John was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said, "Behold, the Lamb of God." The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus. Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi"—which translated means Teacher — "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." So they went and saw where Jesus was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about four in the afternoon. Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John and followed Jesus. He first found his own brother Simon and told him, we have found the Messiah."— which is translated Christ. Then he brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon the son of John; you will be called Cephas"—which is translated Peter.

HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Stewardship

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" John 1:30

What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for the material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, in silence and ask the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.

FROM OUR PASTOR

PASTORAL STAFF

Dear Parishioners,

I received this past week a letter from Fr. James Mason, President-Rector of Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. It read in part:

“Thank you for your parish community’s generous gift of $5,713 to Kenrick-Glennon Seminary’s Christmas Collection. I offer my sincere gratitude to them for supporting the formation of seminarians as they prepare for a lifetime of priestly ministry.

Please continue to pray for the 139 young men discerning God’s call to the priesthood at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary this year. May they excel in every virtue, in love that is sincere, and in concern for the sick and the poor. Your support sustains these men as they respond generously to God’s invitation to grow in faith and to serve their brothers and sisters in Christ.

Please know that your parish is in my prayers.”

It is important for all of us to pray for seminarians, and to ask God to direct those considering the priesthood to enter the seminary. It would be nice if the Lord spoke to young men and women discerning a priestly or religious vocation as easily as he did to the boy Samuel so long ago. Our First Reading today informs us that Samuel was awakened just three times by the Lord, and that he had the priest Eli to help him understand that God was speaking to him. How nice,—three wake-ups, one priest, and Samuel was ready for a lifetime of service to God. Now it takes several years, lots of priests, and thousands of words spoken in prayer for young people to commit to a lifetime of service. We can be thankful that our Archdiocese has a wonderful place like Kenrick-Glennon to help them respond to God.

Of course, it takes all of us a lifetime of listening to God - through prayer, the Scripture, the sacraments, and the Mass - to obey the call the Lord makes to us. Sometimes figuring what God wants comes easily and readily, as it did for Samuel or as it did for Andrew and his unnamed companion in today’s Gospel. Other times, it takes years of praying, searching, and sacrificing to understand God’s call and will. Many wish that God would make it easier or that God would hurry up with his answers, but God doesn’t. Instead, the Lord expects patience, wants us to pass the test he presents and stay on the path he wants us to walk. We do our best to stay true to our calling, always confident that when Jesus says, “Come, and you will see,” he leads us to a place of beauty, peace, and love.

One source of information that can help us on our way is the St. Louis Review, the official newspaper of the Archdiocese. It’s that time of year to subscribe to the paper and I hope you will. The more we know about our faith the more we can share this information with others. The more others know about faith the more Christ is present among us. Reading the Review goes beyond knowing facts about our religion. It opens the door so that Jesus may enter.

We get a new President this week. Joseph Biden will become this nation’s second Catholic president. I find the President-elect to be wrong on many issues. I would tell him so if he ever invites me to the White House. But I would tell him also that I’m praying for him, as I have for those who’ve been in the Oval Office before him. Being President of the United States is a magnificent task; prayerful help is necessary. I’m going to ask God to guide and inspire President Biden. I hope you do, too.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,

DOCTOR OF THE SOUL

In today's Gospel, Jesus heals many of the townspeople of Capernaum. His healing of physical ailments points to his spiritual healing - to his being the doctor of the soul.

The Gospels are filled with accounts of Jesus' healing, encounters with those whose spiritual energies are unable to flow. Much of Jesus' ministry consisted in teaching people how to see (the kingdom of God), how to hear (the voice of the Spirit), how to walk (overcoming the paralysis of the heart), and how to be free of themselves (so as to discover God).

Jesus was referred to in the early Church as the Savior (salvator in Latin). The term speaks of the one who brings healing - indeed, our English word salve is closely related to salvus, meaning health. When the soul is healthy, it is in a living relationship with God. When the soul is sick, the entire person becomes ill, because all flows from and depends upon the dynamic encounter with the source of being and life who is God.

We heal the soul by bringing to bear the salvator, the healer, the one who in his person reconciled us with God and opened the soul to the divine poser.

The St. Louis Review is your faith resource access to local, national and international news. If you are not a parish subscriber, contact the parish office or make a parish contribution with your request to receive the St. Louis Review in your home. If you are a current parish subscriber, consider a parish contribution of $35 today.

REST IN PEACE

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Eleanor Sutton, grandmother of Tina (Keith) Moszczenski of our parish.

May God welcome her home and comfort her family in their time of sorrow.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - MORE EVANGELIZATION

How quick the first disciples were to follow Jesus! They immediately recognized Him as the Lamb of God and followed Him to where He was staying. How quickly do we go to the church or the chapel for Mass and prayer, to encounter the Lamb of God? In order for us to be effective evangelists, we must nourish our own spiritual life and know the One whom we are called to share with others. This week, take some time to nourish your spiritual life and focus on encountering the Lord anew so that you can share Him with conviction in your thoughts, words, and actions.

Thoughts to Ponder

“When one day I resolved to practice a certain virtue, I lapsed into the vice opposed to that virtue ten times more frequently than on other days. In the evening, I was reflecting on why, today I had lapsed so extraordinarily, and I heard Jesus say, ‘You were counting too much on yourself and too little on Me.’ And I understood the cause of my lapse.” - St. Faustina

“Don’t despair over your shortcomings. Start over each day. You make spiritual progress by beginning again and again.” - St. Francis de Sales

“You aspire to great things? Begin with little ones.” - St. Augustine
