HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary,
you always shine
on our path
as a sign of salvation and of hope.
We entrust our-
selves to you,
Health of the Sick,
who at the cross
took part in Jesus'
pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that,
as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love,
to conform to the will of the Father
and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us
from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Mission Statement

As members of Queen of All Saints Parish we are a community united in the Catholic faith, nourished by the Eucharist, and sent to make Christ known to all through word and deed.

Stewardship

"Therefore, stay awake for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Matthew 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. Don't delay. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

There was a college student who worked in the dormitory dining hall and who, on her way to work early in the morning, walked past the home of one of the professors. Through a window she could see the light on and the professor working at his desk, morning after morning.

At night, the student stayed at the library until closing, and on her way home she passed again by the professor's home and again saw him at the desk, poring over his books and examining his notes.

One day, the student and the professor crossed paths on the sidewalk and the student couldn't help herself. She applauded the learned man and asked, "Do you mind if I ask you a personal question?"

"Not at all," the professor responded.

So, the student said, "I'm up early to go to work because I need the money to pay my tuition. I'm up late at the library because I want to do well in my classes and earn my degree. But you, you're a tenured professor, your position on the faculty is secure, you've reached the top of your field. Why, then, do I always see you working every day, early and late?"

The professor answered, "Well, you see, I would rather have my students drink from a running stream than a stagnant pond."

Today's First Reading portrays Wisdom as a woman, always making her rounds, seeking those worthy of her. She is particularly pleased with those who watch for her at dawn or who keep vigil for her, pleased to find Wisdom sitting by the gate. She is gracious to all prepared to meet her.

Jesus in the Gospel similarly promises good things - the abundance and joy of a wedding reception - to those who are vigilant, ready and willing to do what's necessary to greet the Lord when He comes. In the Gospel, that meant making sure they had enough oil to keep their lamps burning so that the bridegroom easily could join his bride. For us, that means prayer, the Sacraments, especially Holy Communion and Confession, service to others, and a willingness to put forth the extra effort in imitation of Jesus, who did so much for us. Doing so enables us to have running streams of love, mercy, and generosity, rather than a stagnant pool of nothingness.

I am grateful to all who worked hard to make last Monday evening's All Souls Mass so beautiful and meaningful to the family members of our deceased parishioners. Many people told me after Mass how touched they were by our concern for their loved one and how appreciative they were of our prayer.

Speaking of prayer, please say one or more for the second graders of our parish. On Tuesday or Thursday they will receive their second sacrament as they make their First Confession. Ask God to bestow beautiful mercy upon them and to inspire them - and all of us - to seek his love in this sacrament often.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,

Fr. Hambrough

ST. VINCENT DEPAUL SOCIETY
CHRISTMAS SHARING PROGRAM

The St. Vincent DePaul Society is starting the "Christmas Sharing Program". This program is a two-fold program consisting of the Adopt-A-Family and the Giving Tree.

If you adopt a family you will be purchasing for a specific family with a wish list provided by the family. The program is changing a little this year. Due to the COVID issue, we are focusing on the child in need from the Hancock and Mehlville school district along with our client families. The families have each provided 4 gift items (needs and wishes).

Family wish lists for the Adopt-A-Family program will be available in the Church Hall after all the Masses for the next 3 weekends, November 7 & 8, November 14 & 15, and November 21 & 22. If you are uncomfortable coming down to the Church Hall, feel free to contact Steffanie Crowley at 846-8151 or email at keisteff@sbcglobal.net.

The Giving Tree will be set up in the main lobby of the Church the weekend of November 14. At that time you will be able to take one or more gift tags off the tree, listing the specific item to purchase. These tags will range from clothing and toys to household items or gift cards. Due to COVID concerns, we will place boxes by the tree where gifts can be deposited as you purchase them.

This year all UNWRAPPED gifts for both parts of the program will be collected in the Church Hall the weekend of December 13, 14 & 15. We will be in the hall Friday, December 11, from Noon – 6:00 PM; Saturday, December 12, from 8:00 AM – 6:30 PM and Sunday, December 13, from 7:00 AM – Noon. Members of St. Vincent DePaul Society will deliver all gifts. Thanks for your support

Every person deserves to feel Secure, to be Warm and to have HOPE!

This year has been an unusually challenging year, that's for sure. One thing that has not changed, though, is the need for warm blankets for our homeless neighbors in downtown St. Louis.

We are dedicated to continuing our annual Blankets of Hope donation to St. Patrick's Center. There will just need to be a few changes this year. Since we will not be able to gather together to make the blankets, we are asking you to consider making your blanket(s) on your own. If you are unable to make a blanket, perhaps you can donate fleece to have a blanket made for you (you need two 2' x 2' pieces of fleece for each blanket).

The finished blankets or fleece donations can either be dropped off at the QAS Rectory during business hours, dropped off at 2793 Brandenburg Lane, or picked up from your house prior to Sunday, November 29. You can also drop off your finished blankets on November 29 at the QAS Cafeteria between 11 am and 1 pm.

