STEWARDSHIP

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?”

LUKE 17:18

Most of us live relatively “easy” lives. We have food, shelter, clothing and money. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you and discern how He is calling you to share your gifts.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

In her book Love and Duty, author Anne Purcell writes about seeing U.S. Army Major Jim Statler standing next to her pastor after a Sunday service in 1968. She knew instantly that the Major was there with news about her husband, Colonel Ben Purcell, who was stationed in Vietnam. Shaking as the officer approached her and bracing herself for dreadful news, she heard Major Statler say, “Ben was on a helicopter that was shot down. No body has been found, so he’s being declared, “missing in action - MIA.”

Ann recalled, “Somewhere in the back of my mind a little candle of flame flickered. This tiny flame was the vestige of my faith.” Days passed without word. To Anne, being an MIA wife was like being in limbo. She found herself only able to pray one thing: ‘Help me, dear Heavenly Father.’ She says, ‘I hung on to this important truth - that God would help me - and the flickering flame of faith began to grow.’ Then one day Anne noticed a white dove sitting in her yard. It was particularly beautiful, very still and quiet, and a highly uncommon sight in her neighborhood. She took it as a sign from God that God, indeed, was always near.

Colonel Ben Purcell was the highest ranking Army officer captured by the Viet Cong during the Vietnam War. He had been a passenger on a helicopter shot down on February 6, 1968. Easily captured after the crash, Purcell and the others were made to march through the night with their arms tightly bound behind their backs. One soldier was more seriously wounded than the others, so much so that the Viet Cong decided this soldier should rest while the others marched on. Purcell was surprised at their kindness - until they heard a gun shot. The killing of their comrade provided a clue to the brutality the Americans would receive from their captors. Ben Purcell would spend five years in various prisons; all but the last few months in solitary confinement. In 1973, along with other prisoners-of-war, he returned to the United States, to his beloved wife, Anne.

For her part, Anne had kept up a steady string of prayers to God for her husband. For five years, she had clung to the fact that God was near. Little did she know that during those years before she was reunited with her husband, Ben was whispering to her from prison, “Anne, find solace and strength in the Lord.”

Ben retired from the Army in 1980 and returned to his home in Georgia. He and Anne owned a Christmas tree farm in Clarkesville, which they operated until Ben’s death in 2013.

Like the persistent widow in today’s Gospel, Anne hung on to that “flickering flame of faith.” Day after day, year after year, she beseeched Almighty God, convinced that God would hear her prayers. Like Moses in the First Reading, she lifted her hands in prayer, sure that God would help. God did.

Sometimes that’s all we have - a flickering flame of faith. Sometimes all we can say is “Help me, dear Heavenly Father.” That’s all we need to say, that provides all the hope necessary. After all, as Jesus instructs, if a dishonest judge knows what to do, surely our loving Father will supply all our needs and calm all our fears. We just need to pray, to persist, and to know what wonders God can do with just a “flickering flame of faith.”

Last week at our Convocation in the Ozarks I enjoyed a special time with my brother priests. This week I’ll be enjoying a special time with family. I’m leaving Tuesday for the Trappist Monastery in Iowa where my uncle is a monk and priest. After a few days of retreat with the monks, my siblings will join me, along with my aunt, uncle, and cousins who also live in Iowa. It’s the first time in seven years that we’ll all be together. Please pray for our safe journey. I will be praying for you.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

CONGREGATION HEAD COUNT THIS WEEKEND

This weekend, October 15th & 16th, the hospitality ministers will count the congregants during Mass at the end of the homily.

YOU ARE INVITED

The 50th Anniversary Committee invites you to welcome Sister Mary Michael from the Monastery of St. Clare on Thanksgiving Day, November 24th. She will be representing the Monastery as we thank them for their contribution in getting us started as a parish in 1972. Our parish was formed but didn't have a church. The Poor Clares offered the chapel in the Monastery of St. Clare for our use for two years until our church was built.

A PRAYER FOR PREGNANT MOTHERS

O Blessed Mother, you received the good news of the incarnation of Christ, your Son, with faith and trust. Grant your protection to all pregnant mothers facing difficulties.

Guide us as we strive to make our parish communities places of welcome and assistance for mothers in need. Help us become instruments of God's love and compassion.

Mary, Mother of the Church, graciously help us build a culture of life and a civilization of love, together with all people of good will, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life.* Amen.

This year, the Variety Guild is launching #RebuildTheGuild in an effort to help us bounce back after COVID. WE NEED YOU!

Rebuild The Guild is an active campaign to bring new support and life into The Queen of All Saints Variety Guild. The Variety Guild has performed shows at our parish for 40 years, raising money for the parish, school, youth group and various charities. It continues to build community support, fulfills our parish mission and greatly entertains our audiences with fun, laughter, and a memorable live theater experience. Our Rebuild the Guild campaign goal is to round out our membership and fill needed positions to once again strengthen our organization and present our next year's show with the gust and glory of its reputation in the QAS theatrical history. And we'd love to have you join us!

We are sure there's a place for YOU to join in and meet local parishioners and neighbors and be a part of a community-based live theater experience. No experience is necessary, and all are welcome (must be 18 years of age by 01/01/2023). Here are just a few of the areas you can participate in: singing, dancing, acting, stage manager, light and sound crew, scenery and props, stage crew, costumes, marketing and advertising, hair and makeup, helping with setup and takedown, or just being apart of our fun and lively organization, supporting the mission to raise money for the parish and community using our God-given talents.

We'd love to talk to you more and answer any questions you might have. Please contact Elizabeth Knecht at 314-719-7891, or VarietyGuildQAS@gmail.com.

The Variety Guild is excited to welcome all of our friends, neighbors and community members to our second (somewhat annual)

Community Social and Square Dance!

No experience is necessary, and dancing is not required.

We hope you'll join us for an enjoyable evening of fun and fellowship with dancing, laughter, a cake walk, 50/50 and other raffles, Heads or Tails and more!

You will then be prompted to submit information for a background screening, register for a Protecting God's Children workshop, view TWO ONLINE TRAINING MODULES and agree to the Code of Ethical Conduct. You have to complete ALL steps to complete the process.

*If you have previously attended a PGC workshop, the system will find and ask you to confirm your previous record of attendance. You will not be prompted to register for an upcoming workshop.

You may use the links in your approval checklist to access these requirements. These steps may be completed all at once or may be completed separately at your convenience. Please note: if you do not complete all modules and decide to finish at a later date, you will need your User name and Password. You will receive an automated email weekly to remind you which requirements are outstanding. When all compliance requirements have been completed, your account will be approved and you will be clear to work with minors and vulnerable adults.

Should you need any assistance, please contact ocyp@archstl.org
