The Epiphany of the Lord

"...They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh." (Matthew 3:11)

What gifts do you give to the Lord? Pope St. Gregory said that these three gifts represent what we should give God every day. Gold - we should reflect Christ's wisdom in all our relationships. Frankincense - represents our daily prayer and adoration to God. Myrrh - is a symbol of our daily sacrifices that we unite with Jesus for the sake of others.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Perhaps you've heard the story of the time when Communists came to power in China. Many Christians were arrested by the leaders who adhered to atheistic principles. Christians were thrown into prisons or, worse, were executed for their faith in Jesus Christ.

One Christian was given the opportunity to reveal why he chose Christianity over the religion of his ancestors. "Well," he said, "I was in a deep pit, sinking in the mire, and helpless to free myself. Looking up I saw a shadow at the top. And soon a venerable face looked over the brink and said, 'My son, I am Confucius, the father of your country. If you had obeyed my teachings you would never have been down there.' And then Confucius passed on with a significant wag of his finger and a cheerless farewell, adding, 'If you ever get out of this, remember to obey my teachings.' But, alas, that did not save me.

"Then Buddha came along, and looking over the edge of the pit he cried, 'My son, just count it all as nothing. Enter into rest. Fold your arms and retire within yourself, and you will find Nirvana, the peace to which we all are tending.' I cried aloud, 'Father Buddha, if only you will help me to get out, I will be glad to do so. I could follow your instructions easily if I were where you are, but how can I rest in this awful place?' Buddha, however, passed on, leaving me to my despair.

"Then another face appeared. It was the face of a man beaming with kindness, while simultaneously bearing marks of sorrow. He didn't speak from the top of the pit, he didn't linger from the edge. He leaped down to my side, threw his arms around me, lifted me from the muck, and hoisted me to the solid ground above. Climbing up himself, he stood next to me. He did not bid me farewell nor scold me for my mistake. Rather, he took my filthy garments and put new clothes on me, then he asked me to follow him, saying, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' That, sir, is why I became a Christian."

Today's Feast of the Epiphany proclaims to the whole world that Jesus has jumped into the pit planet Earth has become and with concern and love will uplift us from the quicksand of sin and death, inviting us always to come and follow him. Christ was born in Bethlehem not just to save the people then, but also the people now. Not just to bring salvation to the Jews of Israel, but to all people everywhere. The Wise Men, Gentiles and foreigners, represent all of us as they acknowledge Jesus Christ as a King. So do we. Our acknowledgement, our faith, assures us that this newborn King will always be with us, even if we find ourselves stuck in the mire. We will not be abandoned. We will not be alone. The Son of God has come to the Earth. Jesus has come to save us.

It's been said, "Youth is when you're allowed to stay up late on New Year's Eve. Old age is when you're forced to." I don't know how you welcomed the Year of Our Lord 2022, but here it is. Albert Einstein remarked, "Learn from yesterday, live for today, hope for tomorrow." Following that piece of advice, I urge to learn from yesterday, not only New Year's Day, but also the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God. There is much we can learn from our Blessed Mother as we journey through 2022. Mary's obedience to God's will sets an example for us all. Her commitment to her Son, Jesus, from Bethlehem to Calvary to Heaven, inspires us to make a similar commitment. Her Queenship, over the Saints and you and me, assures us of her great concern for what happens in our lives. Her first century faith motivates our faith in the twenty-first century, in this new year of 2022.

May the Christ who jumps into the pit, and the Mother who bore him in Bethlehem, guide us to holiness all through the year.

May God bless you always.

In Christ,

Fr. Hambrough

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. Jack and Linda (nee Joggerst) Horas, who were joined in the Sacrament of Matrimony at Queen of All Saints on December 15, 2021.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - Welcoming and Hospitality

Two key components of Evangelization are being welcoming and providing radical hospitality. The Gospel today provides a great example of both welcoming and hospitality. The wise men traveled a very long distance to show welcome and hospitality to the “newborn King of the Jews.” They provided generous gifts and gave Him homage. Mary and Joseph welcomed the strangers and presented a beautiful example of radical hospitality. Mary and Joseph were probably still extremely tired from their own journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem and from the anxiety of giving birth to a baby in a manger. However, they realized they were called to share Jesus with others and they did. How do you show welcoming and radical hospitality? When was the last time you shared Jesus with others?

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Great things grow from trusting in God.

