Dear Parishioners,

This past weekend nearly 1,200 people participated in the annual Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion at the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis. Queen of All Saints was present with its candidates: Keith Allan Hanson, Kathryn Marie Hinkebein, Kaleb Daniel Katzenberger, Ryan Richard Miller, and Angela Elise Walsh. The rite marks the election or choosing of those catechumens who have been preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation—Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist—and solemnly calls them to these sacraments at the Easter Vigil this year. As a parish we look forward to welcoming them into the parish.

Friday evenings our parish is full of activity as the Knights of Columbus serve up some pretty awesome fish at our Annual Fish Fry. We have welcomed numerous parishioners and non-parishioners. To make this a reality, there are so many volunteers who come together. For those who head up this event, it is not just a job, it is a passion. Every worker takes pride in his/her work, from the fish served up, to the pasta sauce and green beans. Many thanks to the Knights for not only coming together to raise funds, but, more importantly, to bring the parish together to share community.

On Saturday afternoon, we celebrated an Eagle Scout Court of Honor for one of our parishioners, Connor Lenihan. This is a huge accomplishment for Connor and is a result of dedication and many years of hard work. A special word of thanks goes out to his parents, for without their strong support this would not have been possible. Only 5 percent of Boy Scouts achieve the rank of Eagle Scout, and here at Queen of All Saints there is a long tradition of boys earning this rank. Please take a moment to read through Connor’s essay, which you will find later in the bulletin.

Make plans during this Lenten Season to join your fellow parishioners for the Stations of the Cross on Fridays of Lent at 2:15 p.m. and at 7:00 p.m. Also, perhaps God is calling you to spend time with him in private prayer in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. On your way home from work, or during the day on Tuesdays, you might consider stopping by church for a visit. Eucharistic Adoration begins after the 8:00 a.m. Mass and runs throughout the day and night until 6:00 a.m. on Wednesday mornings.

You may have seen in our bulletin some information regarding Kurt Loeffler of our parish. Kurt is in the final stages of formation for the Permanent Diaconate, and over the past couple of years you would have seen him assisting at Mass. On Saturday, June 2, he will be Ordained a Deacon by Archbishop Carlson. As he draws near to this wonderful moment of life, please keep him in your prayers.

Encounter Majd

In Iraq, we encounter Majd and his family, people forced to flee violence, searching for stability. How are we called to welcome the stranger in our midst? How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

RCIA—Rite of Election

This past Sunday members of our parish who are preparing to join the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil participated in the Rite of Election. They joined hundreds of others from around the Archdiocese who are preparing to become Catholic. Please keep them in your prayers as they continue in their preparation.

Throughout my life, I have learned a variety of lessons from the multiple things I have participated in. Whether it was learning how to be a leader while I captained the three rugby teams I played on, or the perseverance necessary to undertake five AP classes my senior year, I began to develop each of these skills respectively and utilized them in my daily life. In these experiences, traveling across the country and to others to play my sport or work my craft, I pondered what I wanted in my life to truly succeed at becoming the person I wanted to be. Was I willing to dedicate my life to rugby, mastering the art that kept me physically strong and taught me important values, or was I to accomplish my dreams in academics? After long consideration of this question, I came to a realization. I want the best of both worlds.

Success in academics has propelled me onto the path to becoming a doctor, a dream of mine. I have always had an empathetic nature, and utilizing this nature to make people who are suffering better seemed the perfect job. I sympathize with the sufferers, and I want to alleviate their pain and help them to experience the happiness and fulfillment of life they deserve. While I dream of becoming a doctor, I also understand the necessary requirements to get there. Therein lies the importance of my education. I wish to continue to a Ph.D. academic level, with a specialty in neurology. The practice excites me, as the brain and its unknown functions are incredibly fascinating to me. Therefore, I dove headfirst into my studies and undertook difficult classes in hopes of achieving my dream. I sacrificed multiple weekends to stay and study, appreciating my friends and interacting with them while I was at school, but delving deep into sodium potassium pumps and other biological functions in my free time. After my career in the medical profession, I hope to teach the things I have learned to progressive generations. As so gratefully my teachers have bestowed their experience onto me, I wish to pass this knowledge and add my own contributions to future generations.

My wish to be a doctor is certainly on a spectrum. Neurology is my dream specialty, but whether that be on humans or animals does not bother me. I believe in enhancing the lives and recognizing the essential rights of all humans, but I also believe in the rights of animals. The industrialization of these poor animals has subjected them to the worst treatment, and I have become a spoken activist against this treatment. I am committed to ensuring a better future for our world, one that is sustainable and does not deny the natural lifestyles of animals. I have gone into some depth study on the anatomy of a pig's brain, and through this study I realized a potential. It has similar anatomy to a human brain, and I wish to go into more extensive study on both aspects to draw coherent similarities between the two to make connections that could eventually be used to educate others on the importance of respectful treatment of animals.