These donated blankets will then be delivered to St. Patrick's Center where we know they will be greatly appreciated and immediately handed out to those in need of warmth. These blankets give the homeless physical and emotional warmth; they are a tangible sign of hope and love from people who care.

If you are looking for a meaningful way to start the Advent season and end this year of ups and downs on a positive note, please consider supporting Blankets of Hope. Please contact Therese at 314-605-4100 with any questions or if you need blanket instructions emailed to you. Thank you so much for your continued support of this very worthwhile project!

SVDP THANKS GIVING DAY DRIVE

SVDP will be sponsoring our annual Thanksgiving Day Drive. This year the focus will be on paper and some hygiene products such as toilet tissue, Kleenex, paper towels, body wash, bath bar soap, deodorant, and tooth paste. Please bring the donated items to Mass on Thanksgiving Day. All donations will be greatly appreciated.

HEALING THE PAIN OF ABORTION ONE WEEKEND AT A TIME

Archdiocese of St. Louis to Hold First Rachel's Vineyard Retreat

November 13-15, 2020

Men, women, and couples wounded by abortion are invited to attend the first archdiocesan Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreat, November 13-15. Rachel's Vineyard, offered through the Archdiocese of St. Louis Abortion Healing Ministry, has helped 320,000-plus women and men globally since its founding in 1993 by psychologist Dr. Theresa Burke (see <https://rachelvineyard.org/>).

A trained and compassionate team, including a priest and professional therapist, will gently lead participants through the critical steps of healing after abortion and encountering the merciful love of Jesus Christ, the Divine Physician. The retreat will be held in a comfortable, prayerful, and confidential setting in the St. Louis area, with proper Covid-19 precautions in place.

The cost is $50 to attend which includes two night's lodging, all meals and materials.

Contact stlprojectrachel@archstl.org or 314.792.7565 through November 6th. All information and inquiries are kept confidential.

FROM OUR SEMINARIAN JAKE BRAUN

The Effects of Anointing of the Sick

As mentioned in my last article, Anointing of the Sick has a number of effects that are often misunderstood. The Catechism of the Catholic Church lists four specific graces that come from the sacrament, all of which help the Christian to remain steadfast in the midst of their suffering, as well as to enable them to unite their suffering more closely with Christ's own Passion. These four graces mentioned by the Catechism can help us to more clearly grasp the purpose of the sacrament.

The effects of Anointing of the Sick outlined by the Catechism have both an individual and an ecclesial dimension. First, the anointed person receives a "particular gift of the Holy Spirit," that provides the person with the "[strength], peace, and courage to overcome the difficulties that go with the condition of serious illness or the frailty of old age." This grace enables the recipient to resist temptations to despair with the help of the Holy Spirit, who "renews trust and faith in God" in order to "lead the sick person to healing of the soul." (If physical healing is the will of God, then this also is given.) This sort of grace is absolutely crucial for sustaining in hope all who face suffering through illness or impending death. But Anointing of the Sick also expands human freedom with regard to suffering.

An additional aspect of the grace given by Anointing of the Sick is a gift of union with Christ's Passion.

According to the Catechism, the sick person is consecrated [i.e., set aside for a sacred purpose] "to bear fruit by configuration to the Savior's redemptive Passion." In other words, the suffering that we experience as a consequence of fallen human nature can be imbued with sacred meaning and reoriented as a participation in Christ's own saving mission. In this union of one's sufferings with Christ's, the third effect, a special ecclesial grace, emerges. This ecclesial grace is twofold: the whole Communion of Saints "interceding for the benefit of the sick person," and the sick person "contributing to the sanctification of the Church and to the good of all men for whom the Church suffers and offers herself through Christ to God the Father." Anointing of the Sick thus gives its recipients the opportunity to participate in Christ's saving mission at their weakest moments, even unto their final breath.

The last grace mentioned by the Catechism is that of a final preparation for death. As the Catechism states, the Anointing of the Sick, "completes the holy anointings that mark the whole Christian life: that of Baptism which sealed the new life in us and that of Confirmation which strengthened us for the combat of this life." Just as Christ's own suffering and death became prerequisite instruments of his Resurrection and Glory, so too does the death of the faithful Catholic undergo a radical transformation. Death and suffering no longer have the final say, as the tomb has become for us naught but a doorway to life eternal. We now participate in both the death and the resurrection of Jesus, through his sacraments. Anointing of the Sick prepares us for that final sprint into the house of the Heavenly Father.

REST IN PEACE

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Dennis Sutton, husband of Susan Sutton of our parish.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Robert Rothschild, father of Michelle (Marc) Raines of our parish.

May God welcome them home and comfort their families in their time of sorrow.

