HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Stewardship

*"...whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me."
Matthew 25:40*

Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But, generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it's not convenient; when it's not on our schedule, but on the other person's schedule.

Their needs this Thanksgiving:

Sister Mary, a young Vietnamese woman, said we don't need a dryer as we hang our clothes, either in our cellar or outdoors.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE - THE LAST THINGS

This is one of my favorite passages in all of Scripture, and Michelangelo painted a brilliant portrayal of it in the Sistine Chapel. What is so great about this passage? Its simplicity. Jesus simplifies His message. It is not optional to serve our neighbor. It is not optional to perform corporal works of mercy and spiritual works of mercy. It is by these that we will be saved or condemned. Heaven and hell are at stake here.

While we are on earth, let us put our faith into practice by being active in charity. Let us love one another as if each person we encounter is Jesus Christ Himself. There are many people in the world today suffering from hunger, thirst, poverty, nakedness, imprisonment, estrangement, and sickness. What are we doing to bring Christ's healing and love? Let us serve the Lord and our neighbor in holiness. "In the presence of Christ, who is Truth itself, the truth of each man's relationship with God will be laid bare. The Last Judgment will reveal even to its furthest consequences the good each person has done or failed to do during his earthly life" (CCC 1039).

2020 FIRST RECONCILIATION

QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS

FROM OUR SEMINARIAN JAKE BRAUN

The topic of this week's article is the Sacrament of Matrimony. While there is much to write about the cultural importance of this marriage in the context of a world that is increasingly anti-Catholic – which may yet be a future topic of discussion for this column – today, I will just lay out here the purpose and the effects of Holy Matrimony.

Marriage has an importance that is evident on the natural and the supernatural levels. Historically, the concept of marriage, which permeates all human societies, long predates the Christian culmination of Matrimony as a Sacrament. Divine Revelation gives the historical prevalence of marriage clearer meaning and origin by illustrating that man and woman have as part of their shared human nature the call to love one another in an exclusive, self-giving manner. While non-sacramental marriage was often sullied or even dissolved by sin, thanks to the fall of man, Christ's institution of Marriage as a Sacrament elevated what was already a natural societal good to the level of an indissoluble and efficacious sign of Jesus' own love for the Church. By doing so, he made the marriage bond a means for not only living one's life in fidelity with one's spouse, but also of growing closer to God together. To that end, there are some important graces and effects of Holy Matrimony that are bestowed on the couple.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church outlines two primary effects of the Sacrament of Matrimony. The first of these effects is the marriage bond itself. As stated by the Catechism, "The consent by which the spouses mutually give and receive one another is sealed by God himself," such that, "Authentic married love is caught up into divine love." This bond is "perpetual and exclusive" by its very nature, a reality that is irrevocable, and which the Church "does not have the power to contravene" precisely because it is a "covenant guaranteed by God's fidelity." To help the spouses live out this covenantal bond, Christ bestows upon them a special grace, "intended to perfect the couple's love and to strengthen their indissoluble unity," so that they may, "help one another to attain holiness in their married life and in welcoming and educating their children." This grace is a special encounter between the spouses and Jesus, "[who] dwells with them, gives them the strength to take up their crosses and so follow him, to rise again after they have fallen, to forgive one another, to bear one another's burdens, to be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ, and to love one another with supernatural, tender, and fruitful love." Holy Matrimony is an undeniably beautiful and inarguably important Sacrament. Faithfully living out this sacramental vocation is an act of defiance to a world so hellbent on destroying the sacredness of Marriage.

A Prayer for Thanksgiving

Loving God, we turn our hearts to you on this day for giving thanks, mindful of your many gifts.

For each one, we are grateful. For each one, we are blessed. For each one we are opened to the abundance of your love.

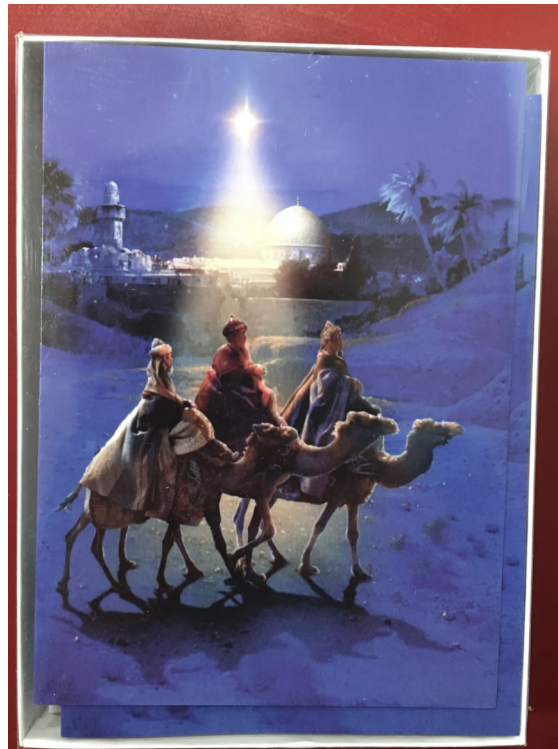

May this Thanksgiving Day offer a reminder to be generous with others, as you are with us..

We praise you. We rejoice in you. We give you thanks. Amen.

LIFE NIGHT TONIGHT!

November <sup>22nd</sup>, 2020, 7:30-9:00 p.m., in the QAS Church Hall

All High Schoolers are invited to join us for the final night of our Life Night Series! Our Life Night Series is called “Long Story Short” and will focus on learning more about and praying with the parables. Join us from 7:30-9:00 in the Church Hall, and please wear a mask!

NO LUX THIS THURSDAY—
HAPPY THANKSGIVING
November 26th, 2020

Every person deserves to feel Secure, to be Warm and to have HOPE!

This year has been an unusually challenging year, that's for sure. One thing that has not changed, though, is the need for warm blankets for our homeless neighbors in downtown St. Louis.

We are dedicated to continuing our annual Blankets of Hope donation to St. Patrick's Center. There will just need to be a few changes this year. Since we will not be able to gather together to make the blankets, we are asking you to consider making your blanket(s) on your own. If you are unable to make a blanket, perhaps you can donate fleece to have a blanket made for you (you need two 2 yards x 2 yards pieces of fleece for each blanket).

The finished blankets or fleece donations can either be dropped off at the QAS Rectory during business hours, dropped off at 2793 Brandenburg Lane, or picked up from your house prior to Sunday, November 29. You can also drop off your finished blankets on November 29 at the QAS Cafeteria between 11 am and 1 pm.

These donated blankets will then be delivered to St. Patrick's Center where we know they will be greatly appreciated and immediately handed out to those in need of warmth. These blankets give the homeless physical and emotional warmth; they are a tangible sign of hope and love from people who care.

If you are looking for a meaningful way to start the Advent season and end this year of ups and downs on a positive note, please consider supporting Blankets of Hope. Please contact Therese at 314-605-4100 with any questions or if you need blanket instructions emailed to you. Thank you so much for your continued support of this very worthwhile project!
