FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’”

Luke 10:37

This was Jesus’ command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don’t like. All without expecting anything in return.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Many years ago a poor man travelled into town to earn money to celebrate the approaching Feast of Easter. He worked hard at various jobs, and having been paid, he purchased many items that would be used to rejoice in the Lord's Resurrection, plenty of trinkets with which the children could play and plenty of food for his family and friends to enjoy.

He left the town after nightfall, steering his horse and the wagon laden with purchases. Unfortunately, the horse and wagon fell into a pit made swampy by the spring rains. A rich man passing by heard the poor man's cries, and ordered his own servants to extricate the poor man. The rich man even pitched in to help. It took a mighty effort, first to tie ropes from the wagon to the carriage, then to pull out the wagon and calm the poor man's now-skittish horse. Working together, though, they prevailed, and the rich man insisted on accompanying the poor man to his home, lest another accident occur.

When they arrived, the rich man was aghast at the poverty he beheld. He then resolved to add much to the poor man's purchases, not only to celebrate Easter Day, but also to lift the whole family, indeed the whole village, from such poverty. Huge was the sum of money he gave them.

When this wealthy man died and was brought before the Heavenly tribunal, it was assumed that his generosity toward the poor man and his family would vault the rich man right into Paradise, but, no. for this man had become wealthy by cheating many people. He withheld fair wages from his workers and swindled his neighbors. He had refused to pay his taxes and had never donated funds to any charity. This man, the tribunal declared, deserved to spend eternity in punishment.

Suddenly, an Angel of Mercy appeared and asked that the heavenly scales be used to determine whether the worth of his good deeds outweighed all those sins. When consent was given, the Angel placed in the scale of good deeds the poor man and his family whom the rich man had helped. It was not enough and the scales leaned toward punishment. Then the Angel put on the scale all the neighbors of the poor man. Not enough. Then the Angel added the weight of the horse and wagon pulled from the spot. Still not enough. Finally, the Angel placed on the scale the mire and mud out of which the rich man had helped rescue everybody, and at last the scales tilted in his favor and the rich man was saved from punishment. Ah, one never knows the importance of helping one another, particularly those who cannot help themselves.

Today's well-known Gospel of the Good Samaritan emphasizes this importance. It would have been easy, and in the minds of his fellow Samaritans, understandable, if he passed by the robbery victim. Even the man's fellow Jews had done so! But this Samaritan was a man of compassion and kindness and he went to extraordinary lengths to help the beating victim. His actions in the story allow Jesus to teach about the compassion all disciples should have. Such care mimics the care of Jesus for all of us and prompts Jesus to command that we "go and do likewise." May we do just that, for we don't want to need an Angel of Mercy to have to dump mud on a scale for us to get to Heaven. Our compassion for one another should make that unnecessary.

We're just three weeks away from our 50th Anniversary celebration. Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski will offer the 5:00 p.m. Mass on Saturday, July 30, followed by a dinner and video presentation at Royale Orleans. Tickets are still available. I hope to see you there.

As I mentioned in my homily last week, I will be leaving for Ireland on Thursday. It's been three years since I was last there and I'm looking forward to visiting my aunts and cousins. It's always good to be with family. Please pray for a safe journey. Know that I will be praying for you. I will return late on Sunday, July 24.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

CATECHISTS NEEDED!

The Parish School of Religion (PSR) at Queen of All Saints is in need of catechists for the 2022-2023 school year. The success of our religious education program depends on the dedicated individuals of our parish who are willing to share their time and faith with our children! Our PSR program meets on Wednesday evening from 6:00 p.m. - 7:15 p.m. and a stipend is offered. We are in need of catechists for the following grades:

- 1 first grade catechist
- 1 second grade catechist
- 2 fifth grade catechists

If you are interested in serving our parish in this way, or would like more information, please contact:

Leanne Bubeck, at leannebuback@gmail.com

Or

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE!
It's not Complicated

Did you ever notice that the scholars of the law, the Pharisees and the Sadducees always tried to make things complicated in order to test Jesus? Whenever they did this, what did Jesus do? He asked them a question, told them a simple story or gave them a simple answer. For instance, in today's Gospel reading a scholar asked Jesus how he could receive eternal life. Jesus answered, "What is written in the law?" This was a simple question for the scholar to answer correctly himself and he did. When the scholar tried to complicate it more by asking who is my neighbor, Jesus shared the story of the Good Samaritan. Many times in our lives we do the same thing as the scholar. We make things complicated without even realizing it and we search for answers from Jesus that He has really already answered for us but we missed it because we were looking for a complicated answer. As Moses shared with the Israelites in the first reading, "this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious or remote for you." This week would be a great time for us to reflect on the questions, "For what answers am I searching?" And "Has Jesus already answered it and I missed it?"

IF YOU MISS A STEP, YOU WILL RECEIVE AN EMAIL FROM THE SAFETY COORDINATOR TO COMPLETE THE PROCESS!!!

Go to <https://www.preventandprotectstl.org>

Enter the passcode stlprotect when prompted.

Select the type of location where you are a volunteer or employee.

- *Parish or Parish School
- *Non-Parish School or Program
- *Archdiocesan Agency
- *Non-Archdiocesan Organization

Select the specific location by name. (ex. Queen of All Saints)

Click the roles associated with your employment/service at that location.

If you are active at only one location, this will be your "primary" location.

If you are active at more than one location, click the ADD PARISH/LOCATION button and repeat the steps above. With more than one location, please click the "This is my main/primary location" circle to indicate where you are employed or, if you are a volunteer, where most of your ministry or service is performed.

Complete your personal information. Please enter your legal first name (no nicknames) for the purpose of the background screening.

Create a username, password and password clue. ****(BE SURE TO SAVE THIS INFORMATION TO AVOID RE-REGISTERING. DOUBLE BACKGROUND CHECKS ARE COSTLY TO OUR PARISH!!!)

Agree to the Terms of Use and click SUBMIT.

You will then be prompted to submit information for a background screening, register for a **Protecting God's Children workshop, view TWO ONLINE TRAINING MODULES and agree to the Code of Ethical Conduct. You have to complete ALL steps to complete the process.

**If you have previously attended a PGC workshop, the system will find and ask you to confirm your previous record of attendance. You will not be prompted to register for an upcoming workshop.

You may use the links in your approval checklist to access these requirements. These steps may be completed all at once or may be completed separately at your convenience. Please note: if you do not complete all modules and decide to finish at a later date, you will need your User name and Password. You will receive an automated email weekly to remind you which requirements are outstanding. When all compliance requirements have been completed, your account will be approved and you will be clear to work with minors and vulnerable adults.

Should you need any assistance, please contact ocyp@archstl.org
