HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

The deadline for articles for the Sunday bulletin is Monday morning, 5 business days before the article appears in the bulletin. Half and full page requests are due 15 business days before publication date. This schedule changes for Holy Days and holidays.

Mission Statement

As members of Queen of All Saints Parish we are a community united in the Catholic faith, nourished by the Eucharist, and sent to make Christ known to all through word and deed.

Stewardship

"Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities."

Matthew 25:21

God calls us to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn't want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us. He expects us to grow our gifts, use them wisely and be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Alice Walker, famous for writing the novel "The Color Purple" also penned a short story called "Meridian," in which a little girl in the South is playing in the yard when she finds a piece of metal. She recognizes that this piece of metal could be a bar of gold, and she proceeds to fully expose and then lift the incredible, heavy bar from the ground. She rushes home to her mother, who is sitting on the porch, shelling peas. She exclaims, "Mother, I found a gold bar," and she places the large, heavy gold in her mother's lap.

Her mother says, "Move that thing out of the way. Don't you see I'm trying to get supper ready?"

"But it's gold," the daughter insists. "Feel how heavy it is. Look how yellow it is. It's gold. It could make us rich."

The mother, though, is not impressed. The girl is rejected, and no one is interested in sharing her joy. She takes the bar of gold and she puts it in a shoe box, then she buries it under the magnolia tree in the backyard. Once a week she digs it up and holds the bar of gold in her lap. Then, she does it less and less often. Soon it's only once a month, until finally she forgets to dig it up at all. In the end, she acts like everyone else, not as someone possessing a bar of gold.

Archbishop Fulton Sheen said, "Hell is full of the talented, but heaven, of the energetic." Jesus in the Gospel today points us to the energetic. Given gifts by God and entrusted with talents, we are called to use them to spread the Good News for the glory of God. Burying them just won't do. Hiding our gifts under the cover of selfishness or apathy or doubt will only make us, as Alice Walker, says like everyone else, unaware that we possess a treasure. That's unacceptable!

In today's parable compliments come to those who have the gifts, and used them wisely - used them. Punishment comes to the one who buries the gift and then gives it back unused. Wicked and lazy are two words we don't want our Master to speak about us. We pray today that those words are never used about us. The treasure that is the Kingdom of God is too valuable to hide.

In our Archdiocese, one of ways people share and invest their treasure is through the Annual Catholic Appeal. Through the years, area Catholics have given hundreds of millions of dollars to support the work of the Archdiocese and to help those who struggle with difficulties in life. From support for Catholic schools to the education of seminarians, from caring for our retired priests to caring for those living with addictions, and from extending a helping hand to urban, suburban and rural residents of the diocese, the ACA allows so many to share and receive the generosity of Christ.

Amazingly, in a time of pandemic, Catholics in the Archdiocese raised over $16 million, surpassing the goal of $14.5 million. Parishioners of our parish contributed over $160,000 of that money. I offer my thanks to all of you who participated in this important and beautiful effort.

I will be leaving this afternoon for a retreat in the Ozarks, a time to pray, read, rest and reflect. I'll return Friday. Please know that I will be praying for you.

In Christ,

Fr. Hambrough

SVDP THANKS GIVING DAY DRIVE

SVDP will be sponsoring our annual Thanksgiving Day Drive. This year the focus will be on paper and some hygiene products such as toilet tissue, Kleenex, paper towels, body wash, bath bar soap, deodorant, and tooth paste. Please bring the donated items to Mass on Thanksgiving Day. All donations will be greatly appreciated.

ST. VINCENT DEPAUL SOCIETY

CHRISTMAS SHARING PROGRAM

All the families have been adopted this year. Our thanks go out to all within the parish. We are truly blessed with the support that you show our programs.

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

The Giving Tree will be set up in the main lobby of the Church this weekend of November 14. At that time you will be able to take one or more gift tags off the tree, listing the specific item to purchase. These tags will range from clothing and toys to household items or gift cards. Due to COVID concerns, we will place boxes by the tree where gifts can be deposited as you purchase them.

This year all UNWRAPPED gifts for both parts of the program will be collected in the Church Hall the weekend of December 13, 14 & 15. We will be in the hall:

Friday, December 11, from Noon – 6:00 P.M.

Saturday, December 12, from 8:00 A.M. – 6:30 P.M.

Sunday, December 13, from 7:00 A.M. – Noon.

Members of St. Vincent DePaul Society will deliver all gifts. Thanks for your support

LIFE NIGHT TONIGHT!

November 15th, 2020, 7:30-9:00 p.m., in the QAS Church Hall

All High Schoolers are invited to join us for the third night of our Life Night Series! Our Life Night Series is called "Long Story Short" and will focus on the learning more about and praying with the parables. Join us from 7:30-9:00 in the Church Hall, and please wear a mask!

XLT THIS THURSDAY

November 19th, 2020, 7:30-9:00 p.m., in the QAS Church

Every person deserves to feel Secure, to be Warm and to have HOPE!

