THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word."

2 THESSALONIANS 2:16-17

There are two important lessons here. First, we are called to be generous with our encouragement and hope with others. As God shows us mercy, we must be merciful to others. Second, joy is contagious! The joy we receive from doing good works not only strengthens us, it encourages others as well. Share the joy of living your faith whenever you can.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I'm writing this on the morning of All Saints Day and I'd like to share with you some words I came across as I prepared to celebrate this great Solemnity. It's a reflection on saints written by New York Times columnist David Brooks in his book The Road to Character.

"Occasionally, even today, you come across certain people who seem to possess an impressive inner cohesion. They are not leading fragmented, scattershot lives. They have achieved inner integration. They are calm, settled, and rooted. They are not blown off course by storms. They don't crumble in adversity. Their minds are consistent and their hearts dependable..."

"Sometimes you don't even notice these people, because while they seem kind and cheerful, they are also reserved. They possess the self-effacing virtues of people who are inclined to be useful but don't need to prove anything to the world: humility, restraint, temperance, respect, and soft self-discipline."

"They radiate a sort of moral joy. They answer softly when challenged harshly. They are silent when unfairly abused. They are dignified when others try to humiliate them, restrained when others try to provoke them. But they get things done. They perform acts of sacrificial service with the same modest everyday spirit they would display if they were just getting the groceries. They are not thinking about what impressive work they are doing. They are not thinking about themselves at all. They just seem delighted by the flawed people around them. They just recognize what needs doing and they do it."

"They make you feel funnier and smarter when you speak with them. They move through different social classes not even aware, it seems, that they are doing so. After you've known them for a while it occurs to you that you've never heard them boast, you've never seen them self-righteous or doggedly certain. They aren't dropping little hints of their own distinctiveness and accomplishments."

"These are people who have built a strong inner character, who have achieved a certain depth. In these people, at the end of this struggle, the climb to success has surrendered to the struggle to deepen the soul."

I am blessed to know a lot of people like those described by Mr. Brooks, aren't you? The grace of Jesus Christ, so obvious in the saints of history, continues to beat in the hearts of the extraordinary people who pass in and out of our lives. We are blessed to "feel funnier and smarter" and holier when we're around them.

Tuesday and Thursday of this week are the Listening Sessions at Queen of All Saints for the Archdiocesan program, All Things New. More than half of the parishes in the archdiocese have had their session and my priest friends have told me they have gone well. In some places, sure, there has been angst and disappointment. In other places, parishioners knew changes were coming. One only has to look at all the empty pews on Sundays to realize that things can't stay as they are.

As we have done in the Archdiocese for several years, all the worshipers were counted at the Masses on Oct. 1 & 2, Oct. 8 & 9, and Oct. 15 & 16. Our counts were 1,077, 1,177, and 1,147 respectively. To compare with other years one finds that in 2019 - pre-pandemic - QAS averaged 1,476 per weekend. In 2021, while still coming out of the pandemic, we averaged 958 per weekend. So, obviously, we're better than last year but really not close to our numbers before Covid. We need to work on this!

The results of the surveys nearly 1,000 of you took earlier this year brought us an expected good news - bad news scenario. Queen of All Saints scored very high in our belief in the Eucharist, the Scripture and willingness to recommend QAS to others. We scored close to 90% in all three categories. That's very good! However, we scored poorly in our outreach to others. Nearly 75% invited someone to come with them to Mass less than twice a year. It was 76% of you who only once or twice a year invited someone to a parish activity. Worse, 81% have never invited a young man to consider the priesthood and 79% of you have never invited a young woman to consider the religious life. One of the reasons we have to have a program like All Things New is because of a shortage of priests. Where do you think future priests will come from if you don't ask them?

Please keep praying for All Things New. We've already seen the turbulence caused by decisions on two Catholic High Schools. We need the guidance of the Holy Spirit as we continue this process. We need your prayers.

May God bless all of you.

BLANKETS OF HOPE
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 27
11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
QAS CAFETERIA

Have you ever driven through downtown St. Louis very early in the morning around this time of year? If you happen to, you will see many people sleeping on the ground, on benches, in doorways or makeshift tents often in below freezing temperatures. Would you like a way to start off this Advent season, doing something life-giving for these neighbors in need of warmth?

Please mark your calendars to either join us in the QAS cafeteria to make a fleece blanket or to drop off any new or clean, gently used blankets. Prior to Sunday, November 27, you can also either drop off your blankets at the QAS Rectory during business hours, at 2793 Brandenburg Lane, or we would be happy to pick them up from your house. To make the blankets, all you need are two pieces of fleece, two yards each, and a good, sharp pair of scissors. Feel free to contact Therese at 314-605-4100 or at tmruzicka@gmail.com with any questions or if you need blanket instructions emailed to you.

The blankets will then be delivered to St. Patrick Center where they will be handed out to those who come to them in need of help. These blankets give our St. Louis neighbors physical and emotional warmth; they are a tangible sign of hope and love from people who care.

So, if you are looking for a meaningful way to start the Advent season, please either contribute a blanket before or join us on November 27 with your family or friends. Thank you so much for 10+ years of your continued support of Blankets of Hope!

Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Help aging religious. Senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have devoted their lives to prayer, service, and works of mercy. Most ministered for little or no pay. Today, their religious communities do not have enough retirement savings. Your gift to today's Retirement Fund for Religious collection helps to furnish medications, nursing care, and other necessities. Please give generously.

BOOK OF THE DEAD

The Book of the Dead will be in the main lobby of church during the entire month of November. You may record names of deceased loved ones at any time during this month. We hope everyone will remember in their prayers those who are listed. Persons named need not be members of the parish, nor is it limited to someone who passed away this year. In fact, you can repeat someone's name from previous years.

Today begins Vocation Awareness Week

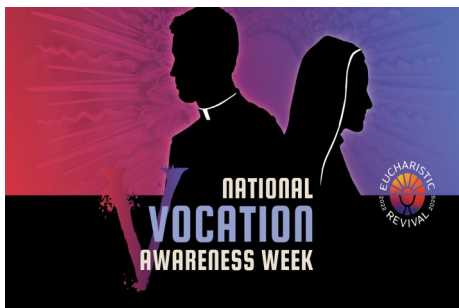

As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life or to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations—and teaching young people how to discern God's call—is a serious duty, but also a joyful one.

During this week, please encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students, and friends—to be open if God calls them to priesthood or religious life.

Everyone Has a Divine Vocation

“Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit.”

~Homily by Pope Saint John Paul II

ST. VINCENT DEPAUL SOCIETY

CHRISTMAS SHARING PROGRAM

The St. Vincent DePaul Society is starting the "Christmas Sharing Program". This program is a two-fold program consisting of the Adopt-A-Family and the Giving Tree.

If you adopt a family you will be purchasing for a specific family with a wish list provided by the family. We are again focusing on the children in need from the Hancock and Mehlville school district along with our client families. The families have each provided 4 gift items (needs and wishes).

Family wish lists for the Adopt-A-Family program will be available in the Church Hall after all the Masses starting on the weekend of November 5th & 6th until all are gone. If you are uncomfortable coming down to the Church Hall, feel free to contact Steffanie Crowley at 846-8151 or email at keisteff@sbcglobal.net.

The Giving Tree will be set up in the main lobby of the Church the weekend of November 19. At that time you will be able to take one or more gift tags off the tree, listing the specific item to purchase. These tags will range from clothing and toys to household items or gift cards. Boxes will be placed in the vestibule where Giving Tree gifts can be deposited as you purchase them.

This year all UNWRAPPED gifts for both parts of the program will be collected in the Church Hall the weekend of December 9, 10, & 11. We will be in the hall:

Friday, December 9th from Noon – 6:00 p.m.
Saturday, December 10th from 8:00 – 6:30 p.m.
Sunday, December 11th from 7:00 – Noon.

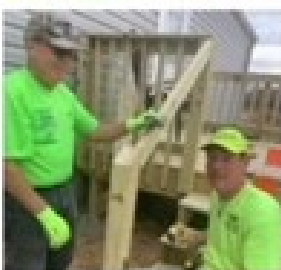

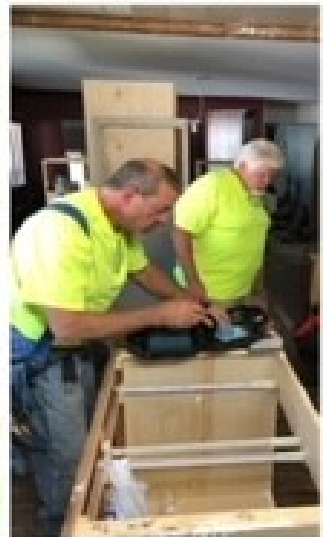

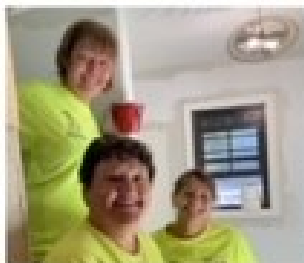

Members of St. Vincent DePaul Society will deliver all gifts. Thanks for your support.

HUMPHRIES COUNTY, TN: August 21, 2021, nearly 20" of rain overnight produced catastrophic flooding in the County. 271 homes were destroyed and another 248 damaged. 20 lost their lives including seven month old twin boys.

St. Louis Sluggers

27 parishioners and friends just returned from Humphries County, TN, having helped rebuild seven homes. The team joined forces with the local St. Vincent de Paul Conference. This was the teams' 32nd Mission, having formed in 2006 in response to Hurricane Katrina. Mission 33 is scheduled for April 2023. If interested in joining, text J. Mueller 314-406-4330.

Vincentians in Vogue!

Beginning over 30 years ago on Ann Brueckner's ping-pong table, the Vincentian Rag Ladies ministry continues in fine fashion. Gathering in the school basement to sort parishioners' generous clothing donations — adding a stitch or a button now and again — they provide multiple organizations and needy families served by our St. Vincent de Paul conference with clothing throughout the year.

And on rare occasions, such as the Heritage Luncheon on October 27th, they really show their skills! Thank you donors, for your generosity! And thanks to our Vincentian Rag Ladies for their tireless work serving the needy.

Donate gently used clothing anytime in the baskets inside the church doors. Thank You!
