Stewardship

"This is my commandment; love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends."

John 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

A Mother's Day story.

The young mother set her foot on the path of life. "Is the way long?" she asked of God. "Yes," the Lord replied, "it is long and the way is difficult. But the end will be better than the beginning."

The young mother was happy, and she would not believe that anything could be better than these years. So she played with her children and gathered flowers for them along the way. The sun shone on them and life was good, and the young mother exclaimed, "Nothing will ever be lovelier than this."

Then night came, and tempests tossed. The path was dark, and the children shook with fear and cold. The mother drew them close and covered them with her cloak, and the children said, "Mother, we are not afraid, for you are near." And the mother cried, "This is better than the brightness of the day, for I have taught my children courage."

Morning came and there was a hill ahead. The children climbed and grew weary, but at all times she exhorted the children, "A little patience and we are there." So the children climbed, and when they had reached the top they said, "We could not have done it without you, Mother." The mother, when she lay down that night, looked up at the stars and said, "This is a better day than the last, for my children have learned fortitude in the face of harshness."

The next day brought strange clouds that darkened the earth - clouds of war, of hate and of evil. The children groped and stumbled, and the mother shouted, "Look up! Lift your eyes to the Lord!" The children looked up and beyond the clouds they saw an Everlasting Glory. It guided them and brought them beyond the darkness, and that night the mother got down on her knees and prayed, "This is the best day of all, for I have shown my children God." The days went on, and the weeks and months and years, and the mother grew old. She was tired and bone weary. Her children were now tall and strong and walked with faith and courage. And when the way was hard, they helped their mother; when the way was tough, they lifted her and carried her. At last they came to a hill and they could see afar a shiny road and golden gates opened wide.

The mother said, "I've reached the end of my journey. Now I know that the end is better than the beginning, for my children can walk alone, and their children after them."

How blessed are we who had/have a mother like the one described above. How wonderful, to be able to experience courage and fortitude because of our mothers, and most of all - best of all - to experience God, to have insight into the presence and majesty of God.

It also has been, "If you have a mom, there is nowhere you are likely to go where a prayer has not already been." I'm sure that's true of my faithfully departed mother and I'm sure it applies to your mother, too. Furthermore, I'm convinced it applies to Mary, our Blessed Mother. I am comforted in knowing that before I leave the rectory more than one resident of Heaven has talked to God about my journey, wherever it may be. I pray you have the same comfort, also, advanced by the prayers of our Blessed Mother and your mother.

To all who have been privileged to give life to another, Happy Mother's Day. May God bless all the moms and all of us.

In Christ,

Fr. Hambrough

BABY BOTTLE DRIVE

The pro-life committee invites you to participate in the annual baby bottle drive. Empty baby bottles are being distributed this weekend and you are asked to take the bottle home and place it in a prominent place in your home for the next 6 weeks. Use the bottle as a reminder to PRAY for the protection of the unborn.

On Father's Day weekend, bring the bottle back with a donation to help support Our Lady of Guadalupe convent. The most important thing we can do for the pro-life cause is pray, and the Our Lady of Guadalupe convent is a house of prayer for women contemplating abortion.

In 2017, the St. Louis Archdiocese opened this convent directly across the street from St. Louis Planned Parenthood, the only remaining abortion facility in Missouri.

Archbishop Carlson invited two Franciscan Sisters of Christian Charity to reside there. The Archbishop believed that the best way to end abortion in our city was through prayer and witness. The mission of the sisters and the Convent is to provide a place of prayer and hospitality to those who are working the frontlines in the battle to end abortion in our community.

All are welcome to stop at the convent (4311 Forest Park) and offer your prayers in the beautiful chapel.

