STEWARDSHIP

2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit."

1 Corinthians 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charism (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Once upon a time, there was a man who went on a journey in search of a beautiful and mystical river. When he located the river, he sat down next to it and found contentment as he gazed upon the river's beauty. He drank deeply of its nourishing water; he bathed in it; he fished from it; he played in it. Heck, he became so carefree he almost drowned in it. Joy and happiness bounced through his life while just being near the river.

The man stayed many days and nights at the river, absorbing the wisdom of its mystical teachings. As he prepared to leave, he grabbed his camera and from both shores, and while in the water, he took many pictures of this beautiful, sacred spot. Glad to have captured such memories, he headed for home.

Upon his return, family and friends and fellow citizens noticed the joy the man now radiated. They asked him what had happened to him at the river. They had all sorts of questions - was the river mystical? Magical? Stunning? Brilliant?

"You must go for yourselves and experience the river," the man implored. "You must see, listen, touch, taste and smell the river for yourselves. I could never fully describe or hope to explain the beauty and mystery I experienced from the river. Words can never say it all. I urge you: Go! Let the river change your lives the way it changed mine."

"Well, we could go as you suggest," replied one of the crowd. "But, didn't you take a bunch of photos? Couldn't we just look at them?"

"We could," said another, "and to show how magnificent the river is we could put each picture in a golden frame and hang them in the town hall. We can then go there on any day we like and be thrilled to look at the river."

And they did. And people streamed through the town hall and looked at the photos of the river - for a time. Then no one looked, and no one went to the river, and no one found boundless joy.

And seeing what had happened, the man was saddened. He wished he had never taken any pictures of that beautiful and mystical river.

The water in today's Gospel does not flow between opposite banks but sits in large jars. While in there the water is miraculously touched by the power of Jesus and becomes a delicious wine, far more flavorful than the wine already served. A pity, then, that no one drew any pictures of those six stone water jars. Then we could have hung them on a wall and paraded past them and so find inspiration. How easy that would be!

Or would it be better to go to the source, to seek Jesus Christ, even if such a quest is not always easy or as satisfying as we hope it could be. Jesus performs this first miracle in St. John's Gospel as the beginning of the signs he would display as a cause to put faith in him. The disciples there that day in Cana saw the glory of Jesus up close and they began to believe in him. Being close to Jesus opened the door not only to witnessing miracles, but also to enhancing faith, a faith that would take them right into Heaven. Faith will do so for us, too.

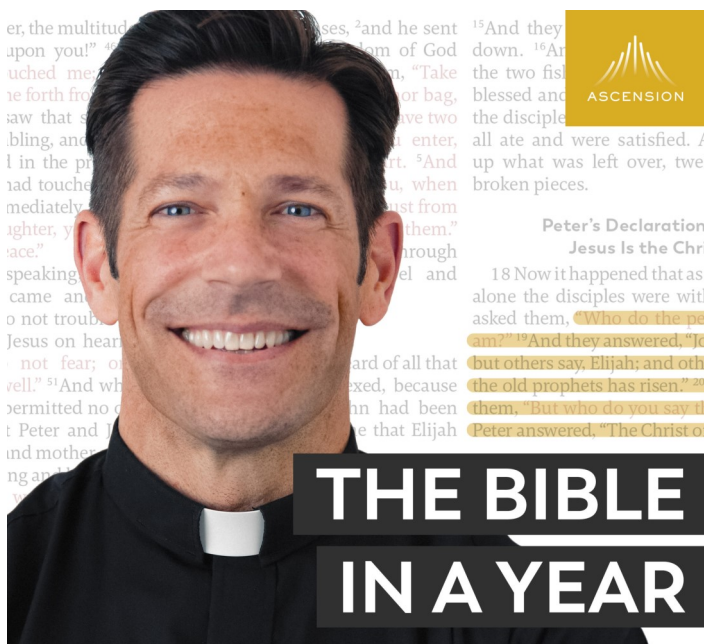

Thus, like the man at the river, we jump right into the goodness of Jesus. We bathe in his grace, look at him from every side, drink in every blessing. Pictures, statues, and holy cards of Jesus are great, but we are not content with that. No, we want the abundance. We want the Eucharist. We want the Real Presence of Jesus.

I ask you to pray for Fr. Detwiler, the chaperones, and the youth from our parish as they travel to Washington, D.C. this week for the Pro-Life March. May God keep them safe. May their pilgrimage and prayers bring hope and protection to all - born and unborn.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,

Fr. Hambrough

A Prayer for Life

Father and maker of all,
you adorn all creation
with splendor and beauty,
and fashion human lives
in your image and likeness.

Awaken in every heart
reverence for the work of your hands,
and renew among your people
a readiness to nurture and sustain your precious gift of life.
Grant this through our Lord
Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God forever and ever.

