STEWARDSHIP
14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.” - MATTHEW 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Spiritual writer Angela Akers relates a story she read in an essay titled “Too Broken to Be Fixed,” by Victor Fried. Victor tells of how he grew up as an angry child who lashed out at others. His family had taught him that if something went wrong, it was always someone else’s fault.” He learned to distrust people. And this distrust resulted in anger and alienation and lashing out at the world.

The situation only worsened as Victor became an adult. He says of his mindset at that time, “Finally, you ask yourself the question: Why are so many people out to get me? And the only logical answer is that even God hates you. So, if you were like me, you return the favor and hate God right back. My belief that God hated me grew as the years passed, and I perceived each setback as further evidence that my belief was correct.

One thing that gave Victor’s life meaning was his job building custom furniture in a wood shop. One day, he spotted a man walking down the street carrying an elegant Queen Anne chair. He recognized it instantly as a valuable antique, and he asked the man if he could have it. The chair had a broken leg and Victor knew he could fix it.

The man said, “No.” Then he threw the chair into a dumpster, permanently breaking the frame and ruining it. This moment reinforced Victor’s belief that people are no good and God didn’t care about him.

A year later, Victor’s anger and sadness finally drove him to burn out. He drove down to the Missouri River one icy-cold day with the intent to throw himself into the water and either drown or freeze to death. But as he stood on the riverbank, he suddenly recalled the angry man who had thrown the Queen Anne chair into the garbage. And he heard a voice say to him, “If you’re going to throw that away, may I have it?” Victor says he knew it was the voice of God. His lifetime of anger and fighting and broken relationships came to mind. And yet now he could see how God loved him in spite of these things. He suddenly understood that God is unconditional love and had loved him throughout his life. Now God was asking Victor to turn his life over to Him. So instead of falling into an icy river, Victor fell to his knees on that riverbank and gave his life to the Lord. This moment was the start of healing a lifetime of anger and loneliness. It’s a moment that started with a question, “If you’re going to throw that away, may I have it?”

“Come to me,” Jesus says in today’s Gospel, “All who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me...and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.” What a beautiful invitation! What a comforting expression! Jesus understands. During his lifetime he met many bitter people, many angry people, many sinful people. And he’s met each one of us. Jesus knows about our sins, he’s been hurt by them. He knows of our anger, he got angry, too. He understands rejection, they not only rejected him, they crucified him. But Jesus made a promise to us: He would be with us always. He would be our Good Shepherd. He will not retract that promise.

So, think of people like Victor Fried when you’re down. Think of an angry man throwing away a chair and a bitter man standing on the banks of a river. Then think of a voice, a voice of sympathy and compassion, a voice of hope, “If you’re going to throw that away, may I have it?” Turn it all over to Jesus - He makes it easy, he gives us rest.

May God bless all of you.

Fr. Hambrough
