HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Mission Statement

As members of Queen of All Saints Parish we are a community united in the Catholic faith, nourished by the Eucharist, and sent to make Christ known to all through word and deed.

Stewardship

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." Romans 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

An eight year-old boy approached the elderly man in front of a wishing well, looked up to his eyes, and said, "I understand you're a very wise man. I'd like to know the secret of life."

The old man looked down with kindness and replied, "I've thought about that a lot in my lifetime and I think the secret of life can be summed up in four words.

"The first is Think. Think about the values by which you wish to live your life.

"The second is Believe. Believe in yourself based on the thinking you've done about those values by which you're going to live your life.

"The third is Dream. Dream about the things that can be, based on your belief in yourself and the values by which you're going to live your life.

"The last is Dare. Dare to make your dreams become reality, based on your belief in yourself and your values."

Thus was the advice given to a young boy by a guy named Walt Disney - Think, Believe, Dream and Dare.

I'm sure Jesus would agree with Walt Disney, especially with the necessity of concentrated focus that lies beneath the surface of the elderly man's advice. Christ in today's Gospel holds up as praiseworthy the one who is willing to search diligently for the buried treasure or the fine pearl. Follow the example of this one, Jesus would say, who dreams of something special and dares to sell every possession in order to grasp that dream. The Kingdom of Heaven is that important to disciples of Jesus Christ.

Today's Gospel concludes a section in St. Matthew's Gospel wherein Jesus has been using parables to teach about the Kingdom of God, parables that we've heard the past two Sundays, along with today. The Kingdom is like seed scattered by the sower: the seed brings forth a harvest thirty or sixty or a hundredfold; the seed brings forth good wheat which will persevere among the weeds; the small seed grows into the largest of bushes. Today we learn that the Kingdom is better than the largest of treasures or the finest of pearls. Jesus is doing his best to hammer home the importance of the Kingdom of Heaven.

When finished - as today's Gospel records - Jesus asked a simple question, "Do you understand all these things?" The disciples answered that they did understand. Do we? May our actions and words give evidence that we have said "yes" to the question of Jesus. May we inform the world by our faith that we know the secret of life, and it's the Kingdom of Heaven, about which we are willing to Think, Believe, Dream and Dare.

The greatest treasure we can have on earth is the Body and Blood of Christ. As it was last weekend, so it is today our privilege to witness our younger parishioners receive their First Holy Communion. May God bestow his goodness and love to them through this Blessed Sacrament. May these First Communicants - and each one of us - always cherish the wonderful gift of the Eucharist.

May God bless you always,

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the Annual Catholic Appeal?

Since 1976, the Annual Catholic Appeal has been a unified effort in which all parishioners are asked to provide critical, financial support to more than thirty diocesan ministries running more effectively at the diocesan level than at the individual parishes. Appeal funds are the major financial source available to underwrite operating costs of these ministries.

Why is it important for me to support the Annual Catholic Appeal?

Your participation helps those whose needs are the greatest, the poor, the vulnerable, those on the margin of our society. Your gift demonstrates your commitment to Catholic education and the fight of the unborn; it supports those who are ill, imprisoned and dying; and helps to strengthen struggling families as well as offers counseling to the grieving and the addicted enabling thousands of individuals and families throughout the diocese make positive changes to improve their lives.

You may mail your donation card back to the Archdiocese, or donate through their website, ACA.ARCHSTL.ORG, or go through the online giving link on the Queen of all Saints website, QASSTL.ORG.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

Jesus Christ applies beautiful parables to describe the kingdom of Heaven to His disciples and emphasizes the truth that nothing is as precious as our heavenly homeland. Nothing is too important not to let go of on earth in order that we attain eternal beatitude with God. Heaven is the pearl of greatest price on which we must fix our eyes as we journey through this vale of tears. We experience many distractions, especially in our culture today, such as an inordinate appreciation of wealth, prestige, honor, fame, and status. How often we care too much about sports, our grades, our jobs, or the latest technology. Simplify. Simplify. Simplify. There is only one thing that matters. Are we willing to seek above all else the Kingdom of Heaven? Matthew 6:33

Queen of all Saints Youth Ministry is planning a summer retreat in August. More details are coming, but please mark your calendars!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Tuesday

8:45 a.m. - 7:00 p.m.

The biggest reason we volunteer to cover a specific hour of Eucharistic Adoration is that the Divine Physician has come down from heaven to shower us with His graces and heal us. As St. Ignatius of Antioch said: "There is one Physician who is possessed both of flesh and spirit; both made and not made; God existing in flesh; true life in death; both of Mary and of God; first passible and then impassible, even Jesus Christ our Lord."

All parishioners are encouraged to come and spend time in prayer in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ.

REST IN PEACE

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Charlotte Borgmann, wife of Carl Borgmann of our parish.

May God welcome her home and comfort her family in their time of sorrow.

The St. Louis Review and Catholic St. Louis received a combined 13 awards from the Catholic Press Association, announced July 2 at a virtual awards ceremony. The annual Catholic Media Conference, to be held this year in Portland, Oregon, was cancelled because of the coronavirus pandemic.

The judges said that the paper has a "lively presentation, Standout photography, Well-organized layout and presentation, Good writing ..."

GREAT TIME TO REGISTER FOR PREVENT AND PROTECT STL

NEW SAFE ENVIRONMENT REQUIREMENTS AT NO COST TO YOU!

PLEASE NOTE

Due to the pandemic, the Archdiocesan Office has started offering a Zoom Live Session of the original, mandatory Protecting God's Children Workshop to first time people while the stay-at-home and social distancing orders are in place. They will continue to add Zoom classes as needed. This is yet another reason to register now in the new system, Prevent and Protect STL, while you may have some time on your hands. If you need assistance, feel free to call me at home at 314-221-3352 or email me at schroederj@qasstl.org.

The Archdiocese of St. Louis has developed a new system for safe environment compliance called Prevent and Protect STL. EVERYONE (clergy, employees, and volunteers) ministering to minors and vulnerable adults in the Archdiocese are required and asked to register in the new system ASAP. This includes those new to service and those who are currently in service. For those who have already attended a Protecting God's Children workshop, your previous training date will transfer to this new system. However, in addition to attending a live Protecting God's Children workshop, all clergy, volunteers, and employees will register for an updated background screening, view two new online training modules on abuse reporting and the Code of Ethical Conduct, and agree to the updated Code of Ethical Conduct. Please read all instructions before beginning. Please allow about 1 hour of your time to complete ALL modules. (You may log in and out at your convenience, if desired.)

Please go to www.preventandprotectstl.org to register. Enter the pass code, stlprotect, when prompted. Contact your parish Child Safety Coordinator, Jan Schroeder, 314-846-8207, or schroederj@qasstl.org, with any questions or for further assistance.
