STEWARDSHIP

6th Sunday of Ordinary Time

"Blessed are you when people hate you,...exclude and insult you, and denounce your name...on account of the Son of Man." (Luke 6:22)

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

After I moved into the Queen of All Saints rectory in August, 2019, it didn't take long for me to discover that this parish, like others where I served, would be full of reminders that I am a person blessed by God. In fact, here, all I had to do was walk downstairs from my quarters and into the front office to discover God's care for me, visibly and wonderfully present in the people who worked there - Mary Arconati, Rose Palmer and Jan Schroeder.

All of them so hospitable, so kind, so eager to help the new guy get adjusted to a new assignment. Beyond those blessings, in Mary and Rose there was the added treasure of longevity, for both of them had been working at QAS for decades. They knew so many people and were able to school me on much of the history of the parish. After all, by working in the rectory they had a front row seat.

This week, however, I - and we - say good-bye to Mary Arconati as she retires after 32 years of working here. It is a well-earned and well-deserved retirement. Mary, as many of you know, has been a gem. She answers the phone - and with that, lots of questions. She keeps track of the parish schedule, so you can imagine her expertise at juggling, that is, at scheduling so many requests for space. She keeps track of Mass intentions, the Sacramental records, the parish buzz books, and donations made to the parish. She edits this bulletin, often patiently waiting for me to turn in my weekly column. And while she's doing all this, she frequently has to answer the door, greeting each visitor in a friendly manner. What a blessing Mary has been to our parish.

Pope St. Leo the Great commented, "It is certain that the poor more easily achieve the blessing of humility than the rich. Gentleness goes with poverty, pride more commonly with riches. And yet, very many rich people do use their wealth for works of charity rather than as a means to puff their pride. This spirit counts as among its greatest profits what it spends in relieving distress and hardship in others." I would say that is true of Mary and so many others who work at this parish - who find their greatest profit not in cash or material riches, but in the humble joy of serving others.

Jesus in today's Gospel encourages a spirit of humility from those who would be his disciples. Blessed, he says, are the poor, the hungry, the weeping, and the hated. In other words, blessed are those who realize they're not going to find all they want in this world. Real blessings, real reward, will come in Heaven. So different from those who want it all now and are determined to get it, no matter how many people they have to step on to get it. You will have lots of good times and good stuff, Jesus assures them, as long as you live on earth. But after earthly life is over? Well, no, goodness does not await you, but you'll have plenty of time to be hungry and grieve and weep. Sadly Jesus says, "Woe to you."

St. Therese of Lisieux wrote: "Holiness is not in one exercise or another, it consists in a disposition of the heart, which renders us humble and little in the hands of God, conscious of our weakness but confident, even daringly confident, in God's fatherly goodness." Our parish was blessed for many years in that goodness present in Mary Arconati, and will continue to be so as she finds other ways to serve QAS.

May God bless Mary, and may God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

YOU ARE INVITED!

Hello Everyone,
I have really enjoyed my first few months of priesthood here at Queen of All Saints. I know I have shared with many of you a few details concerning the beautiful journey that brought me to this vocation. If I haven't shared it with you yet, it is a beautiful story of God's Providence at work in some pretty amazing ways.

On Sunday, February 20, at 7:00 p.m. in the Church, our youth group will be hosting a night of prayer, adoration and confession in the Church, we call it "XLT." Just before exposition, I will be giving the talk, and sharing in detail more about my journey to the priesthood. Although this is a youth group event, all are invited to come and hear about how God has done great things in my life, and then pray that we can all be open to His Work. I hope to see you there!

Thanks,
Fr. Detwiler

EXPECTANT MOTHER'S BLESSING

Sunday, February 13th, is the "second Sunday of the month" and therefore is the expectant mother's blessing. This special blessing will take place following the 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses. All those expecting a child, through their pregnancy or awaiting adoption of a child, are encouraged to come for this blessing every month. As a parish, we continue to pray for the unborn babies who will soon join our congregation. Let us pray for good health and safe deliveries.

THE START OF SOMETHING NEW

Dear Parishioners,
 It is with mixed emotions that I edit my last bulletin for Queen of All Saints. It has been my pleasure working with Fr. Hambrough, Fr. Detwiler, Rose and Jan and so many others throughout the years. I look forward to retirement and will continue seeing you at Mass and many of the events at Queen of All Saints.
 God bless,
 Mary Arconati

PRAYER WHILE VISITING THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT

My Lord Jesus Christ, for the love which You bear to men, You remain night and day in this Sacrament full of compassion and of love, awaiting, calling, and welcoming all who come to visit You. I believe that You are present in the Sacrament of the Altar: I adore You from the abyss of my nothingness, and I thank You for all the graces which You have bestowed upon me and in particular for having given me Yourself in this Sacrament, for having given me your holy Mother Mary for my advocate, and for having called me to visit You in this chapel. I now salute Your most loving Heart: and this for three ends:

1. In thanksgiving for this great gift;
2. To make amends to You for all the outrages which You receive in this Sacrament from all Your enemies;
3. I intend by this visit to adore You in all the places on earth in which You are the least revered and the most abandoned.

My Jesus, I love You with all my heart. I grieve for having so many times offended Your infinite goodness. I promise with Your grace never more to offend You in the future.

Now, miserable and unworthy though I be, I consecrate myself to You without reserve; I give You my entire will, my affections, my desires, and all that I possess. From now on dispose of me and of all that I have as You please. All that I ask of You and desire is Your holy love, final perseverance, and the perfect accomplishment of Your will. I recommend to You the souls in purgatory; but especially those who had the greatest devotion to the most Blessed Sacrament and to the Blessed Virgin Mary. I also recommend to You all poor sinners.

My dear Saviour, I unite all my affections with the affections of Your most loving Heart; and I offer them, thus united, to Your eternal Father, and beseech Him in Your name to vouchsafe, for Your love, to accept them. Amen.

ST. LOUIS SLUGGERS

DISASTER RECOVERY TEAM

Mission 31 for The Sluggers is tentatively scheduled a week past Easter, April 24-29 in Waverly, TN.

On August 26, 2021 Waverly was inundated with 17" of rain in 24 hours. Nearly 400 homes were totally destroyed or severely damaged, along with 20 fatalities of which 5 were children.

A few of The Slugger team will visit Waverly in February to review potential projects.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES: Ladies and gentlemen, if you are handy and willing to help those who have lost everything they ever had, consider joining the crew for a week. Lodging will not be at The Drury Plaza this trip, rather in church basements or possibly in homes of local St. Vincent de Paul Members.

Since 2006 The Team has worked on over 150 homes and many not-for-profit facilities. The average age of the team is nearly 70 with some over 80....it would be great to add some "youngsters" to the crew to continue the legacy.