FROM OUR SEMINARIAN JAKE BRAUN

An Ancient Optimism

In the fourth and fifth centuries, a Christian theologian name Pelagius put forward a new and exciting notion of human nature and the life of grace. The syllogism used to arrive at his conclusion was very simple: 1. Jesus commanded Christians to be perfect as the Heavenly Father is perfect. 2. A just God would not command human beings to do something that is impossible for them to do. 3. Thus, it must be possible for man to attain salvation by his own will. The consequences of this argument are numerous, and its view of creation takes on a similarly optimistic view: Man is not broken or fallen, but simply surrounded by societies that exert negative influences; Jesus' primary mission was to be the perfect example of holiness for man, a counterexample to Adam, who sinned; The path to heaven is within our grasp, if only we would decide to take it by following Jesus' noble example. This fresh view of Christian life spread rapidly throughout the Christian world, with its inhabitants exhibiting extreme discipline and natural virtue. It is not difficult to see how such a view would be attractive in the twilight of the Roman Empire, whose moral and political decay would soon be compounded by the sacking of the Eternal City itself. Few were able to see the wolf hiding beneath the sheepskin.

Today, this view is known officially as the heresy of Pelagianism. I suspect most Americans have in fact subscribed to this view at one time or another – though not with an intent to be in error. Even a cursory glance at the culture yields an example, from

Sen. Raphael Warnock, who tweeted on Easter Sunday: “The meaning of Easter is more transcendent than the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Whether you are Christian or not, through a commitment to helping others we are able to save ourselves.” Putting aside the apparent contradiction of St. Paul’s first Letter to the Corinthians (If Christ did not rise, your faith is vain), we see in the second half of the Baptist preacher’s comment the core of Pelagianism: the claim that we are able to save ourselves. This view permeates much of modernity’s mistaken idea that utopia can be found here on earth if we just eradicate all sources of evil influence. Marxism, Nazism, and even the neo-puritanism that is invading our culture today, rest on the notion that earthly paradise is not illusory, but real and within reach. To that end, they cry out: “Tear down the statues of Washington and Jefferson! Destroy Lincoln’s memorials! No honor for slaveholders and bigots. There ought to be no record of sin or of evil to stain future generations’ minds.” Of course, this does not end with presidents; soon enough, they will find that no man leaves this world without the scars of his own sins. What happens then, I do not know. Perhaps we will realize how crazy our culture is becoming before we tip into oblivion. One thing I do know is that the Church is built on a solid foundation, and the gates of hell will not prevail against it. She has battled these errors countless times and will always win. Saints are made in times like these, and I expect to see many in my lifetime. All by the grace of God.

In Christ,
Jake Braun

ABOUT OUR LADY OF FATIMA

Our Lady of Fatima is a title of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In 1917, Our Lady appeared to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. They were Lucia Santos, Blessed Jacinta Marto and Blessed Francisco Marto. Our Lady appeared to the children seven times and performed a miracle making the sun dance in the sky, which thousands of people witnessed.

She told the children to say the Rosary every day to bring peace to the world and the end of war. This is why Our Lady of Fatima is also called Our Lady of the Rosary. She also requested us to pray the Fatima prayer after each mystery or decade of the Rosary.

This Marian Apparition was approved by the Holy See in 1930.

The Feast of Our Lady of Fatima is May 13th.

"THY WILL BE DONE"

The theme of the 2021 Annual Catholic Appeal is "Thy Will Be Done." The work of the Archdiocese of

St. Louis is made possible through the generous stewardship of Catholics who "seek to do the will of the Father — this has been mandated to us," said Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski.

The appeal funds programs such as the Rural Parish Clinic providing medical care to people in need; the Criminal Justice Ministry supporting people who are incarcerated and those returning to the St. Louis area; Catholic education assisting children with a sense of purpose and value; parish food pantries serving people who are hungry; the Catholic Deaf Ministry providing a central home for people who are deaf to receive the sacraments and faith formation; programs that teach about the respect for human life; and more "In these unprecedented times, the work of the Church continues both despite and because of the challenges we have faced this past year," Archbishop Rozanski said. "The need for our ministries is great, and the faithful have responded in heroic ways. Our unwavering faith in God's will compels us to answer His call to lift up those in need. Your generous support of the Annual Catholic Appeal provides hope and care to our brothers and sisters throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis."