I wish to pursue a career in rugby. The mixture of Boy Scouts with rugby has taught me the quintessential elements of becoming a leader, and the proposition of becoming an effective and efficient leader is highly enticing to me. I want to establish a standard for future generations, and I believe one way to do this is by setting an example now on my team. I play on three separate rugby teams, from CBC high school rugby to USA South rugby, and I have played in international tournaments with men twice my size and age. However, these experiences drove my ambition to learn as much as I could from the sport and to teach these skills to the younger players. I taught my teammates after practice, and I learned special techniques from the more experienced players on the other teams. This has strengthened my resolve to play rugby in the future for as high a level I can achieve, and to gather as much knowledge from each person I play with or against. Then, I will pass this knowledge on to whoever will listen, and set an example by leading teams to fulfill their own potential.
The Activities Association is looking for a photographer to take our team pictures of the sports teams. If you are interested please contact Mike Smith at mnmmsmith@gmail.com

LifeLine Coalition

The LifeLine Coalition campaign promotes a Culture of Life by providing life affirming support for women facing a crisis pregnancy. The LifeLine Coalition is a group of social service agencies and prolife caregivers (Our Lady’s Inn, Birthright, and Good Shepherd Children and Family Services) that provide women with assistance for medical expenses, housing, food, and clothing. They also offer educational and spiritual guidance, counseling, and adoption services. The Respect Life Apostolate raises the funding which is then distributed to the member agencies. Since its inception in 1986 under Archbishop May, the St. Louis community has contributed over $1.6 million in gifts of support to the LifeLine Coalition agencies. These agencies support more than 10,000 women each year. LifeLine Coalition also contributes 1% of its annual budget to the Blessed Teresa of Calcutta Fund.

Queen of All Saints will hold its annual collection to support LifeLine Coalition on February 24-25. Envelopes will be in the pews for your donation to help women choose LIFE! Thank you for your support!

FOCUS

FOCUS (the Fellowship of Catholic University Students) is going on a mission to Haiti this May. I will be helping lead a small team on our mission in Cap-Haitien. We will be serving alongside the Missionaries of the Poor in taking care of children suffering from Cerebral Palsy and other nervous system related disorders, as well as serving in an HIV/AIDS clinic.

In order to share the love of Christ with the people of Haiti, I need your help. Each member of our team is responsible for raising $1,700 to cover the cost of the trip. Your financial support would be greatly appreciated! Please also remember our team in your prayers as we prepare for the trip and also during our time in Haiti. Pray also for those we will be serving and those who are suffering from the poverty present in Haiti. May they know Jesus through the labors of those serving them in His name.

Thank you for your consideration in supporting me in this opportunity to serve. Our goal is to have most of the funds raised by March. Donations can be made via the link below. If you have any questions or have difficulties opening the link, please feel free to contact me for more instructions on how you can support our team.

The Man Who Came To Dinner

The Catholic Youth Apostolate is pleased to announce that the Fr. William Scheid Players will open their 39th season with The Man Who Came to Dinner, a Broadway favorite about a noted cultural critic and radio show personality (Whiteside) who, while on a national speaking tour, visits the Ohio home of the prominent and conservative Stanley family. He slips on the ice, breaks his hip, and the local doctor says he must remain confined there. Whiteside turns the Stanley household upside down, forcing everyone in town to cater to his egotistical demands. A three-ring circus of machinations and celebrity appearances ensues.

This year’s cast features two priests of the Archdiocese, Monsignor Norb Ernst of St. Margaret Mary Parish and Fr. Bill Wigand of Regina Cleri, along with adult performers from the Archdiocese. Proceeds from the show benefit the ministries of the Catholic Youth Apostolate.

Performance dates are:
- Friday, March 16 at 7:30 p.m.
- Saturday, March 17 at 7:30 p.m.
- Sunday, March 18 at 2:00 p.m.

All performances will be at the Heagney Theatre on the campus of Nerinx Hall High School, 530 E. Lockwood, Avenue, Webster Groves, 63119.

Advanced tickets: $12 for reserved seating. Tickets are available at the door for $15.

Visit http://archstl.org/node/4405852 for more details and to download a Ticket Order Form.

The primary function of the Hospitality Ministers is to extend a warm welcome to parishioners and guests as they arrive at church. Ministers help seat people, take up the collection, hand out bulletins, and straighten up the material that is left in the pews after Mass.

A schedule is provided with the assigned service date for each Hospitality Minister.

We are in need of Hospitality Ministers for the 12:00 Mass. If you are interested please contact Debbie Millaway at 846-1276 or debbiem520@gmail.com.

Tonight’s Life Night continues our Lenten series entitled PASSION as we meditate on the last words of Jesus on the cross. Tonight’s Life Night is entitled “Paradise” and discusses conversion and the promise of salvation. Join us from 7-9 p.m. in the Life Teen offices, located in the QAS Lower Church Hall. All high school teens are welcome, so bring a friend and come hang out with us!

Additionally, Spring Retreat forms are available in the Life Teen offices! The dates are April 13-15, 2018, and the theme is “Timeless” -- we will travel to the rustic Camp Ondessonk in Southern Illinois to spend a weekend examining and reflecting on God’s presence through all time. Turn in your forms by March 4 to secure your spot at the early bird discount cost of $115 for the weekend.

Don’t forget, you can follow us on Twitter and Instagram, as well as listen to our music on Spotify. Just follow @QAS_LT to keep track of all Life Teen events and excitement!

Fr. Mike Schmitz shares important insights on the meaning of Christ’s Cross. He shows how God’s rescue mission for us includes the need for each person to embrace his own cross in order to reestablish trust in the Father and the understanding that love requires sacrifice. It also includes a bonus segment on Stations of the Cross, which features reflections on the Lord’s Passion and Death, accompanied by moving audio dramatizations from the Truth and Life Audio Bible.