PRAYER FOR THE POOR SOULS IN PURGATORY

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

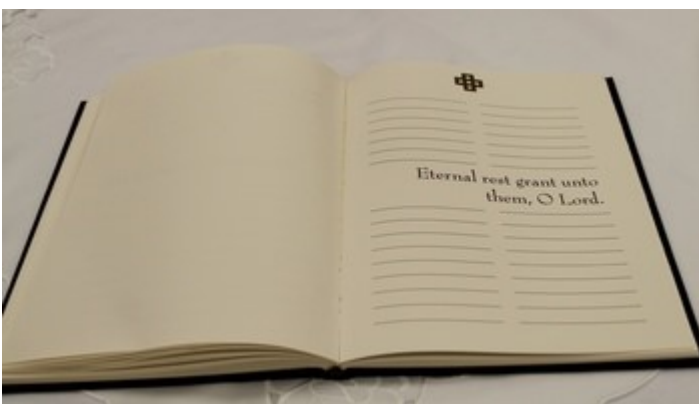

And let the perpetual light shine upon them.

And may the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - CALL TO VIGILANCE

One of my struggles lately has been to live in the present moment and to be grateful for it with my whole heart, to embrace and cherish it as a gift from God. We constantly plan ahead for the future, which is necessary, but we often take it for granted. We never know how much time we will have on earth before God will call us home. Therefore, we must keep watch for the Lord in the present moment and live for Him. We can be like the wise virgins if we spend our time praying and cherishing moments with our friends and families. Think about how much time we waste playing video games, using social media excessively, and staring at screens. Let us re-prioritize and focus on the Lord at each moment so that we will be ready when He returns to call us home to the wedding feast of the Lamb (cf. Rev. 19:9).

archstl.org/dynamic

BOOK OF THE DEAD

The Book of the Dead will be in the main lobby of church during the entire month of November. You may record names of deceased loved ones at any time during this month. We hope everyone will remember in their prayers those who are listed. Persons named need not be members of the parish, nor is it limited to someone who passed away this year. In fact, you can repeat someone's name from previous years.

BULLETIN DEADLINE CHANGE

Due to the Thanksgiving holidays, the bulletin deadline for the weekend of November 29 has been changed. All bulletin items must be in the parish office no later than November 19 at 8:00 a.m.

CYC basketball registration is open and will close November 15th. Don't miss out on signing up your child. Late registration will not be allowed this year!

We have teams for boys and girls in third grade through high school.

1. Access the campaign - Click the blue link within the Welcome text or personal link button from within the Welcome email.
2. Choose item - From our Home page, click "Items" , browse or use the dropdown menu to view categories, then select an item.
3. Choose amount - Use the pre-populated minimum bid or enter a higher amount. Use Auto Bid if you prefer - Select AUTO BID, enter the highest amount you are willing to bid. The system will place minimum bids for you as needed until your designated amount.
4. Click Bid

HOW CAN I SET MY TOP DOLLAR AMOUNT AS A BID?

Click on the item you want to bid on. Click on the Auto Bid tab and set your highest bid. When you've been outbid, the system will automatically place another bid for you, up to your highest bid.

HOW WILL I KNOW IF I'VE BEEN OUTBID?

You will receive a text notification when you've been outbid.

HOW WILL I RECEIVE ITEMS I WON?

Once the auction closes, you will receive a notification regarding which items you won. All items will be delivered via contactless delivery. You will be contacted at the number you registered with to schedule a delivery date or pick up, if you prefer. Some items may have special instructions (see item descriptions for details). You may contact qascasinonight@yahoo.com for inquiries or questions about your delivery.

DONATE

If you don't want to bid on items but still want to support Queen of All Saints School, you will also be able to make donations before and during the event through the Fund-A-Need Page or by clicking Donate Now, from the Home Page.

Ready to Donate? Follow these instructions:

1. Access the campaign - Click the blue link within the Welcome text or personal link button from within the Welcome email.
2. From our Home page, click "Donate" , then select an item.
3. Choose amount
4. Click Donate
5. Or, you can click on the Fund-A-Need button and donate a tangible item from the items listed.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DONATING TO FUND-A-NEED VS. DONATE NOW?

By Donating through the Fund-A-Need section of the homepage, you are able to purchase tangible items for the school, and directly fund needs, such as a chair, a desk, window blinds, etc...to help us meet our goal of eventually updating all classrooms. The Donate Now section of the homepage allows you to make a flat donation amount that also goes towards meeting our goal.

WHAT IS THE GOAL?

With funds raised in the previous years, we have been able to remodel all of our 4th grade through 8th grade classrooms and fund new dollies and chairs for the lunchroom and gym! Our goal is to eventually have all classrooms remodeled by working our way down from 3rd to Pre-K. With your help, we can keep Queen of All Saints School a vibrant and modern space that our kids can thrive in.

HELP

I STILL HAVE QUESTIONS AND NEED HELP. WHO CAN I CONTACT?

We are happy to help! Send us an email at qascasinonight@yahoo.com and we will get back with you ASAP! We monitor this email 7 days a week.
