“The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom.” - MATTHEW 13:24, 37-38

As children of God, we are all “good seeds”. We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God’s plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others and share our financial gifts to help build God’s kingdom on earth. Through our example of gratitude and generosity we sow “good seeds” on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven!

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I was new to the Catholic clergy, having just been ordained a deacon about six weeks before. Two men knocked on the door of the rectory of the St. Louis Cathedral, where I had been assigned, and asked if they could talk to a priest. None were in the building so the secretary invited me to speak with them. They told me they were painters and they were painting rooms at a nearby hotel. Unfortunately, they ran out of paint before they finished the job. They were embarrassed to tell that to management and they didn't want to risk losing the job. Sadly, they didn't have any money to buy more paint but if the church could give them $50 they could go to a hardware store and purchase paint and then, once paid for their work, they would repay the church the fifty dollars. Not wanting to go through the normal channels the Cathedral had established for helping the poor, and believing I had been ordained to solve everybody's problems, I gave them from my own wallet the money they needed. It took me a few days to realize I had been scammed and it took a few more people like them to learn that many people were going to lie to me in order to get money out of me. Most times I would catch on to the lie, but occasionally I would fall for it. When that happened, and they duped me, I would think, "weeds and the wheat."

My situation was not as bad as a friend of mine a few years later. He had been ordained a priest and had excitedly moved to his new assignment. A few days after his first weekend at the parish he received a phone call. The caller identified himself as one of the parishioners he had met the Sunday before. "I was the guy in the blue shirt," he said, "and my wife and two children were with me. Remember?" The man continued, "Well Father, now I'm in New York visiting my mother and we're having problems with the landlord. He claims she owes him $1,500. If she doesn't pay she'll be evicted. I can't get my hands on that much money, but, Father, if you could wire $1,500 through Western Union, that would allow my mom to stay in her apartment and I'll pay you when I get home." Wanting to be the reliable and generous new parish priest, my friend wired the money. Gone, that money was gone for good. Stolen. And I thought, "weeds and the wheat."

Those incidents happened in the 1980's but I know that in 2023 many of us scratch our heads, search our minds, and torment our souls wondering what to do when huge amounts of people promote as good that which we know is wrong, things like euthanasia, gay marriage, mutilation of the bodies of minors to alter their gender, racial bigotry, and, worst of all, abortion. What can we do when people ignore our Church's teaching? How do we handle it when the prayers we offer for them, particularly our political leaders, appear to go unheeded, or the grace God bestows, unnoticed? And here we are, trying to be obedient to the will of God, stuck with laws and policies that we abhor. And I think, "weeds and the wheat."

Like the master in the first parable of today's Gospel, God is in charge of this world. The master's servants see the hand of an enemy behind the wreckage of the crops and they're eager to fix things as soon as they possibly can. But the master is wise, and patient. He urges all to wait and see what happens. And if those weeds are still there at harvest, they will be gathered. A hot fire will be waiting for them.

So it is with people. God's in charge of this world and He's wise and He's patient. That's good news for a sinner like me, and I presume, you're happy to hear that, too. And for those who don't care about God or his commandments, for those who don't care if they scam or manipulate to destroy the possessions or life of another, the weeds will be gathered, bundled, and burned - and so will they.

Pray for them please. Those who cheat and steal, those who lie and scam, those who scream for the legalization of abortion and those who insist that people like you and me pay for those abortions. Pray they will seek the good and do the charitable. Pray they will uphold all human life and seek dignity. Pray they will not be a weed, but wonderful wheat. Pray we'll all be gathered with the wheat.

May God bless all of you.

There is no initial commitment required on the part of the interested person until the Easter Vigil next spring when they are either Baptized or formally join the Church.

We ask that all of our parish organizations as part of their meetings and all parishioners, pray that more souls follow the call of Jesus and join the Catholic Church.

Heavenly Father, please grant that more souls enter your fold in the Catholic Church and experience the joy and comfort of receiving your Son Jesus in the Eucharist.

PRO LIFE BABY BOTTLE COLLECTION

FUNERAL LUNCHEON - VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Did you know QAS has a funeral lunch ministry? After a Funeral Mass or Memorial Mass at QAS, volunteers can provide the funeral luncheon in the Church Hall for family and friends.

While we are blessed to provide this service to grieving families, we are in need of additional volunteers. There are currently 94 parishioners on the list but more are needed.

Please consider helping with this beautiful ministry. Are you able to bake a cake? Prepare a hot vegetable casserole? Pick up some bread or sliced cheese? Maybe you have the gift of hospitality? Are you available to help serve the luncheons?

On average you would be called four to five times a year to help. Food is dropped off in the Church Hall the morning of the luncheon, as early as 7:30AM. It's convenient to drop off on the way to work or taking kids to school.

When a family is overwhelmed with grief, decisions and turmoil, we, as a parish family, can help with this one task and show our love and support by providing the funeral luncheon.

For more information, or to sign up, contact Jeannine Sinak at 314-565-6085.

Monastery of St. Clare

Since the founding of Queen of All Saints numerous parishioners have helped the Sisters in many ways. At the request of Father Hambrough a group was formed to help the Sisters maintain their 65 yr old facility along with 18 beautiful acres.

Mike Schaeffer, Terry Werner and JoAnne Thee head the group and call on parishioners at large to assist with many maintenance and beautification projects.

Since last fall the group advised on contracting professionals like Hulsey Roofing and Morelli Tuckpointing.

Many tasks have been accomplished by our volunteers: Painting of gathering area, restoration of Blessed Mother Shrine, emergency removal of storm damage, replanting of bushes and flowers. Just last week a large crew began to restore landscape areas near the entrance.

If you would like to be on call for upcoming tasks text Terry Werner (314) 852-5660.

Just a few of the crew members from last week.