This year has been an unusually challenging year, that's for sure. One thing that has not changed, though, is the need for warm blankets for our homeless neighbors in downtown St. Louis.

We are dedicated to continuing our annual Blankets of Hope donation to St. Patrick's Center. There will just need to be a few changes this year. Since we will not be able to gather together to make the blankets, we are asking you to consider making your blanket(s) on your own. If you are unable to make a blanket, perhaps you can donate fleece to have a blanket made for you (you need two 2 yards x 2 yards pieces of fleece for each blanket).

The finished blankets or fleece donations can either be dropped off at the QAS Rectory during business hours, dropped off at 2793 Brandenburg Lane, or picked up from your house prior to Sunday, November 29. You can also drop off your finished blankets on November 29 at the QAS Cafeteria between 11 am and 1 pm.

These donated blankets will then be delivered to St. Patrick's Center where we know they will be greatly appreciated and immediately handed out to those in need of warmth. These blankets give the homeless physical and emotional warmth; they are a tangible sign of hope and love from people who care.

If you are looking for a meaningful way to start the Advent season and end this year of ups and downs on a positive note, please consider supporting Blankets of Hope. Please contact Therese at 314-605-4100 with any questions or if you need blanket instructions emailed to you. Thank you so much for your continued support of this very worthwhile project!

"Jesus gives all to those who surrender all."

~ St. Bernadette Soubirous

JESUS, TAKE THE WHEEL

"Jesus, take the wheel. Take it from my hands 'cause I can't do this on my own..." testifies singer, Carrie Underwood. She continues with, "And save me from this road I'm on." This slippery and bumpy road of life for most of us is void of peace and joy. We are overwhelmed with anxiety, worry, and even fear about many things. It is said that fear does not stop death; it stops life. Worry does not take away tomorrow's troubles, it takes away today's peace. But through Christ there is good news. We must patiently and lovingly surrender to the will of God to find the only sure way to genuine joy and peace.

In his October 22, 2020 submission to the St. Louis Review, Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski has charged us to live with boldness and not fear. Paraphrasing Ephesians 6:12, our real battle is against principalities and powers - let faith conquer fear. So how do we live boldly?

Since the origin of Adam's sin, we all tend to think about our own concerns first. But we must keep our focus on Christ, not on ourselves. The place to start is in prayer. St. Paul wrote, "Have no anxiety at all, but everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests know to God."

Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:6-7, NABRE). In practical sense, this also means doing our daily duty and taking care of others, showing them love, respect, and compassion. For example, call a lonely loved one. Forgive someone who has hurt you and seek reconciliation. Genuinely ask a stranger how they are doing. Be good stewards and share the gifts that God has given you.

Do you want even more peace? Try living your Catholic faith ever more boldly. Receive the sacraments, the peace from Reconciliation, the intimacy of Christ in the Eucharist. Talk to God in prayer, meditate on the mysteries of the rosary, and put Christ first in all your plans. Seek His will.

Once we turn to Jesus in trust, we are ready to follow the advice of St. Francis de Sales, "If you earnestly desire to be delivered from some evil, or to attain some good, above all things, calm and tranquil your mind, compose your judgement and will; then quietly and gently pursue your aim, adopting suitable means." Jesus offers us His peace; if we accept it and use His grace, nothing shall overcome us.

How about letting your chauffeur and Savior, Jesus Christ, take it from here?

Paul J. Duker, Sr.
Office of Marriage and Family life for the Archdiocese of St. Louis

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! -
STEWARDSHIP

God generously bestows gifts upon us, spiritual gifts as well as physical gifts. He asks us to use those gifts for the purpose of building up the Kingdom of God and leading others to Jesus Christ. Because we are called to be good and faithful stewards, it is important for us to spend time in prayer with Jesus so that He can instruct us how to best utilize the gifts He has given to us. Do we invest our talents and share them with others? Do we go out and bury them, refusing to share them in service to the world? God, who is infinitely generous, rewards us for manifesting His power by means of the gifts He has given to us.

archstl.org/dynamic

REST IN PEACE

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Melissa Popp, wife of John Popp and mother of Cameron, Marcus and Madelyn Popp of our parish.

May God welcome her home and comfort her family in their time of sorrow.

BOOK OF THE DEAD

The Book of the Dead will be in the main lobby of church during the entire month of November. You may record names of deceased loved ones at any time during this month. We hope everyone will remember in their prayers those who are listed. Persons named need not be members of the parish, nor is it limited to someone who passed away this year. In fact, you can repeat someone's name from previous years.

BULLETIN DEADLINE CHANGE

Due to the Thanksgiving holidays, the bulletin deadline for the weekend of November 29 has been changed. All bulletin items must be in the parish office no later than November 19 at 8:00 a.m.

CYC basketball registration is open and will close November 15th. Don't miss out on signing up your child. Late registration will not be allowed this year!

We have teams for boys and girls in third grade through high school.

TO ALL OUR VETERANS AND ACTIVE SERVICE MILITARY MEMBERS
“Thank you for your service to our Country!”

