HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feast-ing after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sor-rows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrec-tion. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

The deadline for articles for the Sunday bulletin is Monday morning, 5 business days before the article appears in the bulletin. Half and full page requests are due 15 business days before publication date. This schedule changes for Holy Days and holidays.

Please send all bulletin articles to queenparish@qasstl.org.

Mission Statement

As members of Queen of All Saints Parish we are a community united in the Catholic faith, nourished by the Eucharist, and sent to make Christ known to all through word and deed.

Stewardship

"Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the Scriptures?" Luke 24:32

How often do we take the time to discern what Jesus wants from us? Are our prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for us? If so, that's a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give and take, each side listening to each other and helping each other out. Take time in silence to listen to what Jesus is asking of you.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

We ask your prayers for Joseph Detwiler, son of Mike and Mary, as he prepares to be ordained a deacon this Saturday, May 2, at 10 a.m. The ordination will be live streamed, go to cathedralstl.org/live/

Joe is a parishioner of Queen of All Saints and a graduate of our school. After the ordination Saturday Joe will return to the rectory, where he has been living during this crises, and he will preach the very first homily of his ministry at the 10:30 Mass on Sunday, the 3rd.

The new deacon is scheduled to be assigned to another parish this summer before returning to the seminary for his final year of study. God willing, Joe will be ordained a priest in May, 2021. Please keep him in your prayers.

The poem goes like this:

At first, I sat in the front;
Christ the rear.
I couldn't see Him, but I knew
He was there.
I could feel His help when the
road got steep.
Then, one day, Christ switched seats with me.
Suddenly everything went topsy-turvy.
When I was in control, the ride was predictable - even boring.
But when Jesus took over, it got wild!
I could hardly hold on.
"This is madness," I cried out,
But Christ just smiled and said, "Pedal."
And so I learned to shut up and pedal -
And trust my bike companion.
Oh, there are still times when
I get scared.
But Christ just smiles, touches my Hand -
And says, "Pedal."

I would say most of our lives are more boring than they were six weeks ago, but we most definitely are not in control. Things in the country were going well and we could go about as we pleased. Not anymore.

However, the Resurrection assures us that Christ is the victor and from now on He will be in control. We get the back seat.

And from the back seat we may cry out and voice our frustrations, worries, and complaints, and Christ will look over His shoulder and say, "Pedal." So we pedal along through these difficult and different days, through this wild ride. Topsy-turvy though it may be, we believe, we pedal.

They weren't pedaling in today's Gospel, they were walking, and Jesus came to walk with them. The lives of the disciples, including these two on the road to Emmaus, had been disrupted on a major scale. Fear and confusion ruled over them. But this One walking along the road brought insight and comfort, patiently explaining the Scriptures. Once in the house more blessings came as Christ revealed His identity in the breaking of the bread. Their walk with Christ brought knowledge, their meal with Christ brought recognition and joy.

This same Jesus Christ remains with us today. Drawing near to Him will have our hearts burning. Prayer will bring us hope. And Christ still will be looking over His shoulder, saying, "Pedal."

May God bless all of you.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You
sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

HELLO "MR. AL"

After assembling last Monday on Queen of All Saints parking lot, a car parade passed by Al Nadolny's house to say "hello" and let him know they miss seeing his smiling face at Queen of All Saints.

Later, I spoke with Mr. Al who said, "The long parade of cars with children, parents, and teachers, brought me to tears. It was a moment to remember."

"Thanks to all my dearest friends and children at Queen of All Saints for all the food they've provided for me, the cards they've made and sent, and for their love and smiles. God bless them."

PRAYER TO OUR LADY, HEALTH OF THE SICK

Virgin, most holy, Mother of the Word Incarnate, Treasurer of graces, and Refuge of sinners, I fly to your motherly affection with lively faith, and I beg of you the grace ever to do the will of God. Into your most holy hands I commit the keeping of my heart, asking you for health of soul and body, in the certain hope that you, my most loving Mother, will hear my prayer. Into the bosom of your tender mercy, this day, every day of my life, and at the hour of my death, I commend my soul and body. To you I entrust all my hopes and consolations, all my trials and miseries, my life and the end of my life, that all my actions may be ordered and disposed according to your will and that of your Divine Son. Amen.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! -
SPIRITUAL HEARTBURN AND TYPOLOGY

The disciples recounted how their hearts were burning within them when Jesus opened the Scriptures to them. One of the many beautiful elements of the Faith is Biblical typology, the fulfillment of elements of the Old Testament in the New Testament. Common examples are Noah's ark prefiguring the Church, the Flood prefiguring Baptism, and Moses prefiguring Jesus Christ. As we rejoice throughout this blessed Easter Season, let us pray with the Old Testament and see how Christ fulfills what is found in it. St. Augustine wrote, "In the Old Testament the New Testament is concealed; in the New Testament the Old Testament is revealed." Through typology we can experience spiritual heartburn, the best kind, and more fully appreciate God's plan in salvation history.
