STEWARDSHIP

"And this is my prayer: that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value..." Philippians 1:9-10

During the Christmas shopping season it is easy to get caught up in the frenzy of buying gifts. But, is that "gift" truly an expression of your love for the other person. Or, are you just fulfilling your "obligation" to give them something? To grow in friendship with someone, you need to spend time with them, learn what is of value to them. Maybe this year, buy less "stuff" and spend more time with those you love.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

A company of pilgrims were on the road, all carrying a burden of some sort, yet bearing them cheerfully, and thinking more of their journey than of its hardships, they went along together singing. An angel joined the little band of travelers, and passing from one to another threw into each of the burdens a couple of little white seeds. Soon the seeds began to sprout, until they became a glorious pair of wings which carried each traveler, burden and all, along the dusty road.

Later on, a similar party were making their way along the same road, with downcast faces. They greatly complained about the heavy burdens they carried. The angel passed again, but left them with no gifts of seeds that would become wings. "Why did you leave them no wings?" he was asked. "They look so downcast and gloomy, surely they need wings to uplift them more than others." "Yes," the angel replied, "these seeds are special and they can become wings to help people carry the heavy burdens of life. But they will flourish only in the cheerful and helpful; they will perish at once in that atmosphere of grumbling."

The readings today give us hope as we walk the path God has traced for us. Through Christ, the Father has made every effort to make our journey easier. As in days of old, as in the days of the prophets, like Baruch in today's First Reading, God has gone to extraordinary lengths to smooth the road before us.

Baruch speaks for God as he addresses the people of Jerusalem. Oh, they have been an awful people - selfish, greedy, and disobedient. They deserve to be clothed in misery and mourning, their terrible behavior earned them a lousy wardrobe. Now, though, the splendor of God's glory is shining. Get rid of putrid clothing; be wrapped in a cloak of justice from God. Once properly dressed, the people are ready to go outside and wait for their fellow citizens to come home from exile.

They had been dragged away in shame and had made the tough journey on foot. Now, they come back borne aloft on royal thrones. No need to climb high mountains, God has made them low. Don't worry about losing footing and tumbling into a gorge, God has filled in the gorge. Forests provide shade and fragrant plants sweeten the journey. Surely, this would be a group traveling with a song in their hearts and on their lips. No grumbling amongst this crowd.

The journey through life that we make is not based on a prophecy anymore, it's based on a person - Jesus Christ. John the Baptist urged all to prepare for Jesus, emphasizing the words of Isaiah, who like Baruch told of valleys filling and mountains lowered and all people experiencing the salvation of God. We await this salvation with great hope. No grumbling here!

God has done His part to make this happen. What are you doing? Last week our 2nd grade parishioners received their second sacrament as they made their First Confession. To a person, they all agreed that it was a special moment for them and they felt fantastic afterwards. The same will be true for you if you go to Confession, especially if its been some years since you've gone. Remember the story of the guy who was asked how many it took to convert him. "Two," he replied. "Two? How could that be! Didn't God do it all?" "The Almighty and myself converted me," he insisted, "I did all I could against it, and the Almighty did all he could for it, and God won."

Advent is a time to let God win, let God smooth the way and straighten the road to our heart. There Christ may dwell providing the love and strength we need to travel with Him to the Kingdom.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

CHRISTMAS SHARING PROGRAM

The Giving Tree is set up in the main lobby of the Church. You will be able to take one or more gift tags off the tree, listing the specific item to purchase. These tags will range from clothing and toys to household items or gift cards. Boxes will be placed in the vestibule where Giving Tree gifts can be deposited as you purchase them.

This year all UNWRAPPED gifts for both parts of the program will be collected in the Church Hall the weekend of December 10, 11 & 12. We will be in the hall:

Friday, December 10th from Noon – 6:00 p.m. Saturday, December 11th from 8:00 – 6:30 p.m. Sunday, December 12th from 7:00 – Noon.

Members of St. Vincent DePaul Society will deliver all gifts. Thanks for your support.

at St. Francis of Assisi church. Come and make a good confession before the celebration of Our Lord's Birth.

Hundreds of teens travel from St. Louis to Washington, D.C., for the March for Life every year. Good news...you do not have to belong to a youth group to participate in this amazing event!

Two opportunities are available with South County departures:

1. St. Margaret Mary Alacoque will host a bus leaving on Thursday, January 20, 2022 at 7:00 a.m. from SMMA. This adults only trip includes two nights in a hotel. The March for Life will be Friday, January 21, 2022 and Saturday will allow for sightseeing before leaving Washington, D.C., at 5:00 p.m. Participants will return to St. Louis on Sunday, January 23, 2022, early a.m. Contact Ray Kalbac for more information: 314-461-2367.

2. MO Right to Life will again sponsor the "short version" of the trip departing from St. David's in Arnold on Thursday morning, January 20, 2022 and returning January 22, 2022. This trip does not involve hotel overnights. Cost is $235 and open to anyone age 7 and older. Of course children must be accompanied by an adult. Information at missourilifecaravan.org.

For general questions, contact Jeannine at 314-565-6085.

Finally, if you have a teenager interested in helping with the event for service hours, please reach out to Amy Bush, Bushamy@outlook.com

We are excited to provide this meaningful event to capture the reason for the season. We hope to see you there!

ADVENT WREATH SYMBOLS

(1) Evergreen Wreath - The circle of the wreath, which has no beginning or end, symbolizes the eternity of God (the Alpha and Omega). The evergreen is chosen as the base because God is the foundation of all good. Green is the color that represents hope and new life.

Four Candles - represent the four (4) weeks of Advent. Traditionally, each week represents one thousand years, to sum to the 4,000 years from Adam and Eve until the Birth of the Savior. The first two purple candles symbolizes (2) hope and (3) love respectively. The (4) third candle (which is pink/rose) symbolizes joy. The fourth and last purple candle represents (5) peace.

The light of the candles signifies the light of Christ to mankind.

THANK YOU FOR ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL BLANKETS OF HOPE!

What an awesome parish we have! Thank you to everyone who came to make blankets with us this past Sunday, November 28. It was so wonderful to see the familiar faces of those who have been joining us for years and also to see the new faces joining us for the first time! Thank you also to all of you who made blankets on your own to donate. It was easy to see that each blanket was made with much thoughtfulness and care. Thank you for the new blankets that were donated and also for the very inventive scarves made from remnant fleece fabric – a great idea for those who want to work on something throughout the year! A big thank you to Ms. Spirk's 4th graders who made 15 blankets for the homeless and also to Anna Hackett and the teens from her Youth Group for joining us! We truly appreciated Father Detwiler and Father Hambrough stopping by to see the activity and for giving the beautiful blessing over the blankets. An amazing 62 blankets will be delivered to St. Patrick Center just in time for the cold winter weather. Please mark your calendars now for November 27, 2022, so we can do all of this again! Happy Advent!

LUX THIS THURSDAY - “Baby Shower for Mary”

Thursday, December 9th, 7:15-8:45 p.m. in the Youth Room

Lux is a time to enjoy our youth ministry community and be a “light” to others. This Thursday we will be throwing a “Baby Shower for Mary” to celebrate the coming of the child Jesus and to collect donations for mothers in need. All donations will be delivered to Our Lady’s Inn, a shelter and support system for women in crisis pregnancies who choose life for their children. Bring an item to donate and come celebrate with us!

If you are not a teen but are still interested in donating an item to our baby shower, contact Anna Hackett, (hacketta@qasstl.org) for the list of requested items and to coordinate a time to drop off your item.
