HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Mission Statement

As members of Queen of All Saints Parish we are a community united in the Catholic faith, nourished by the Eucharist, and sent to make Christ known to all through word and deed.

Stewardship

"The stone the builders rejected has become the corner stone..."

Matthew 21:42

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens. Living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be "rejected" by others in today's society. For example, saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is a sign that God is alive and well!

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Writer Adelaida Blanton tells of a “five minute rule” that she had in her home when she was a child. “What it meant,” she explains, “was that we were to be ready for school five minutes before we actually had to leave.”

“We were a large family and that extra five minutes was prayer time for Mother and us children. The place was wherever Mother happened to be when we were all ready to leave. Sometimes it was the kitchen, other times the living room or bedroom, or even out on the porch. But we all knelt while Mother asked a blessing on each of us individually and thanked the Lord for His provision for us. Often all our names were spoken and some special blessing asked for each.

“If a neighborhood child dropped in to walk to school with us (and neighbors often did), they were included in our prayer circle, too.

“When the prayer was finished, there came a kiss for each, and we were off.

“These were Five Important Minutes to each of us.”

Wednesday is the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. That day, and, really, any day, would be a good time to take 20 minutes and offer that special prayer we call the Rosary. Meditation on the Mysteries of the life of Jesus Christ and the repetition of the request “Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now, and at the hour of our death,” offers all of us the chance to have special time with our Blessed Mother.

I can imagine Mary looking with concern as we her children rush around preparing for each day’s activities. I picture Mary lining up each one of us, looking us over, making sure that we haven’t forgotten anything, such as the love, power, and strength her Son supplies. I can feel her lips kissing my cheek as I prepare to walk out the door, just as my mother - and perhaps yours, too - did in my childhood. Our Blessed Mother assures her children that she cares for every one. The Rosary helps us to remember that.

The month of October traditionally has been a month dedicated to Our Lady. I again recall the words of St. Teresa of Kolkata.

“If you ever feel distressed during your day, call upon our Lady, just say the simple prayer, ‘Mary, Mother of Jesus, please be mother to me now.’ I must admit, this prayer has never failed me.” I bet it won’t fail us, either, not words confidentially spoken to a woman of such extraordinary faith and tender love, for that little boy in Nazareth and for all of us. Let us appreciate the time she spends with us, and we with her.

My thanks to the St. Vincent de Paul Society, the sponsors, and the participants in last Sunday’s Walk for the Poor. Over $30,000 was raised, a great testimony to the generosity of our parishioners. Sitting at last week’s SVDP meeting and listening as various members describe the situations of the people they were helping, I knew that money was necessary for the work of the Society. Thanks to all who were part of this splendid effort.

Finally, I encourage all of you to spend one hour this afternoon in front of St. Francis of Assisi Church in defense of all human life, especially the unborn. It’s no secret that many candidates in the upcoming election are promising more access to abortion, even to the point of using the money collected from our taxes to pay for the destruction of innocent life. Now is an important time to let people know, including drivers on Telegraph Road that there are people who proclaim the sanctity of human life at every stage.

May God bless all of you,

In Christ,

Fr. Hambrough

The Sacraments Parallel Natural Human Life

Before moving on to discuss the effects of the Sacraments that follow Baptism and Confirmation, I would like to take a brief catechetical detour. While I mentioned it briefly in past articles, I think it is worth delving into how the Sacraments can be better understood when paralleled with human life on the natural plane. Let's get into it.

The idea that the Sacraments are analogous to natural human life can be found in St. Thomas Aquinas' teaching on the Sacraments as well as in the Council of Florence (1439), which subsequently takes up Aquinas' position. The idea is quite simple: Human beings, on an individual basis, are born, they grow to maturity, they need nourishment (food and water), they often need healing from injury or illness, and at the end of their natural life they are prepared for death. Additionally, there are social realities in human life, which include the need for the family, which is the chief building block of society, and the need for proper governance, which is the source of order and unity within societies. The Sacraments, as critical, constituent parts of the spiritual life, can be viewed through the lens of these ordinary parts of human life.

Just as natural human life can be evaluated on the basis of both the individual and the social realities mentioned above, so too the Sacraments can be better grasped through their individual and social aspects. The Council of Florence explains the analogy quite adeptly by beginning with the Sacraments that help the individual [Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Reconciliation, and Anointing of the Sick]:

For by baptism we are spiritually reborn and by confirmation we grow in grace and are strengthened in the faith; being reborn and strengthened, we are nourished with the divine food of the Eucharist. If by sin we become sick in soul, we are healed spiritually by penance; we are also healed in spirit, and in body in so far as it is good for the soul, by extreme unction [Anointing of the Sick].

Holy Orders and Matrimony, the Council explains, are meant to parallel the social requirements of human life, as it is through Holy Orders that the Church is "governed and receives spiritual growth," while through Matrimony, the Church "receives bodily growth." This analogy provides a helpful way of better understanding the purpose of the Sacramental economy, and can keep us from falling into an unthinking acceptance of the Sacraments as arbitrarily instituted. It is fitting that we continue to try to grasp what we can in those mysteries which God reveals.

ANNUAL LIFE CHAIN

The annual Telegraph LIFE CHAIN will take place on Respect Life Sunday, October 4th, from 2:00 - 3:00 p.m.. Queen of All Saints parishioners will join our neighboring parishioners/neighbors as we stand in prayer to show our support of all human life, especially life in the womb.

Parking will again be at St. Francis of Assisi and all signs are provided.

Feel free to bring a chair if it's difficult for you to stand for the one hour.

This annual event is visual statement of solidarity by the Christian community and all life is sacred and deserves to be respected.

This year's RCIA classes are starting now. If you or someone you know might be interested in entering the Church, you can contact Fr. Philipp by phone at (314)-380-4021 or by email at (philipp@qasstl.org) to get more information.

WHAT IS THE RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process of preparation whereby one inquires into the teachings of and pursues entrance into the Catholic Church. For each person, it is the journey through phases of maturation in Faith whereby one readies to commit oneself to Jesus Christ and His Church through seeking the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist/First Holy Communion).

ROSARY RALLY

Queen of All Saints Rosary Rally

Monastery of Saint Clare (In front of sign)

(On Telegraph Road near Goddard Daycare)

We are living at the crossroads of history. Christianity, in general, is suffering the negative consequences of the secularization process as Christian morals are considered no longer relevant in modern society. The devastating effect of this ongoing process is quite noticeable in the increased rates of criminality, divorces, pornography, drug and alcohol additions, illicit sex, and abortions consented and paid for by our tax dollars. So today, more than ever, we need to keep the Fatima message close to our hearts and show sincere appreciation for America Needs Fatima's efforts in fostering and promoting Christian values in the family and society in general.

Every year America Needs Fatima organizes thousands of Public Square Rosary Rallies all across our great nation to pray for America and the conversion of sinners as Our Lady of Fatima requested. All ages welcome.

Happy Anniversary

Congratulations and best wishes to Bob and Margaret Klein celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. May God continue to bless them with many more years.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - GOOD WORKS

We as Catholics believe in the efficacy of both faith and good works for our salvation. Works of the Law do not justify us. However, as Paul tells us in Galatians 5:6, “faith working through love” is what truly matters. The faith we have must manifest itself in good works. Otherwise, it is useless. If we truly have faith, we will bear fruit for the salvation of the world. As the readings remind us today, the Lord expects us to do His will and to labor in His vineyard so that others may encounter His love and enter into His joy. Christ has given us the gift of sharing in his salvific mission. We should not remain idle and static but instead should bear fruit in the world and spread the Gospel message with others, sharing our faith and hope.
