HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Stewardship

"And a voice came from the heavens, 'You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.'" Mark 1:11

Through our baptism, we too, are daughters and sons of God. We are disciples of Jesus. As true disciples we are called to actively participate in our Catholic faith, not just be mere bystanders. This means working in collaboration with the Holy Spirit and discerning how we are being asked to use our gifts. Using our gifts for the benefit of others and not just for our own interests and comfort.

FROM OUR PASTOR

PASTORAL STAFF

Dear Parishioners,

On the evening of December 13 last I gathered with my classmates to celebrate the anniversary of our ordination to the priesthood, which had occurred on December 14, 1985. Gathering as a class to celebrate that sacred day is something our class does every December since 1986. A toast is made, a meal is shared and many stories are told, not only about Ordination Day but also about the ministry we've enjoyed through the years.

Certainly there are many memories from that December 14 thirty-five years ago. The ordaining prelate, Archbishop John May, is discussed. We remember words or phrases from his homily. We recall many of the priests who concelebrated that Mass, along with the Vincentian priests who taught us. We talk about our families, remembering the five sets of parents who occupied the first pews. All but one have passed on to Eternal Life. We shudder at the memory of how cold it was that day - just above 0° - and we laugh at the very noticeable gaffes the organist made. It was a beautiful Mass, a wonderful day, long-awaited and grace-filled. It's memory always uplifts me.

It was a bit different day than another day I was at a church, March 18, 1956, the day of my baptism. I didn't walk in any procession that day; I was carried in. But not by my mother, mothers didn't travel so soon after delivering back then. My father was there and, obviously, my great uncle and my great aunt who served as godparents. I assume my mother's parents were there but nobody came from my father's side, being they lived across the Atlantic Ocean. I have no idea if other babies were baptized that day. I presume there were, as 1956 still remains the year for the most baptisms in the archdiocese and the church where I was baptized - St. Gregory - was in the middle of the exploding suburb of St. Ann. My own family had moved there just a month before the baptism. As a priest I met the priest who baptized me. He didn't seem too impressed.

Two wonderful days - one in a full Cathedral, one in a mostly empty church. One with an archbishop, one with a simple priest. One with beaming parents, one with a mother not even present. Once with a video and hundreds of photos, one with no pictures at all. One day I'll never forget, one day I can't remember.

Yet the late accomplished Scripture scholar Fr. Raymond Brown said, "The day when a person is baptized is more important than the day when a person is ordained priest and bishop." I agree with that. I would add that the baptismal day also is greater than any wedding day. It is the day that we begin to share in the glory of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is the day we are incorporated into the Body of Christ, the Church. It is the day we become co-heirs with Christ to the life of grace and the day we become by adoption children of the Father and brothers and sisters of one another. And as it was for Jesus on coming out of the water, our Baptism day is a day when with us the Father is well pleased. We become His beloved. It's a fantastic day, and it should be remembered and celebrated.

So, do you know the date of your baptism? Do you celebrate the grace you received that day? Pray for your parents and godparents? Go through any photos or videos?

Or, are you ignorant of your baptismal date? Do nothing to let it make a sacred impression on you?

Having been baptized as an adult, I'm sure Jesus had fond and spiritual memories of his baptism. I'm sure it was for Jesus a source of joy, encouragement, and power. The sound of the Father's voice ringing in his ears must have provided Jesus great confidence. Remembering our baptism will do the same for us.

Today brings to a conclusion the Season of Christmas. Again I want to thank all those who made our church and our Liturgy so beautiful. Your music, your song, and your decorations enabled all of us to be in a place where we grew closer to the Christ Child. Thank you.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Tuesday ~ 8:45 a.m.—7:00 p.m.

Here God dwells in our midst;
come let us adore!

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: “One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove descending upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”

MERRY CHRISTMAS, “MR. AL”

May God bless you for your Christmas greetings, your caring notes, and family photos. I especially enjoyed the hand written notes from your children. What a blessing it is to be part of the QAS family.

I am well, healthy, but eating too many Christmas cookies, “WHAT A TREAT.”

May God bless each and every one with a healthy, happy, loving New Year. May the Spirit of Christ dwell within you throughout the year.

With love,
Alfred “Mr. Al” Nadolny

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - OUR CALL TO EVANGELIZE

Through our baptism, we become adopted daughters and sons of God. We become united to Christ's death and Resurrection, but also with the Eucharist. We become the Body of Christ, in communion with Jesus and with each other. Our baptism makes each of us a temple of the Holy Spirit and a co-worker in the priesthood of Christ. We "become a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people that (they) may declare the wonderful deeds of him who called (them) out of darkness into his marvelous light." (CCC 1268)

"Reborn as sons of God, (the baptized) must profess before men faith they have received from God through the Church" and participate in the apostolic and missionary activity of the People of God. (CCC 1270).
