STEWARDSHIP

7th Sunday of Ordinary Time

"But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back..." (Luke 6:35)

Easier said than done, right? But, if we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Praying for our enemies doesn't change them, it changes us. Mercy and compassion will keep us on the path to holiness.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

One of the things our 50th Anniversary Committee want to do is invite priests once assigned to Queen of All Saints to come back and offer a Sunday Mass and then have a chance to reconnect with parishioners at coffee and donuts. These priests gave so much of themselves while assigned here and in return received so much from so many of you. That's how it works in Christianity, right? That's what happens when one follows the Lord's example of service. Blessings are returned—thirty, sixty, and a hundred fold. I'm sure any priest assigned here would testify that he received such blessings during the ministry.

Thus, today we welcome back to QAS Father Brian Roeseler. While Father Roeseler did not serve here as a priest, he grew up in this parish, lived for a time in our rectory, and was ordained to the priesthood in June 2011 for service in the Diocese of Colorado Springs. He currently is Pastor of Corpus Christi Parish in that city. Please join me in welcoming Father Roeseler back to the parish that helped him to listen to the voice of Christ calling him to the priesthood.

Once upon a time in an Eastern city, there was a riot. The people were hungry and they blamed the Caliph for their plight. When he rode through the streets of the city, some of the citizens mobbed him, and one man, more desperate than the rest, caught him by his beard and yanked it hard, causing the Caliph to cry out in pain. Soldiers rushed to help the ruler, stopping the crowd which wished to inflict more harm.

Order was restored, and eventually food was distributed, and the people went on with their lives. But, a certain shopkeeper—Hassan by name—wanted to curry favor with the Caliph. He secretly sought an audience and when in the Caliph's presence he told him the name of the man who had pulled the Caliph's beard so violently. "His name is Khasim," tattled the shopkeeper.

The ruler sent for him. Khasim arrived at the palace trembling with fear. He threw himself at the Caliph's feet, begging for mercy. "Get up, Khasim. I did not send for you to punish you, but to warn you that Hassan is a bad neighbor; for it was he that told me that you were my chief assailant during the riot. Go in peace," said the Caliph, "and never trust one who tells tales to curry favor."

One person in this story knows how to make enemies, one person knows how to forgive them. Benjamin Franklin said: "Doing an injury puts you below your enemy,
Revengeing one makes you but even with him,
Forgiving it sets you above him."

This is the place Christ wants us to be. In today's Gospel, Jesus encourages His disciples to love their enemies, certainly a startling thing for them to hear. Enemies should be crushed. Enemies should be destroyed. This is the kind of wisdom shared with the disciples by the elders when they were youngsters. Now, they surely thought, "we're supposed to love them?" Absurd.

Of course, so much of what Jesus taught sounded absurd or astonishing. Today's teaching would be one example. Jesus would counter that loving others is what everybody else does, but His disciples are not to be like everybody else, they're suppose to be like Him. Jesus came to love the just and the unjust, the saint and the sinner, the ones who followed Him and the ones who didn't. He expects His disciples to love others in the same way. This is no easy task, but our Lord promises to help us, for we are not tattletales seeking favor, nor doers of injury, nor hungry for revenge. We are people of mercy above all that, right next to Jesus Christ.

Our next ACTS retreat is next weekend and I'm sure the retreat team will welcome you if you want to go. Ask God about it. Give yourself a few days to deepen your relationship with Jesus. You'll be glad you did.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

Recently Father Hambrough received a letter from Father James Mason, Rector of Kenrick-Glennon Seminary, which read in part:

Thank you for your parish community's generous gift of $6,044.00 to Kenrick Glennon's Christmas Collection. The support of your parishioners makes an important difference in the daily lives of our seminarians as they discern God's call to the Holy Priesthood.

During their discernment at the seminary, these young men receive formation on spiritual, human, intellectual, and pastoral levels. This integrated approach prepares the seminarians to join you in service to the faithful, helping them to grow in confidence in the promise of Christ and His Church. Thank you for helping us carry out this important mission.

With the Season of Lent quickly approaching, all parishioners are urged to return the palms they received last year. Receptacles will be placed next weekend at all three doors. Please return only the palms. We don't need plastic bags, rubber bands, paper clips etc....

