STEWARDSHIP

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory." Mark 13:26

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, "What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?" How will you respond? The good news - it's never too late to live a grateful and generous lifestyle.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

One day a woodcutter took his grandson into the forest for his first experience in selecting and cutting oak trees, which they would later sell to the boat builders. As they walked, the woodcutter explained that the purpose of each tree is contained in its natural shape: some are straight for planks, some have proper curves for the ribs, and some are tall for masts.

The woodcutter told his grandson that by paying attention to the details of each tree and with experience recognizing these characteristics, someday he too might become the woodcutter of the forest.

A little way into the forest the youngster saw an old oak tree that had never been cut. The boy asked his grandfather if he could cut it down because it was useless for boat building - there were no straight limbs, the trunk was short and gnarled, and the curves were going the wrong way. "We could cut it down for firewood," the grandson said, "at least then it will be of some use to us."

The woodcutter replied that for now they should be about their work cutting the proper trees for the boat builders; maybe later they could return to the old oak tree.

After a few hours of cutting huge trees the grandson grew tired and asked if they could stop for a rest in some cool shade. The woodcutter took his grandson over to the old oak tree, where they rested in the cool shade beneath its twisted limbs. After they had rested a while, the woodcutter explained to his grandson the necessity of attentive awareness and recognition of everything in the forest and in the world. Some things are readily apparent, like tall, straight trees; other things are less apparent, requiring closer attention, like the recognition of the proper curves in the limbs. And some things might initially appear to have no purpose at all, like a gnarled old oak tree. The woodcutter emphasized, "You must learn to pay careful attention every day so you can recognize and discover the purpose God has for everything in creation. For it is this old oak tree, which you so quickly deemed useless except for firewood, that now allows us to rest against its trunk amidst the coolness of its shade."

"Remember, grandson," the older man continued, "not everything is as it first appears. Be patient, pay attention, recognize, and discover."

Jesus emphasizes the same advice in today's Gospel. Some, he says, will notice a darkened sun or a lightless moon or falling stars and become frightened and limp. Others, however, will be aware of the coming of the Lord and stand tall, ready to greet the Lord when He comes. The grandson learned a lesson about an oak tree. Jesus implores his disciples to learn a lesson from a fig tree. We learn lessons from those trees that became the paper on which were printed the Word of the Lord, the Scriptures. We read, we notice, we learn.

We hear today, and will hear again in two weeks, the importance of being ready. Jesus does not speak the ominous-sounding words to scare us. No, Christ encourages us to prepare. Disciples of Jesus never cower in fear; no, they face things like temptation and tribulation with steely determination. Like the woodcutter advises, we are patient, we pay attention, we recognize, and we discover the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory."

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

BLANKETS OF HOPE
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 28
CELEBRATING OUR 10TH YEAR!

It's that time again! We are ready to gather together as a community to take care of those in need of warmth this winter. Yes, we are ready to make blankets!

This is a great opportunity for family and friends to come together once again, to have all hands working together on something that will be life-giving to someone else. This is also a great project for those who are looking for community service hours. To make the blankets, all you need are two pieces of fleece, two yards each, and a sharp pair of scissors. We would also welcome any new or clean, gently used blankets you would like to donate.

Prior to Sunday, November 28, you can either drop off your blankets at the QAS Rectory during business hours, at 2793 Brandenburg Lane, or we would be happy to pick them up from your house. Or you can join us in the QAS School Cafeteria on November 28, any time between 10 am and 12 noon to drop off your blankets or make your blankets there with us to celebrate the beginning of this Advent season together!

The donated blankets will then be delivered to St. Patrick's Center where we know they will be greatly appreciated and immediately handed out to those in need of warmth. These blankets give our St. Louis neighbors physical and emotional warmth; they are a tangible sign of hope and love from people who care.

If you are looking for a meaningful way to start the Advent season, please consider supporting Blankets of Hope. Feel free to contact Therese at 314-605-4100 with any questions or if you need blanket instructions emailed to you. Thank you so much for your continued support of this very worthwhile project!

If these times do not work with your schedule, we would appreciate any time you can do between 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

To sign up or get more information, contact Toni Dean (314-630-9685 or toni.dean@slu.edu).