Amen

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - Generosity

For many of us, generosity is a by-product of gratitude. When we receive a gift we are grateful. Our first reaction is that we want to share the gift with someone; we want to be generous! Why? Because that's the way God made us. Remember, He made us in His image and likeness. God has been generous to each of us in so many ways, and He expects each of us to be generous with our time, treasure, and talent as well. "Give to the LORD, you families of nations, give to the LORD glory and praise; give to the LORD the glory due His name!" In what ways can we be generous with all of our gifts this week and give glory to God?

Rosary Rally

A day of prayer
for the

Legal Protection of Unborn Children

SAT. ~ JAN. 22 ~ 12:00

<><><>

Monastery of St. Clare

(On Telegraph Road near Monument)

Please join us in a peaceful public Rosary Rally to pray for the sanctity of all human life from the moment of conception to natural death.

Through public prayer and reparation, the rosary is a powerful way to save our precious children from the threat of abortion.

All are welcome.

January 22 Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

A great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world. Through special initiatives and in daily prayer, may an impassioned plea arise to God, the Creator and love of life, from every Christian community, from every group and association, from every family and from the heart of every believer.

Pope Saint John Paul II

Evangelium Vitae

The over 60 million abortions since the 1973 decisions of Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton reflect with heartbreaking magnitude what Pope Francis means by a “throwaway culture.” However, we have great trust in God’s providence. We are reminded time and again in Scripture to seek the Lord’s help, and as people of faith, we believe that our prayers are heard.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), no. 373, designates January 22 as a particular day of prayer and penance, called the “Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children”: “In all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22 (or January 23, when January 22 falls on a Sunday) shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion.”

As individuals, we are called to observe this day through the penitential practices of prayer, fasting and/or giving alms. Another way to take part is through participating in special events to observe the anniversary of Roe v. Wade. Call your local diocese or parish to find out what events might be taking place in your area.

*Pray
for the sanctity of all human life.*

I am your creator. You were in my care even before you were born. Isaiah 44:2

THE CROSS AND THE MASS
ARE THE SAME
SACRIFICE

When we go to Mass, we are brought into the presence of Christ's sacrifice on the cross which took place at Calvary two thousand years ago. His one sacrifice is again made present; what happened on the cross and what takes place on the altar at Mass is the same sacrifice - yet present in different modes. This understanding helps us to better participate in three ways:

First, in both modes (cross and altar) are we united to the sacrifice? Yes, Jesus' sacrifice on the cross is our death to sin: Jesus became sin for us. The Father "made Him to be sin who knew no sin" (2 Corinthians 5:21). At Mass the same thing happens: we are offered as sacrifice along with the body of the Lord (Catechism no. 901). We offer all of our joys, sorrows, intentions and weaknesses, the things we like about ourselves, and the things we dislike about ourselves. We offer everything: family problems, marriage issues, conflict at work, everything. We give our whole selves in every dimension. We offer our very lives to God the Father, along with the Sacrifice of Christ, by uniting ourselves with Christ crucified, as we are brought into His crucified presence at the altar. So, in the one sacrifice of Christ - both on the cross and at the altar - we are offered. We come to Mass, then, with the disposition of giving our whole lives in this way.

Second, how are we united with the one Sacrifice?

Through a priest. In the sacrifice on Calvary, Jesus Christ - the eternal high priest (Hebrews 4:14) - takes us up with himself and offers us as sacrifice to the Father. At Mass the priest, acting in the person of Christ (the head of the body), offers our sacrifice to the Father: "Pray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father." Later, he says: "In humble prayer we ask you, almighty God: command that these gifts be borne by the hands of your holy Angel to your altar on high in the sight of your divine majesty..." So the sacrifice is always offered by The Priest (Jesus Christ, as at Calvary) and the one standing-in-the-very-person-of-The Priest (the ordained priest of Jesus Christ, as at Mass). So, not only do we come to Mass with the intention of offering our whole selves, but also that we are making this offering of ourselves through the hands of the priest.

Third, is the direction of the sacrifice the same in both modes (cross and altar)? Yes, Christ hanging upon the cross, said: "Father, into your hands, I commend my spirit" (Luke 23:46). The direction of Christ's sacrifice on the cross was toward the Father. He was offering himself to the Father. At the Mass the direction of the sacrifice - since it is the same sacrifice - is also to the Father. Though the priest often faces us, the people, it benefits us to frequently call to mind that the sacrifice being offered is being offered to the Father. Listen to the words of the Eucharistic prayer and notice how clearly and intentionally the prayers are spoken to the Father. The direction of the sacrifice is always toward the Father.

By uniting ourselves to the Sacrifice of Jesus Christ in the altar and in the cross, we put to death all the brokenness and sin in our life, so that we - who share in his death - might also, on the last day, share in his Resurrection.