ROSES FOR LIFE

Your QAS Knights of Columbus council conducts a “Roses for Life” campaign each year in January to promote the truth that all human life is sacred from conception until natural death, and to help defray some of the costs for our QAS students to attend the March for Life.

Roses will be available in the pews at church during all the Masses on the weekend of 1/8 & 1/9. They should be filled in with your name and address, and returned at the end of Mass to a Knight, who will also gratefully accept whatever donation you are able to give.

This year’s annual March for Life will take place in Washington DC on 1/21/22, and marks the 49th anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court’s “Roe v. Wade” and “Doe v. Bolton” decisions. Decisions which made abortion legal in our nation at any time and for any reason, decisions that we as faithful Catholics have been working hard to reverse ever since.

The Roses will be delivered in person to our elected officials in Washington D.C. by a Knight from QAS. Please be generous toward this most worthy cause, pray for God’s mercy upon our nation, and thank you in advance!

Questions, please contact Ed Murphy @ 314.623.4083 or ejmurphy@prodigy.net

Rosary Rally For Our Country

United States Of

America

SUN. ~ JAN. 2 ~ 12:00

<><><>

Monastery of St. Clare

(On Telegraph Road near Monument)

Please join us in a peaceful public Rosary Rally to pray for our country through the intercession of the Immaculata!!

"There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot resolve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary."

—Sr. Lucia dos Santos, Fatima Seer

"GIVE ME AN ARMY SAYING THE ROSARY AND I WILL CONQUER THE WORLD."

POPE PIUS IX

IN YOUR TIME OF NEED, TURN TO MARY STAR OF THE SEA
FOR HELP

Now more than ever, we Catholics need to grab our Rosaries and pray with all our might because we are faced with situations in our country, in our private lives and in the Church that are very serious and confusing. Let us set aside our fears and take comfort in Mary. Let Her be the star in the turbulent seas that we face today.

For centuries Catholics have turned to the Rosary to overcome problems big and small.

The Rosary has won battles, fought heresies and wrought countless miracles. A multitude of saints and popes have endorsed it. Pope Pius IX declares, "Among all the devotions approved by the Church, none has been so favored by so many miracles as the Rosary devotion."

Our Lady also assured us that "Finally, my Immaculate Heart will triumph." But at a time when all seems lost, humanly speaking, when events turn for the worst, we must not give in to the temptation that Her promises are empty. We must confide in Her and reject that temptation with all our hearts and minds.

We have a powerful weapon in the Rosary. Let us cling to it and ask our Heavenly Mother to intercede for us and intervene for the greater glory of God.

Historical antecedents show the Rosary gave victory to those who assiduously prayed it with faith. Let us expect no less during our tumultuous times. Let us pray the Rosary daily and look forward to a glorious Catholic civilization in the reign of Mary as St. Louis Grignion de Montfort prophesied.

*Pray for the sanctity
of all human life.*

I am your creator. You were in my care even before you were born. Isaiah 44:2

EXPECTANT MOTHER'S BLESSING

Next Sunday, January 9th, is the "second Sunday of the month" and therefore is the expectant mother's blessing. This special blessing will take place following the 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses. All those expecting a child, through their pregnancy or awaiting adoption of a child, are encouraged to come for this blessing every month. As a parish, we continue to pray for the unborn babies who will soon join our congregation. Let us pray for good health and safe deliveries.

REST IN PEACE

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Ed Tress, brother of Evajean (Jim) Morris of our parish. May he rest in peace.

HOW DO YOU LIVE YOUR DASH?

I read of a man who stood to speak
at the funeral of a friend.
He referred to the dates on his tombstone
from the beginning to the end.

He noted that first came his date of birth and spoke the following date with tears.
But he said what mattered most of all
was the dash between those years.

December 19, 1943 - October 4, 2000

For that dash represents all the time
that he spent alive on earth.
And now only those who love him
know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not, how much we own;
the cars, the house, the cash.
What matters is how we live and love
and how we spend our dash.

So think about this long and hard:
Are there some things you'd like to change?
For you ever now how much time is left
that can still be rearranged.

If we could just slow down enough
to consider what's true and real,
and always try to understand
the way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger,
and show appreciation more
and love the people in our lives
like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect,
and more often wear a smile
Remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

So, when your homily is being read
with your life's actions to rehash
Would you be proud of the things they say
and how you spent your dash?
