Christian service provided an opportunity for the students to reflect upon their school careers, thank God for their accomplishments and celebrate with their family and friends during this special time in their lives. Congratulations to the Class of 2023.

Jerry Mueller addresses the CJM banquet attendees along with Barbara Klocke.

QAS St. Vincent de Paul Society Honored

On June 1, 2023, the Criminal Justice Ministry presented the Sr. Carleen Reck Leadership in Reentry Award to the QAS St. Vincent de Paul Society Conference, recognizing our many ministries for their collective support of the CJM mission -- helping incarcerated individuals return to society with the necessary skills leading to success.

Accepting this first-ever award was Barbara Klocke, conference vice president, who recognized longtime Vincentian Jerry Mueller, who has spearheaded many CJM support missions performed by our conference. He and multiple SVDP teams, from the Holy Bakers, Rag Ladies, Holy Couponers, Holy Haulers and more, have repaired and renovated CJM facilities and client apartments, hauled furniture, provided clothing to returning inmates, cooked and served food, baked cookies for inmates and provided activity bags for children visiting their incarcerated mothers.

The good work provided to CJM is only one of many organizations that SVDP members serve, all with your generous support. Thank you! Our entire parish is recognized with this honor.

WELCOME BACK REVEREND JACOB BRAUN!
