TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

- Mark 10:25

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. However, we are all called to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts, and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

FROM OUR PASTOR

VOTE NO ON AMENDMENT 3!

Hurricane Disaster: People Need Help!

The Archdiocese of St. Louis has sent a memo to all parishes requesting collections to be taken up to aid the peoples of Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia who are suffering from the ravages of Hurricane Helene. Over 230 people have been killed in the wake of this storm and the death toll is likely to rise. People are without shelter, food, water, electricity and are in dire need of help.

As I write this pastor’s column, another hurricane is moving quickly towards Florida. The National Weather Service just updated Hurricane Milton to a category 5 hurricane and will hit the Tampa Bay area on Wednesday evening as a Cat 3 storm. By the time you are reading this, Hurricane Milton will have hit the west coast of Florida and there will no doubt be more devastating destruction and loss of life. These are the times that we can really make a difference. If you choose to help, place your contribution in an envelope marked “Hurricane Relief” and place it in the collection on Sunday or drop it off at the rectory during the week. Make checks out to “Queen of All Saints Parish” and write “Hurricane” in the memo line. All contributions will be forwarded Catholic Charities in the affected areas. PLEASE HELP

Hope & Healing: Facing the Challenges of Suicide

One of the more devastating experiences in life is to lose a loved one through suicide. Not only does their death cause grief, but the means of their death can compound the pain immensely. Many Catholics are erroneously taught that there is no hope for those that take their own life. That is NOT the teaching of the Church! There is always hope and mercy for those who trust in the love of Jesus. With God all things are possible. For those who would like to learn more about what the Church believes and teaches on this issue, there will be a workshop presented on Thursday October 17th at St Paul Parish in Fenton beginning at 6:30 pm. A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at Our Lady’s Parish in Festus, Missouri at 9am on Saturday November 16. There is more information in this bulletin, and you can scan the following QR code to register.

-fr mike

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life. Send your Spirit to strengthen us with wisdom and fortitude as we defend mothers and children in Missouri from laws that disregard their health and safety.

Mary and Joseph trusted in you and welcomed Jesus into our broken world. God Almighty, we ask their intercession to protect the preborn and their mothers, and to guide all parents in raising their children. May they help us build a civilization of love by upholding the sacredness of life and accompanying pregnant women in need.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady, Mother of the Family, pray for us!
St. Joseph, protector of the unborn, pray for us!

CLW Catechists Needed

QAS would like to offer Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLW) at the 9:00 am mass on Sundays, in addition to 10:30 am!

In order for this to happen, we need at least five more people who are willing to teach our little ones about Jesus.

What to Know:

- There is absolutely NO PREP on the part of the teacher. All preparation is done by the CLW Coordinator.
- Catechists choose the masses to lead CLW which are convenient for their schedules.

Interested?

Feel free to observe one of the catechists at any time during CLW at the 10:30 mass.
