HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Stewardship

"...they fell down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasurers and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh..." Matthew 2:11

Notice the order of events in the Magi's visit. First, they knelt before Jesus and prayed to Him. Then they presented Him with their gifts. We, too, must take time to pray before we present our gifts to the Lord. We never know what God may be asking us to share!

FROM OUR PASTOR

PASTORAL STAFF

Dear Parishioners,

The old monk was teaching the novices of the monastery. He inquired, "How can we determine the hour of dawn, when the night ends and the day begins?"

A hand shot up and the young monk stated confidently, "When from a distance you can distinguish between a dog and a sheep."

"Nope," answered the priest.

"Is it when you can distinguish between a fig tree and a grapevine?" another novice wanted to know.

"No, it is not," Father said, and then continued, "It is when you can look into the face of a human being and you have enough light in you to recognize a person as your brother and sister. Until that moment it is night, and darkness is still with us.

Of course, the monks could have answered the Feast of the Epiphany. The star pierced the darkness and caught the attention of the Magi. With haste they set out on their journey, eager to pay homage. Arriving at Bethlehem, they presented their precious gifts. Overjoyed at what had happened, they gave evidence of the truth of Isaiah's words, "Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem. Your light has come . . . Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance."

Thanks to this day, thanks to the presence of the Christ Child, we are not a people who stumble about as if we're trying to tell the difference between a dog and a sheep. We now know that this Child was born for all people, for Jew and Gentile, and for people then and people now. This Child will teach us how to love one another as He loves us. Jesus will insist that we serve one another as he serves us and he will command that His light shines as if from the housetop; there can be no confusion about when it is day and when it is night. Like the star shining in the darkness, the light of Christ shines in us. What can we do but bow down and pay Christ homage?

The great composer Johann Sebastian Bach always placed two sets of letters on his musical manuscripts. At the beginning of the composition he penned "J.J." - that is, Jesu Juvet - "Jesus, help me." At the end of his work he wrote, "S.D.G." - that is Soli Dei Gloria, "To God alone be glory."

Perhaps this would be a good thing to write on a calendar or imprint in our mind as we begin the Year of Our Lord 2021. Certainly, considering all that happened in 2020, we could use the help of Jesus as we begin this year. Jesus is still in the lap of Mary as we celebrate Epiphany Sunday. But we know He grows up and we know He promises to be with us always. We need Jesus as we start 2021.

And using the strength and power that only Jesus can provide, and following like obedient sheep in the direction Jesus takes us during the next twelve months, we can be sure that we will insist that all that happens to you, we, our parish, our families, and our country will be for the glory of God alone. For that to happen, it will require our watchfulness, steadfastness and commitment to Jesus Christ. Then, as certainly as the Lord guaranteed that those Magi made it home safely, the Lord will bring us safely through the year 2021.

Happy New Year to all of you. May God bless you abundantly on each of the next 362 days.

ROSES FOR LIFE

Your QAS Knights of Columbus council conducts a “Roses for Life” campaign each year in January to promote the truth that all human life is sacred from conception until natural death.

Roses will be available during all the Masses on the weekend of 1/9 & 1/10. They should be filled in with your name and address, and returned at the end of Mass to a Knight, who will also gratefully accept whatever donation you are able to give.

The annual March for Life takes place in Washington, D.C. on 1/29/21, and marks the 48th anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court’s “Roe v. Wade” and “Doe v. Bolton” decisions. Decisions which made abortion legal in our nation at any time and for any reason, decisions that we as faithful Catholics have been working hard to reverse ever since.

The Roses will be delivered in person to our elected officials in Washington, D.C. by a Knight from QAS. Please be generous toward this most worthy cause, pray for God’s mercy upon our nation, and thank you in advance!

Questions, please contact Ed Murphy @ 314.623.4083 or ejmurphy@prodigy.net
