STEWARDSHIP
PENTECOST SUNDAY

*“The Advocate, the Holy Spirit who the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.”
(John 14:26)*

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words, and actions. What you put in your head, heart, and mind affects your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Today's Feast of Pentecost brings us joy as we recognize again the great gifts we receive from the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds to our hearts and lives from the Father and the Son. Christ's promise of divine presence in our life is fulfilled as the Holy Spirit descends, on that Pentecost day upon the Blessed Mother and the Apostles, on this Pentecost day upon each one of us.

In the fourth century St. Cyril of Jerusalem gave a catechetical instruction in which he said:

“The water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of Living water, welling up into eternal life.’ (John 4:14). This is a new kind of water, a living, leaping water, welling up for those who are worthy. But why did Christ call the grace of the Spirit water? Because all things are dependent on water; plants, and animals have their origin in water. Water comes down from heaven as rain, and although it is always the same in itself, it produces many different effects, one in the palm tree, another in the vine, and so on throughout the whole of creation. It does not come down, now as one thing, now as another, but while remaining essentially the same, it adapts itself to the needs of every creature that receives it.

‘In the same way the Holy Spirit, whose nature is always the same, simple and indivisible, apportions grace to each person as he wills. Like a dry tree which puts forth shoots when watered, the soul bears that fruit of holiness when repentance has made it worthy of receiving the Holy Spirit. Although the Spirit never changes, the effects of its action, by the will of the Father and the name of Christ, are both many and marvelous.

‘The Spirit makes one person a teacher of divine truth, inspires another to prophesy, gives another the power of casting out devils, enables another to interpret Holy Scripture. The Spirit strengthens one person's self-control, shows another how to help the poor, teaches another to fast and lead a life of asceticism, makes another oblivious to the need of the body, trains another for martyrdom. His action is different in different people, but the spirit himself is always the same, “In each person,” Scripture says, “the Spirit reveals his presence in a particular way for the common good.”

‘The Spirit comes gently and makes himself known by his fragrance. He is not felt as a burden, for he is light, very light. Rays of light and knowledge stream before him as he approaches. The Spirit comes with the tenderness of a true friend and protector to save, to heal, to teach, to counsel, to strengthen, to console. The Spirit comes to enlighten the mind first of the one who receives him and then through him, the minds of others as well.

‘As light strikes the eyes of a man who comes out of darkness into the sunshine and enables him to see clearly things he could not discern before, so light floods the soul of the person counted worthy of receiving the Holy Spirit and enables him to see things beyond the range of human vision, things hitherto undreamed of.”

St. John Chrysostom put it this way: “You are not only free, but also holy; not only holy, but also just; not only just, but also children; not only children, but also heirs; not only heirs, but also brothers and sisters of Christ; not only brothers and sisters, but also joint heirs; not only joint heirs, but also members; not only members, but also the temple; not only the temple, but also the instruments of the Holy Spirit.”

At Queen of All Saints we are blessed that so many people opened their hearts and answered Christ's call to be instruments of the Holy Spirit. Especially in this 50th Anniversary year, we are grateful to the spirit for animating the faith of those who have gone before us, those who made our parish a special place. St. Cyril had it right; the effects of the Holy Spirit are both many and marvelous. We've seen it throughout the world in our Catholic Church, and we've seen it here.

And we're going to see it again this week. I'm looking forward to my first Parish Picnic. I've heard so much about it and I'm happy that after a three year absence the picnic returns. Like you, I am thankful to all who are working so hard to make it a special weekend. They are instruments of the Holy Spirit.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

EXPECTANT MOTHER’S BLESSING

The “second Sunday of the month”, June 12, is the expectant mother’s blessing. This special blessing will take place following the 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses. All those expecting a child, through their pregnancy or awaiting adoption of a child, are encouraged to come for this blessing every month. As a parish, we continue to pray for the unborn babies who will soon join our congregation. Let us pray for good health and safe deliveries.

