Stewardship

"I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice.". John 10:14-16

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Him what He wants from you? How do you listen for His response? Many times Jesus responds in "quiet whispers" that are not so obvious. So, take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His voice.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Like many of you, I received this past week an invitation to participate in the Annual Catholic Appeal of the Archdiocese. The theme of this year's Appeal is "Thy Will Be Done." The literature sent quoted Pope Francis, "We must live the faith, not only with our words, but with our actions." The Appeal allows each of us to do so in a way that allows thousands of people to be helped.

After prayerful reflection, I will determine the amount I'm going to contribute. Why wouldn't I want to donate? I am a beneficiary of this Appeal, for in the 1980's, as it does now, part of the collection helps run our seminary. I am thankful for the Annual Appeal helping me to get solid spiritual formation along with a good education. In the future I may receive more help from the Appeal, as part of the proceeds benefit the retirement home for priests, Regina Cleri. Who knows? One day I might be living there.

Beyond these personal reasons, though, I like knowing that my contribution benefits Catholics and non-Catholics, urban and rural dwellers, grade school children and senior citizens, and people in need of yearly assistance along with those who need help with an unexpected emergency. Like many of you I donate money to favorite causes or charities. But I also donate to this Appeal because of its far-reaching benefits. I am honored to donate in both ways.

If you have received a request to contribute to the Annual Appeal I encourage you to pray, then donate. Consider it a privilege to be part of something so important. If you did not receive a request but would like to participate, please call the parish office. We'll be glad to help you.

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is called Good Shepherd Sunday. Jesus proclaims himself a shepherd and assures us, the sheep, that he will take care of us always. Our good shepherd is no coward; our good shepherd won't run away.

One task of any shepherd is to lead the sheep to pastures where they can eat. It was the privilege of this shepherd to do that last week when I had the honor of feeding children for the first time with the Body and Blood of Christ. Pictures in this bulletin show how beautiful our First Communicants were on that day. And while we admired their appearance, Jesus looked into the souls and saw the need to feed them. This Jesus did through Holy Communion. The names of our First Communicants are:

Benjamin Bauer	Natalie Dzyonzak	Alexandra Meier	Isabella Saucier
Madison Beckerle	Ariah Galli	Logan Mueller	Jackson Schellhase
Mia Berberich	Mia Garavaglia	Josephine Nguyen	Samson Schmeidler
Charlotte Bradley	Sophia Garavaglia	Logan O'Dell	Quinn Schmidt

May God bless all of you.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - ABUNDANCE OF LIFE

How comforting it is to know that Jesus came that we may have life more abundantly. The spring is a wonderful time to observe the beauty of life present in God's creation. Plants are blooming, birds are singing, and people are more visible outdoors because of the warm weather. What does it mean to live more abundantly though? It means living as a person whom God has destined for greatness. It means that Jesus has justified us by His precious blood and called to be people of great sanctity to deposit the scent of holiness everywhere we go. The grace of justification transforms us to live more fully with hope, joy, and zealous charity for God and neighbor. Because of the life Christ gives us, we are a new creation destined for eternal glory in heaven with the Triune God.

Saint Mark, Evangelist

Feast Day, April 25

Mark has a special place among the evangelists because he was the first person to write a gospel. Up until the time Mark wrote, there was no continuous written account of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. So we can be grateful to Mark for his written gospel. Others followed his example, leaving us with four gospels altogether. However, Mark was the pioneer; he was the first to break this new ground. His gospel is the shortest of the four, but, nonetheless, it is a very powerful telling of the Jesus story. More than the other evangelists, Mark highlights that Jesus' preaching and living of the gospel challenged the status quo and brought great hostility down on his head, resulting in his crucifixion. Mark also emphasizes that being a disciple of this Jesus, living by his values, will often mean traveling the same way of the cross. Mark reminds us that living the gospel, following in the way of Jesus, is not easy; it makes demands on us; it stretches us. However, Mark also assures us that in our efforts to live the gospel, the Lord is with us to strengthen us and support us. As is said at the end of today's gospel reading, the disciples, 'going out, preached everywhere, the Lord working with them'.
