FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

There was sadness in my heart as I announced last week that the Archbishop has assigned me to the Cathedral Basilica as the new Rector. While it has only been three and a half years since my arrival at Queen of All Saints, there has been so much we have accomplished together, and I am so grateful to everyone for their strong support. Life as a Pastor can be incredibly rewarding and challenging at the same time.

During my time with you, I have kept the phrase that you find on the cover of the bulletin at the forefront of my approach to ministry: "A Parish for the People." These words help to remind me that the parish exists for the people and as Pastor to be of service to its parishioners and lead them closer in love of Christ. The parish is truly the Body of Christ when we are all gathered together for the Sunday celebration of the Eucharist.

I look forward to the three months that I have left at Queen of All Saints. My hope is to still do great things and work to ensure the strength of this parish into the future.

This past Tuesday we celebrated a funeral here at the parish for Gary Ballowe, the father of Jennifer Duncan of our parish. During the funeral, one of the cars of the guests for the funeral was broken into. This act of violence made a sad occasion only worse. I mention it to you as a reminder to be hyper vigilant about the items you leave in your car and always be aware of your surroundings. It is a theory of the police that the perpetrators may have followed the funeral procession to the church and committed the crime just as the funeral started. Charges were already made on the guest's credit card by the end of the funeral at a Walgreens in the city of St. Louis.

Our parish Fish Fry is hitting some great numbers for meals served in the past few weeks. Two weeks ago we were recognized as the #1 Fish Fry in St. Louis by the Post Dispatch. However, Assumption in Mattesse took first last week. Many thanks to our "God's Cod" crew for all they do. This is a huge undertaking and I am so grateful for the work they accomplish. Many thanks as well to our Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts for helping with desserts and cleaning off tables.

Please do make plans to join your fellow parishioners for our Parish Day of Reflection on Saturday, April 13th, beginning after the 8:15 a.m. Mass. Father Philipp and I will be leading the day and offering conferences focusing on the Mercy of Our Heavenly Father. We will be serving lunch, so it will be important to have an accurate count. Please visit our website or call the rectory to RSVP.

A huge thanks to all who worked on the 3rd Grade Basketball Tournament. It was wonderful to see so much life around the parish and the excitement of these kids as they played their hearts out.
