FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

God of the Angels, you spoke your word to Mary and hoped she would receive you. As you call to us, help us to hear you and welcome you into the most unlikely moments that they might be places of grace. Help us to give ourselves over to you, so this Christmas season is one where your will may be done in and through us. Amen.

Mission Statement

As members of Queen of All Saints Parish, we are a community united in the Catholic faith, nourished by the Eucharist, and sent to make Christ known to all through word and deed.

STEWARDSHIP

"For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy." Luke 1:44

When you hear the scripture readings and Gospel reading at Mass, do you "leap for joy?" If not, don't blame the lecturer or priest, rather look inside yourself. What are you doing to grow in friendship with Jesus? How do you prepare for Mass each week? Or, do you just show up and expect to be entertained? As the Body of Christ, we are called to be active participants, not just passive observers.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

There is an old Jewish-Christian tradition which says:

God sends each person into the world with a special message to deliver,
with a special song to sing for others,
with an act of love to bestow.

No one else can speak my message,
or sing my song,
or offer my act of love.

These are entrusted only to me.
According to this tradition,
the message may be spoken,
the song sung,
the act of love delivered
only to a few,
or to all the folk in a small town,
or to all the people in a large city,
or even to all those in the whole world.

It all depends on God's unique plan for each person.
To which we might add:
The greatest gift of God,
one would think,
is the gift of life.
The greatest sin of humans,
it would seem, would be to return that gift,
ungrateful and unopened.

Anonymous

Within a week we will be celebrating the birthday of God's greatest gift, His Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ. Surely the players in today's Gospel story of the Visitation had no idea that their words and actions in that small unnamed village in the hill country would echo through the centuries to the present day. Fame was not on the mind of Mary and Elizabeth. Gifts from God were.

Elizabeth, thought to be barren, too old to deliver a child, rejoices at the sight of Mary entering her house. Her unborn son, soon to be named John, leaps in the womb, an obvious recognition of a gift from God. Mary, likewise, is cognizant of God's blessings. Having been told by an archangel that she would birth the Savior of the world, she now stands in Elizabeth's house, her heart bursting with appreciation and her lips ready to shout "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God, my Savior." God's gifts to these two women would not be returned unopened.

As far as Mary and Elizabeth knew, I'm sure, all this happiness and excitement would stop with Elizabeth's husband, Zechariah, and Mary's betrothed, Joseph. That would be it - a "message delivered only to a few." God, of course, had other ideas, and the way these two women embraced God's gifts, loved God's gifts, and shared God's gifts - John the Baptist and Jesus - inspires us even now. The Nativity of Jesus Christ reminds us that the gift of the Father is still being delivered by the Son - to you. No one else, as the poem goes, can speak your message. No one else can sing your song. No one can share your act of love. This gift, this Child, is entrusted to you, and me.

While the gathering of family and the exchange of gifts are heartwarming and genuine, we cannot forget the responsibility we each have to share the love of the Holy Infant. Gratitude for Christ swells our hearts to the breaking point. Joy at His Birth causes us to leap in happiness. This is one Gift we can't wait to open. This is one Gift we will not return clouded in ungratefulness. That would be a great sin.

Know that I write on behalf of Fr. Detwiler, our deacons, and the staff of our parish, in wishing you and yours a safe, happy, and sacred Christmas. You will be in our prayers throughout these remaining days of Advent and Christmas. May the great miracle that is the Baby in Bethlehem penetrate deep into your hearts and cause joy to cry out with angels, "Glory to God in the highest."

In Christ,

Christmas 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I send my warmest and most sincere greetings at this holy time of the year to all of you, and to all your families and loved ones!

This past year has been a challenging time for everyone. It has also been a year of great grace. We have witnessed the love and concern of people for one another. So many have been willing to make tremendous sacrifices to keep people safe, and try and curb this global health crisis. We have much to be grateful for as we move a step closer to the end of the pandemic. Now is the time for Catholics to step forward, giving generously to help those in need.

Each year, the people of the archdiocese are asked to make a special gift on Christmas Day to support our seminarians at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. These men are responding to Christ's call to follow Him as they discern a vocation to the holy priesthood, and have dedicated themselves to living, growing, and serving in His love as they prepare for a life of parish ministry. God-willing, these men will bring the faith given to us by Christ 2,000 years ago to future generations.

This Christmas, I ask you to pray for vocations and for all our priests and seminarians. I also ask you to be generous in your donation to the Christmas collection at your parish, which helps ensure that our seminarians receive the education and formation they need to grow closer to Christ each day. Your support is a source of inspiration for the seminarians and helps to build up the Church in St. Louis. Together, we can encourage our future priests to walk the path of holiness as they seek to configure their hearts to the Heart of Jesus Christ.

I look forward to celebrating the joy of the Christmas season with all of the faithful of the Archdiocese. How wonderful it is to have the faithful back in church to celebrate Christ's birth. Please be assured of my prayers for you during the season of Christmas.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Difference...

I got up early one morning
and rushed right into the day;
I had so much to accomplish
that I didn't have time to pray.

Problems just tumbled about me,
and heavier came each task.
"Why doesn't God help me?" I wondered.
He answered, "You didn't ask."

I wanted to see joy and beauty,
but the day toiled on, gray and bleak;
I wondered why God didn't show me,
He said, "But you didn't seek."

I tried to come into God's presence;
I used all my keys at the lock.
God gently and lovingly chided,
"My child, you didn't knock."

I woke up early this morning,
and paused before entering the day;
I had so much to accomplish
that I had to take time to pray.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! -
FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT - SURRENDER TO GOD

Ecce ancilla Domini. Fiat mihi secundum verbum tuum. “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word” (Luke 1:38). This is one of the most beautiful lines in Scripture. It conveys to us the total surrender and power of obedience to God’s will in our lives. Because of Mary’s fiat, the Savior entered the world to save us from our sins and to bring us back to God

As we celebrate Christmas, let us do so in the spirit of joy, welcoming the humble Christ-child into our hearts once more and asking Him to conform our hearts to His most sacred heart. In this joyful time, let us show love, kindness, and mercy to our loved ones who have fallen away and never lose hope in their return home. The angel Gabriel tells us, “For nothing will be impossible for God” (Luke 1:37). May God bless you and your family this Christmas! Venite adoremus Dominum!

Hundreds of teens travel from St. Louis to Washington, D.C., for the March for Life every year. Good news...you do not have to belong to a youth group to participate in this amazing event!

Two opportunities are available with South County departures:

1. St. Margaret Mary Alacoque will host a bus leaving on Thursday, January 20, 2022 at 7:00 a.m. from SMMA. This adults only trip includes two nights in a hotel. The March for Life will be Friday, January 21, 2022 and Saturday will allow for sightseeing before leaving Washington, D.C., at 5:00 p.m. Participants will return to St. Louis on Sunday, January 23, 2022, early a.m. Contact Ray Kalbac for more information: 314-461-2367.

2. MO Right to Life will again sponsor the “short version” of the trip departing from St. David’s in Arnold on Thursday morning, January 20, 2022 and returning January 22, 2022. This trip does not involve hotel overnights. Cost is $235 and open to anyone age 7 and older. Of course children must be accompanied by an adult. Information at missourilifecaravan.org.
