HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Mission Statement

As members of Queen of All Saints Parish we are a community united in the Catholic faith, nourished by the Eucharist, and sent to make Christ known to all through word and deed.

Stewardship

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind."

Matthew 22:37

Do you put other "gods" before God? Is your love of money, power, status, comfort or some personal possession greater than your love for God? Do you really recognize that everything you have and that everything you are is a gift from God? The good news - it's not too late to put God first in all things in your life.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

It once was said, "Christians love one another. They never fail to help widows; they save orphans from those who would hurt them. If a man has something, he gives freely to the man who has nothing. If they see a stranger, Christians take him home and are happy about it, as though the stranger was a real brother. They don't consider themselves brothers in the usual sense, these Christians, but brothers instead through the Spirit, in God. And if they hear that one of them is in jail or persecuted for professing the name of their Redeemer, they give him all he needs. This is really a new kind of person. There is something divine in them."

These words were recorded in the court of Emperor Hadrian of Rome in the second century AD, spoken by a non-Christian, Aristides, who had come to the court to offer a defense for Christians. We pray Aristides would offer similar words in a court today.

While we may not be surrounded by dozens of widows and orphans as they were in days of old, and while we may not meet a lonely stranger and give that person a bedroom in our house, we remain nonetheless a new kind of person. There is something divine in us. We are not like those who care only for themselves nor like those who believe themselves better than others. No, Christianity does not make us apathetic or haughty. What it does make us is obedient.

Jesus in today's Gospel gives us the Great Commandment - Love God with all you have and love your neighbor as yourself. Two thousand years later, this commandment still rings in the ears of those whom Christ has called, people like you and me. Heeding this call, and being happy about it, has allowed Jesus to plant deep within us an amazing love. It's a steadfast love, a determined love. It's a love, as St. Paul says, that endures all things and never fails. It elevates us to generous acts of charity. It is the Divine within us.

Mother Teresa said, "Welfare is for a purpose. Christian love is for a person." That's you, that's me, possessing Christ's love, obeying Christ's command, giving evidence of Christ alive within. In a humble way, a quiet way, yet always in a way that impresses others, including one who may say in a court, "Christians love one another."

This week marks the end of the first quarter for Queen of All Saints School - and what a quarter it has been! I can't say enough about Mrs. Millburg and the faculty and staff of our school. Despite the travails associated with this pandemic, they have been able to teach the students well, keeping them as safe as possible from the virus and as close as possible to Jesus Christ, who loves them all.

I am grateful to them and to the many parents and parishioners who support them. One quarter down, three to go!

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

FROM OUR SEMINARIAN JAKE BRAUN

Perhaps one of the least understood sacraments is the Anointing of the Sick. So, for this article, I just want to lay down some of the basic facts about what is one of the last Sacraments received by Catholics before death.

First, it is important to understand who is the proper minister and who is the proper recipient of the Sacrament. Priests (or bishops) are the only ministers of the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, and only those who are “seriously ill” may receive the sacrament. But further nuance is given to us by the Catechism of the Catholic Church which says, regarding reception of the sacrament, that Anointing of the Sick “is not a sacrament for those only who are at the point of death,” but that “as soon as anyone of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived.” Furthermore, the Catechism states the following: “If a sick person who received this anointing recovers his health, he can in the case of another grave illness receive this sacrament again. If during the same illness the person’s condition becomes more serious, the sacrament may be repeated. It is fitting to receive the Anointing of the Sick just prior to a serious operation. The same holds for the elderly whose frailty becomes more pronounced.” The Church is generous with the Sacraments because she desires that we fully avail ourselves of God’s infinite grace and mercy and love.

The purpose of Anointing of the Sick is also frequently misunderstood. While the Sacrament is certainly aimed at the healing of the person who is sick, the kind of healing that it aims for is spiritual in nature. So, insofar as it is helpful for the soul of the individual, it sometimes happens that physical healing, even miraculous ones, occur after the sacrament is administered. However, these are rare, as the spiritual healing and strengthening of the soul, which becomes fortified by grace to unite one’s suffering with Christ, is the more important purpose of the Anointing. Next week, I will write about the effects of the sacrament in greater detail.

In Christ,

Jake Braun

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - TRUE LOVE OF NEIGHBOR

Jesus builds upon His teachings from last week by highlighting the importance of loving our neighbor. Faith is not a private matter but must be shared and actively lived in charity toward our brothers and sisters. Woe to us if we observe a neighbor in need and do not seek to minister to his/her needs. In the Old Testament, God instructed the Jewish people to show love and mercy toward Gentiles, aliens, and the poor. Now Jesus reiterates and expands this commandment to all people. As John writes in his first letter, “But whoever has the world’s goods, and sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him, how does the love of God abide in him?” (1 John 3:17). If we truly love God, then, we will have deep concern for the welfare of those in need.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN ENTERING THE CATHOLIC CHURCH OR AT LEAST LEARNING MORE ABOUT ITS TEACHINGS?

This year's RCIA classes are starting now. If you or someone you know might be interested in entering the Church, you can contact Fr. Philipp by phone at (314)-380-4021 or by email at (philipp@qasstl.org) to get more information.

WHAT IS THE RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process of preparation whereby one inquires into the teachings of and pursues entrance into the Catholic Church. For each person, it is the journey through phases of maturation in Faith whereby one readies to commit oneself to Jesus Christ and His Church through seeking the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist/First Holy Communion).

Dear Parishioners,

It is surreal to be communicating information about Queen of All Saints' Casino Night and Auction given the passing of Jen Marr.

The many tributes on social media, the beautiful visitation, funeral Mass and Celebration of Life are testaments to Jen and her amazing and never forgotten character. Jen's dedication to QAS, motivation to succeed, and her outgoing personality made her the perfect person to lead Queen of All Saints' Casino Night and Auction.

As you know, plans were in the works to hold the Casino Night and Auction virtually this year due to COVID-19. What you may not know, and I want to be sure you do, is that Jen, in true Jen fashion, had been working on a perfect progression plan to ensure the Casino Night and Auction event was sustained as her own kids grew up and ultimately graduated from QAS.

QAS moms, Kristine Parisi and Leslie Pollman, had been shadowing Jen for many months learning the inner workings of the event from Jen. The plan was for Kristine and Leslie to take over the event in 2021 with Jen's support. Although it is heartbreaking to think about the event knowing Jen will not be here, I want to ensure you that Kristine and Leslie are confident that the event will go on smoothly, just as Jen would have wanted. Be on the look out for communication for the event. Kristine and Leslie will communicate important event information and will communicate any needs as they arise. For now, please be assured that planning for the event is right on track!

Jen's untimely death has left so many with huge voids. Here is what we can do:

- Pray fiercely for Jen's loved ones, especially her three children and her family.
- Plan to support the virtual Casino Night and Auction. This is exactly what Jen would want from us.
- Trust that there will be special touches to honor Jen within the event.
- Reach out to Kristine and Leslie, gascasinonight@yahoo.com, with any questions or donation information.

Thank you for your support of Queen of All Saints' Home and School Association (HSA) and the organization's main event, Casino Night and Auction. If you ever have any questions about HSA, reach out to Amy Bush, bushamy@outlook.com.

Fly high, Jen! We will make you proud.
