STEWARDSHIP

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*“He said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...’”
Luke 10:2*

As Catholics we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given “charisms” otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God’s Church. Our charisms, can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say “yes” to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Is it possible to be simultaneously very happy and very angry? Can one at the same time rejoice and lament? I'm leaving this country next week. Should I go to another country as a proud American as one embarrassed by the words and actions of my fellow Americans?

I have all these conflicting feelings since the United States Supreme Court issued its decision in the case called Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, the case in which the Court's majority overturned the 1973 Roe v. Wade decision. The court struck down the ruling which allowed abortion in all fifty states.

Now, each individual state can decide if abortion will be legal in that state as well as determining the circumstances (eg. rape) under which an abortion may occur. As you know, some states, like Missouri, automatically outlawed abortion. Others, like Illinois, rushed to make sure abortions continued. Being on vacation when the Court announced its decision allowed me to hear discussions on various new channels (Fox, MSNBC, CNN) as well as NPR while in my car. Boy what a difference in thoughts and reactions! On one station all the commentators were overjoyed; on the others there was frustration and anger. Politicians, too, lined up on opposite sides of this issue and most of the media made sure that the angry side was heard more than the happy side. No surprise there.

I, of course, was very happy with the Supreme Court's decision and I agreed with the logic of their case. Yet, like you I'm sure, I found my heart breaking and my temper boiling as I listened to one person after another voice both their objections to the decision and their determination to insure that abortions are available to those who want them. I kept asking, "Are babies that bad? Is it a terrible thing when a baby is born?" Additionally, I found it distressing as so many people continued to demand abortions be available while completely ignoring the responsibility of the one who had conceived this child, and the one who helped her do it. I found their attitude very patronizing, as if they were saying, "All women are too stupid to know where babies come from, therefore, we must make abortion available." How sad is that?

One person who appeared on several news stations was Jeanne Mancini, President of the March for Life. The point she always made, even in the face of withering opposition, was that the Pro-Life people are for woman-and for the child. We respect the rights of women, she said, while also respecting the rights of the unborn child. We respect both, she insisted.

Isn't that the way it's supposed to be? Yet, in our country, and sadly, around the world, there are those who would say, "We respect the woman. Her unborn child? Maybe, maybe not. The life of the woman and her desires are important. Her unborn child? Maybe, maybe not. One person should receive all the protections the law allows. The other person? Maybe, maybe not."

This weekend the United States celebrates one of its biggest holidays, Independence Day. Many Americans will gather to celebrate and declare that the U.S.A. is the greatest country on earth but are we great-ever, when one group gets all the rights afforded, and the other group? Maybe, maybe not. Were we great when white people had freedom, but black people? Maybe, but usually not? Were we great when pioneers and settlers had freedom to do what they wanted but Native Americans? Well, maybe, but usually not? Were we proud that during World War II most Americans had freedom, but not Japanese Americans. Should we ever want to live in a country where some can do as they please while others, like the unborn, exist only on the decision of another. "If this person created, then I will be born and I will see it. If this person wants me not to see the world God made then my body will be torn to shreds before I'm born and I won't see it." How can we be a great country if both of these choices are permissible?

Jesus in today's Gospel sends his disciples forth to speak of the Kingdom with the understanding that they know "It's not about you." That's basically his instruction; don't pack a lot of stuff, don't worry about your accommodations-it's not about you. For so many people in our nation's history that was how they lived. It wasn't about them. It was about you and me. It was about preserving a nation that has so many benefits that make our life better. I'm sorry that this Court decision brings out the fury of so many who want it to be only about the unborn child who will never get to see the goodness present in these United States.

One of our parish staff retired last week. For several years Jan Schroeder has worked in the parish office. She made sure all our volunteers completed the programs necessary to protect God's children and she answered the phone and the door, always in a warm and friendly way. She was a great asset to the parish and she will be missed.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

SACRED HEART OF JESUS

The devotion to the Sacred Heart is one of the most widely practiced and well-known Catholic devotions, wherein the heart of Jesus is viewed as a symbol of “God’s boundless and passionate love for mankind.”

This year the Feast of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is celebrated on June 24, 2022.

NOVENA TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

O most holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore Thee. I love Thee and with a lively sorrows for my sins, I offer Thee this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to thy will. Grant, good Jesus, that I may live in Thee and for Thee. Protect me in the midst of danger; comfort me in my afflictions; give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, Thy blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Within Thy Heart I place my every care. In every need let me come to Thee with humble trust saying, Heart of Jesus help me.

DAILY OFFERING TO JESUS THROUGH THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and suffering of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world.

I offer them for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sins, the reunion of all Christians;

I offer them for the intentions of our Bishops and all Apostles of Prayer and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

A SOLEMN ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

Most Holy Virgin Mary, tender Mother of men, to fulfill the desires of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the request of the Vicar of Your Son on earth, we consecrate ourselves and our families to your Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart, O Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, and we recommend to You, all the people of our country and all the world.

Please accept our consecration, dearest Mother, and use us as you wish to accomplish Your designs in the world.

O Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, and Queen of the World, rule over us, together with the Sacred Heart of Jesus Christ, Our King. Save us from the spreading flood of modern paganism; kindle in our hearts and homes the love of purity, the practice of a virtuous life an ardent zeal for souls and a desire to pray the Rosary more faithfully.

We come with confidence to You, O Throne of Grace and Mother of Fair Love. In flame us with the same Divine Fire which has inflamed Your own Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart. Make our hearts and homes Your shrine, and through us, make the Heart of Jesus, together with your rule, triumph in every heart and home.

Amen.
