Stewardship

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick - no food, no sack, no money in their belts." Mark 6:8

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God's providential care. Think of all the material things "we can't live without? In today's world. We make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don't become "slaves" to wanting to acquire more things.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

There once was an important football game between two fierce rivals. One team had an obvious advantage in height and weight and they had used well this advantage, having controlled the game for nearly four quarters. Their much smaller opponent had absorbed many vicious blocks and tackles and their bodies had the bruises to prove it. Yet they had one advantage - speed. They were the faster team, particularly Calhoun, the fastest player on the field. As the game neared its conclusion, Calhoun was his team's only hope.

The coach talked with his quarterback about giving the ball to Calhoun and letting him run with it. The coach was excited as the first play unfolded, but Calhoun did not get the ball. The second play was singled in for Calhoun, but again he did not get the ball. Now the game was in its last minute and the smaller team's only hope was for Calhoun to get the ball and blaze by the bigger, lumbering opponent and score the winning touchdown. Astonishingly, Calhoun did not get the ball. Finally, it was fourth down, the last chance, and the coach adamantly sent in the play, insisting Calhoun be given the ball. Alas, the ball was snapped, the quarterback was sacked, and the game was lost. The speedy Calhoun never got the ball.

The coach was livid. "I told you," he screamed at the quarterback, "to give Calhoun the ball. Why didn't you?" The quarterback stood his ground. "We tried, Coach," he insisted, "but the problem was Calhoun did not want the ball."

Given a choice, the prophet Amos would have liked to have been like Calhoun. "This isn't my idea!" he might have shouted at the priest Amaziah, "I didn't want to be here."

God is not pleased with the Northern Kingdom of Israel and the wicked king, Jeroboam. This monarch has built a temple in Bethel, thus allowing people to refuse to worship at God's temple in Jerusalem. God decides to send a shepherd and gardener named Amos, rather than a known prophet, to denounce the temple and people of Bethel. This was not a task Amos sought nor a trip north he wanted to take. "This was not my idea!" obedient to God, though, the new prophet speaks boldly to the people with a stinging rebuke of their way of life. One very unhappy with Amos was the priest of Bethel, Amaziah. In today's First Reading, he attempts to chase Amos away, falsely accusing Amos of being a man whose sole purpose was to extort money from the king, a person who would indeed disappear if paid enough. Amos insists he is not a false prophet nor a scheming prophet. He's not a prophet at all. "I was down south watching my sheep and taking care of my sycamores when the Lord called me and sent me up here," he might have said. "This is not my idea!" I'm sure he did say. Unlike Calhoun, however, Amos did what he was told.

The same Lord calls each one of us and the same Jesus Christ sends us forth, just as Jesus did in today's Gospel. Amos was hesitant to make the trip north and I'm sure the Twelve were concerned as they walked away from Jesus, especially since Jesus didn't allow them to take extra provisions. But away they went. That kind of trust is what Jesus expects of us. We may not think we're holy enough or smart enough or well-prepared for our task. But Jesus thinks we're ready.

You see, the Lord is really good at that, picking one person or two and helping the one chosen to complete the task. Amos was sent to Bethel. Six pairs of Apostles were sent around Israel. We're sent around the archdiocese and beyond. And, by gosh, we will go, for our name is Christian, not Calhoun.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

LET'S PLAY CARDS

Come one, come all! There will be cards, dominos, or any game you want to play, in the Church Hall on Wednesday, July 14, 12:00 noon until 2:30 p.m.

It's free, and cake, coffee, and tea will be served. Make it a Special Day. Bring your spouse, a friend, or a shut-in.

The only time cards will be cancelled on the 2nd Wednesday of each month is if there is a Funeral Luncheon in the Hall.

Eventually, we'll put together a schedule, but if a youngster would like to serve Mass, he/she can come to the sacristy and see if help is needed. Please try to be there at least ten minutes before Mass. Your service will be appreciated.

Hygiene Kits for the Poor

The Queen of All Saints St. Vincent de Paul Society is branching out in a different way to help the Poor! The Homeless are in grave need of hygiene packets because they are unable to bathe regularly without the convenience of living in a residence.

Travel size toothpaste
Toothbrush
Travel size shampoo
Purse size Kleenex/tissue