YOU ARE INVITED

Hello Everyone,
I have really enjoyed my first few months of priesthood here at Queen of All Saints. I know I have shared with many of you a few details concerning the beautiful journey that brought me to this vocation. If I haven't shared it with you yet, it is a beautiful story of God's Providence at work in some pretty amazing ways.

On Sunday, February 20, at 7:00 p.m. in the Church, our youth group will be hosting a night of prayer, adoration and confession in the Church, we call it "XLT." Just before exposition, I will be giving the talk, and sharing in detail more about my journey to the priesthood. Although this is a youth group event, all are invited to come and hear about how God has done great things in my life, and then pray that we can all be open to His Work. I hope to see you there!

Thanks,
Fr. Detwiler

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN JOINING THE WELCOME COMMITTEE?

Queen of All Saints is blessed whenever a new person or family registers with our parish. As a way to assure these new parishioners that we are glad they're welcome here, we would like to form a Welcome Committee. If you are interested in joining such a committee please contact Fr. Hambrough, 314-380-4020 or phambrough@archstl.org.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - The Body of Christ

The readings today remind us that we are all part of the Body of Christ. God has provided each of us with a set of gifts and He expects us to use those gifts effectively for the benefit of His entire body even when that means going outside of our comfort zone. Sometimes we might underestimate our gifts or think that our special gifts don't matter, but we are all unique and unrepeatable and made in the image and likeness of God! When we undervalue our gifts, we undervalue the gifts that God gave us. Spend some silent time with Jesus to help you discern your gifts and ask Him how He wants you to use them. Where are you being called this week?

Queen of All Saints
YOUTH MINISTRY

XLT TONIGHT

Sunday, February 20th, 7:15-8:45 p.m. in the Church

QAS Youth Ministry is hosting XLT tonight! Fr. Detwiler will be sharing the story of his accident eleven years ago and the intricate work of God that brought him to where he is today followed by a night in Eucharistic Adoration and Confession. Worship led by our music minister, Phil Kosta. People of all ages are welcome!

LUX THIS THURSDAY

Thursday, February 24th, 7:15-8:45 p.m. in the Youth Room

LUX is a time to enjoy our youth ministry community and be a "light" to others. Join us this Thursday to hear talks from two of our teens!

8TH GRADE MINISTRY - Snacks & Scripture

Tuesday, February 22nd, 3:15-3:45 p.m. in the Youth Room

We will be meeting for Snacks & Scripture this week after school on Tuesday! Join us to hang out and discuss this upcoming Sunday's Gospel reading.

We are looking for Sleep Houses for Luke 18! April 22-24.

We have our annual Luke 18 Retreat coming up, and we are looking for parishioners willing to host groups of 8th graders and high schoolers at their homes.

Responsibilities:

- Pick up and drop off your group from QAS (Friday night, Saturday morning, Saturday night, Sunday morning)
- Provide sleeping arrangements for your group. Sleeping arrangements can range from space to sleep on the floor to extra beds.

Who is Eligible?:

- Anyone from the parish willing and able to fulfill the responsibilities above!

Luke 18 is a wonderful opportunity for the whole parish to take part in leading the youth of our Church to a relationship with our Lord! Each role is important and necessary, and we would be so grateful for your help!

If interested in hosting a group, contact our youth minister, Anna Hackett, through email (hacketta@qasstl.org).

With the parish subscription you have print and online access because of your parish contributions. There is no expiration date with your parish subscription access as long as you make regular contributions in your parish.

MARTHAS FUNERAL LUNCH MINISTRY

Luke 10:38-40 says: "Martha welcomed Jesus into her house and then proceeded to serve a meal to all present." The Gospel tells how Martha welcomed Jesus and His disciples into her home and provided a meal and gracious hospitality. When a family loses a loved one they are often overwhelmed with decisions, grief and turmoil. As a parish community, we can support grieving parishioners by offering to provide the funeral luncheon.

The parish provides the meat and paper products and volunteers bring the side dishes and provide hospitality. Additional volunteers are needed to help serve the funeral luncheons and to bring a side dish such as a vegetable, salad, potato casserole, dessert, etc.

Thank you for considering this simple way to serve, as Martha served.

For more information on this ministry contact Jeannine at 565-6085 or sinakmomoffive@yahoo.com.