MEN OF ST. JOSEPH
QAS MEN’S PRAYER GROUP

All men of the parish are welcome to attend this prayer group whenever they’re able. We meet in the QAS church hall every Saturday morning at 6:30 a.m. for the holy Rosary and a reading/reflection on the Mass scriptures for that weekend. We close with prayer in time for the 8:15 a.m. Mass.

Questions should be directed to Ed Murphy at ejmurphy@prodigy.net or 314-623-4083.

Join us Monday-Thursday night this week from 7-9 p.m. to take part in this formative and fun week!

BABY BOTTLE COLLECTION

The annual pro life baby bottle drive continues through Father's Day weekend. Hopefully, you have your baby bottle in a prominent place and are reminded to pray for the unborn each day.

On Father's Day weekend, please bring your bottle with your donation to Mass with you. All money collected goes to LifeLine Coalition of the St. Louis Archdiocese. In 1986, Archbishop May formed LifeLine Coalition to raise awareness that pregnancy assistance services are available and to expand such services. Today, thousands of local families are helped each year through this pro life campaign. Your tax deductible donation (payable to St. Louis Archdiocese Respect Life Apostolate) will provide concrete assistance to women facing an untimely pregnancy. Last year, LifeLine Coalition dispersed the funds to: Good Shepherd Children and Family Services, six different St. Louis area Birthrights, Our Lady's Inn and Mary Queen of Angels.

Thank you for your support for LIFE, both prayers and financial.

KENRICK-GLENNON DAYS

Kenrick-Glennon Seminary is hosting Kenrick-Glennon Days (KGD) summer camp again this summer. During this camp, your sons can experience team-building activities, different aspects of the Catholic Faith, competitions in Catholic Jeopardy and the famous Water Olympics battle—and that just scratches the surface! Your sons will also attend Mass, experience various forms of prayer and sacramental life that speaks to the richness of our Catholic Faith!

Each camp is for three days and two nights. Camp One (June 13-15) is for young men who next year will be considered 6th and 7th graders. Camp Two (June 16-18) is for young men who next year will be considered 8th and 9th graders. Also, if you have a high school aged son who will be sophomore or older, he can fill out an application to stay all week to help run the camp and get service hours for doing so. If you are wondering what happens at camp, check out this promo video from a few years ago: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xMu_iK1I2yo

You may register at: Stlvocations.org/kgd

For those boys from Queen of All Saints who go to camp, Queen of All Saints will cover the cost of registration.

If you are active at only one location, this will be your "primary" location.

If you are active at more than one location, click the ADD PARISH/LOCATION button and repeat the steps above. With more than one location, please click the "This is my main/primary location" circle to indicate where you are employed or, if you are a volunteer, where most of your ministry or service is performed.

Complete your personal information. Please enter your legal first name (no nicknames) for the purpose of the background screening.

Create a username, password and password clue. (BE SURE TO SAVE THIS INFORMATION TO AVOID RE-REGISTERING. DOUBLE BACKGROUND CHECKS ARE COSTLY TO OUR PARISH!!!)

Agree to the Terms of Use and click SUBMIT.

You will then be prompted to submit information for a background screening, register for a Protecting God's Children workshop, view TWO ONLINE TRAINING MODULES and agree to the Code of Ethical Conduct. You have to complete ALL steps to complete the process.

*If you have previously attended a PGC workshop, the system will find and ask you to confirm your previous record of attendance. You will not be prompted to register for an upcoming workshop.

You may use the links in your approval checklist to access these requirements. These steps may be completed all at once or may be completed separately at your convenience. Please note: if you do not complete all modules and decide to finish at a later date, you will need your User name and Password. You will receive an automated email weekly to remind you which requirements are outstanding. When all compliance requirements have been completed, your account will be approved and you will be clear to work with minors and vulnerable adults.

Should you need any assistance, please contact ocyp@archstl.org