VOLUNTEER IN THE NEW YEAR

Looking to volunteer? The Society of St. Vincent De Paul offers a variety of opportunities for young adults, including

- Home visitation of the needy through 140 area chapters, to provide food, rent, and utility assistance
- Four young adult chapters, in Soulard, South Grand, Maplewood, and Florissant
- Ten area thrift stores
- Clerical and office work

For details, please contact Bryan Kirchoff at bryankirchoff@att.net or 314-640-4366.

REST IN PEACE

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Anna Maggini, mother of Emanuela (John) Catarinichia, of our parish.

MARTHAS FUNERAL LUNCH MINISTRY

Luke 10:38-40 says: "Martha welcomed Jesus into her house and then proceeded to serve a meal to all present." The Gospel tells how Martha welcomed Jesus and His disciples into her home and provided a meal and gracious hospitality. When a family loses a loved one they are often overwhelmed with decisions, grief and turmoil. As a parish community, we can support grieving parishioners by offering to provide the funeral luncheon.

The parish provides the meat and paper products and volunteers bring the side dishes and provide hospitality. Additional volunteers are needed to help serve the funeral luncheons and to bring a side dish such as a vegetable, salad, potato casserole, dessert, etc.

Thank you for considering this simple way to serve, as Martha served.

For more information on this ministry contact Jeannine at 565-6085 or sinakmomoffive@yahoo.com.

Blood is amazing stuff. Did you know that adults have approximately 16 pints of blood in their body at any given time? One collection unit of blood is about 1 pint. It takes roughly 14 hours for your body to replace a donated pint of blood. In the U.S. alone, 41,000 units of blood are used each day. Only about 5% of healthy Americans donate blood. Multiple donations account for over 80% of the blood used for transfusions.

There is no substitute for blood.

You have the power to help people you may not even know. All it takes is for you to roll up your sleeve and donate a pint of blood. Remember, whole blood and blood products such as platelets can't be manufactured; they can only be given freely through the compassionate generosity of donors.

If you are at least 17 year's old, weigh at least 110 pounds and are in general good health, please give the gift of life!

UPCOMING ACTS RETREATS:

We would like to invite you to join us for an extraordinary weekend on the beautiful campus of Mercy Center in Frontenac, Missouri. The ACTS Retreat is a great opportunity to meet fellow parishioners while you grow in faith. This year the retreat is being offered at a reduced rate of $150.

GIFT CERTIFICATES ARE

AVAILABLE: Consider buying an ACTS Retreat Gift Certificate for a loved one. It is a great birthday gift.

If interested in attending the retreat, or purchasing a gift certificate, please contact Mary Basse (314-609-5628 or pashiam@gmail.com) or Frank Mantia (314-497-5067 or mantiafb@hotmail.com). Below are the dates of the retreats:

Men's ACTS Retreat: February 24-27, 2022

FIAT WOMEN'S GROUP

All women are invited for prayer and a talk presented by a Kenrick-Glennon Seminary faculty member on the third Thursday of each month. The next session will take place on January 20, beginning with the rosary at 8:00 a.m. and followed by a talk presented by Msgr. James Ramacciotti, Assistant Professor of Canon Law, entitled, "What God Has Joined Together, Let No One Separate—The Issue of Annulments in the Church." To receive updates about this and other Fiat Women's Group events, visit Kenrick.edu/fiat.

Men, women, and couples wounded by abortion are invited to attend the third archdiocesan Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreat, February 18-20, 2022.

Rachel's Vineyard, offered through the Archdiocese of St. Louis Abortion Healing Ministry, has helped 320,000-plus women and men globally since its founding in 1993 by psychologist Dr. Theresa Burke (see <https://rachelvineyard.org/>).

The retreat will be held in a comfortable and prayerful setting in the St. Louis area, with proper COVID-19 precautions in place (exact location shared at registration). The cost is $100 to attend which includes two night's lodging, all meals and materials. To register by February 7 or for more information, contact 314-406-0815 or hopehealing@archstl.org. All information and inquiries are kept confidential.

PREVENT AND PROTECT STL

POLAND PILGRIMAGE 2022

Hey, this is Father Tim Foy from St. John the Baptist -Gildehaus Parish, and I want to invite you on a very unique pilgrimage to Poland from Aug. 1-15, 2022! We will retrace many of the steps of Pope St. John Paul II and see the Wawel Castle and Cathedral, the Divine Mercy Shrine, St. Faustina's Convent, the Wieliczka Salt mine, and the heart of the trip is a walking pilgrimage from Krakow to the Black Madonna Shrine of Czestochowa (Note: our tour bus will accompany the pilgrims to provide a break if needed).

There will be two information meetings on Jan. 30th – 1pm at Holy Infant of Ballwin and 3pm at Immaculate Conception of Dardenne Prairie. The last info meeting is at St. Margaret Mary Alacoque on Feb. 6th at 4:30 pm. Please call me with any questions at 636-583-2488.
