FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

It was a very busy weekend again at Queen of All Saints that began on Friday with our weekly Fish Fry. In our first hour, we served close to 340 meals, which was a bit overwhelming for the servers. One of the things I like most about the fish fries, other than the cod chunks, spaghetti, and green beans, is the community feel at each fish fry. It is so wonderful to walk around and see parishioners and visitors of all ages sitting together, sharing a meal, and chatting. Often times, over the chatter, you will hear laughter and people calling out to those they haven't seen in a while.

On last Thursday, we welcomed Sister Mary Elizabeth of the Carmelites of the Divine Heart of Jesus to our monthly Heritage Luncheon. Through sharing a bit of her own faith journey, she reflected with those gathered on the story of the Prodigal Son and how it shows us the immense mercy of our Heavenly Father. Our next Heritage Luncheon will be Thursday, March 22nd, and we will be welcoming a familiar face to join us: Sister Leonette. Mark you calendars now, it's not too early to get your RSVP into the rectory.

On this Third Sunday of Lent the Gospel, in St. John's version, refers to the famous episode of Jesus driving the animal dealers and the money-changers out of the Temple of Jerusalem (cf. Jn 2:13-25). The event, recorded by all the Evangelists, happened during the Passover Feast and made a deep impression on both the crowd and the disciples. How should we interpret Jesus' action?

The expulsion of the dealers from the Temple has been interpreted in a political and revolutionary sense, placing Jesus on par with the zealots' movement. The zealots were, precisely, "zealous" for God's law and were prepared to use violence to enforce respect for it. In Jesus' day they were awaiting a Messiah who would free Israel from Roman domination. But Jesus did not fulfil their expectations, so much so that some disciples abandoned Him, and Judas Iscariot even betrayed Him.

In fact, it is impossible to interpret Jesus as violent: violence is contrary to the Kingdom of God, it is a tool of the antichrist. Violence is never useful to humanity but actually dehumanizes it.

Let us, therefore, listen to the words that Jesus spoke while He was carrying out this action. "Take these things away; you shall not make my Father's house a house of trade." And the disciples then remembered that written in a Psalm is: "zeal for Your house has consumed me." (Ps.69:10)

This Psalm is a call for help in a situation of extreme danger because of the hatred of enemies: the plight that Jesus was to live through in His Passion. Zeal for the Father and for His house was to bring Him to the cross: His was the zeal of love, not the zeal that would serve God through violence.

HERITAGE LUNCHEON

Last Thursday we welcomed Sister Mary Elizabeth of the Carmelites of the Divine Heart of Jesus to our monthly Heritage Luncheon who shared a bit of her own faith journey.

ENCOUNTER CESIA

We encounter Cesia in Nicaragua, where, despite a lack of economic opportunity, young people pursue their dreams by building businesses to better their lives. How can you work to improve the lives of others this Lent? How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities?

FOCUS
FELLOWSHIP OF CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

FOCUS (the Fellowship of Catholic University Students) is going on a mission to Haiti this May. I will be helping lead a small team on our mission in Cap -Haitien. We will be serving alongside the Missionaries of the Poor in taking care of children suffering from Cerebral Palsy and other nervous system related disorders, as well as serving in an HIV/ AIDS clinic.

In order to share the love of Christ with the people of Haiti, I need your help. Each member of our team is responsible for raising $1,700 to cover the cost of the trip. Your financial support would be greatly appreciated! Please also remember our team in your prayers as we prepare for the trip and also during our time in Haiti. Pray also for those we will be serving and those who are suffering from the poverty present in Haiti. May they know Jesus through the labors of those serving them in His name.

Thank you for your consideration in supporting me in this opportunity to serve. Our goal is to have most of the funds raised by March. Donations can be made via the link below. If you have any questions or have difficulties opening the link, please feel free to contact me for more instructions on how you can support our team.

CONTAGIOUS CATHOLICISM: THE 7 HABITS OF MODERN-DAY APOSTLES

Internationally acclaimed speaker and author Chris Stefanick speaks about the importance of living a life of authenticity with a courageous commitment to love. He walks us through seven habits that we can use as modern-day apostles to effectively spread the good news to Jesus Christ. Following these lessons will help us to fulfill our calling to be fearlessly, joyfully Catholic, with a faith that is attractive, life-giving, and truly contagious.