Queen of All Saints acknowledged our veterans last Wednesday at Mass and a box breakfast.

ROSES FOR THE UNBORN

Have you noticed the beautiful vase of roses near the baptismal font? The red roses represent life . . . within us and among us.

QAS Respect Life Apostolate would like to honor those who are expecting a child, as well as families waiting to adopt, and publicly show our prayerful encouragement for new life. Our goal is to grow a prayerful awareness of the many unborn children soon to join our parish! We encourage the prayers of the entire parish and look forward to welcoming these children into the Catholic community at QAS.

If you are expecting a baby or are waiting to adopt a child, please call Jeannine Sinak, 565-6085, to have a rose placed in the vase. The rose will remain in church throughout your pregnancy to symbolize the prayerful support of the QAS community. After your child is born you are encouraged to take your rose as a reminder of the prayers offered for your child, even before he/she was born.

When you see these roses in church, say a prayer for all the unborn, especially those soon to be parishioners of Queen of All Saints.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Tuesday ~ 8:45 a.m.—7:00 p.m.

“Jesus concealed in the Host is everything to me. From the tabernacle I draw strength, power, courage, and light. Here, I seek consolation in time of anguish.”

St. Faustina, Diary 1037)

He is here for us too. So that we may draw strength, power, courage, light, and consolation.

All parishioners are encouraged to come and spend some time in prayer in the Presence of Jesus Christ.

The more bids you place, the more chances you have at winning!

HOW WILL THE WINNER BE CHOSEN?

Each bidder will have the number of entries correlating to the number of bids he/she made through November 12th submitted into the drawing. The winner will be selected randomly from all available entries and announced on November 13th! More bids=more chances to win!

WHAT IS THE EARLY BIDDING PRIZE?

The winner will receive a private wine tasting class for up to 20 people from Total Wine & More.

NOTE: This prize is identical to the private wine tasting class that is listed in the silent auction, however, it is a separate prize. The private wine tasting listed in the auction is also available to bid on! Yes, this means we are offering TWO Private Wine Tasting Classes for up to 20 people (one as a prize and one in the auction open for bidding). We like our wine around here...

AUCTION

The online auction will open on Saturday, November 7th at 6am, and will close at 10pm on Saturday, November 21. Items may be available for preview before November 7th, but you will not be able to bid on them until November 7th.

Ready to Bid? Follow These Instructions:

1. Access the campaign - Click the blue link within the Welcome text or personal link button from within the Welcome email.
2. Choose item - From our Home page, click "Items" , browse or use the dropdown menu to view categories, then select an item.
3. Choose amount - Use the pre-populated minimum bid or enter a higher amount. Use Auto Bid if you prefer - Select AUTO BID, enter the highest amount you are willing to bid. The system will place minimum bids for you as needed until your designated amount.
4. Click Bid

HOW CAN I SET MY TOP DOLLAR AMOUNT AS A BID?

Click on the item you want to bid on. Click on the Auto Bid tab and set your highest bid. When you've been outbid, the system will automatically place another bid for you, up to your highest bid.

HOW WILL I KNOW IF I'VE BEEN OUTBID?

You will receive a text notification when you've been outbid.

HOW WILL I RECEIVE ITEMS I WON?

Once the auction closes, you will receive a notification regarding which items you won. All items will be delivered via contactless delivery. You will be contacted at the number you registered with to schedule a delivery date or pick up, if you prefer. Some items may have special instructions (see item descriptions for details). You may contact qascasinonight@yahoo.com for inquiries or questions about your delivery.

DONATE

If you don't want to bid on items but still want to support Queen of All Saints School, you will also be able to make donations before and during the event through the Fund-A-Need Page or by clicking Donate Now, from the Home Page.

Ready to Donate? Follow these instructions:

1. Access the campaign - Click the blue link within the Welcome text or personal link button from within the Welcome email.
2. From our Home page, click "Donate" , then select an item.
3. Choose amount
4. Click Donate
5. Or, you can click on the Fund-A-Need button and donate a tangible item from the items listed.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DONATING TO FUND-A-NEED VS. DONATE NOW?

By Donating through the Fund-A-Need section of the homepage, you are able to purchase tangible items for the school, and directly fund needs, such as a chair, a desk, window blinds, etc...to help us meet our goal of eventually updating all classrooms. The Donate Now section of the homepage allows you to make a flat donation amount that also goes towards meeting our goal.

WHAT IS THE GOAL?

With funds raised in the previous years, we have been able to remodel all of our 4th grade through 8th grade classrooms and fund new dollies and chairs for the lunchroom and gym! Our goal is to eventually have all classrooms remodeled by working our way down from 3rd to Pre-K. With your help, we can keep Queen of All Saints School a vibrant and modern space that our kids can thrive in.

HELP

I STILL HAVE QUESTIONS AND NEED HELP. WHO CAN I CONTACT?

We are happy to help! Send us an email at qascasinonight@yahoo.com and we will get back with you ASAP! We monitor this email 7 days a week.
