EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."

Luke 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; becoming more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

An anonymous storyteller once spoke of an old man who lived quietly and contently in a cabin in the woods. He was beloved by the people of the town. His door was always open to anyone in need; he taught generations of children the wonders of the woods and streams and pond.

One day the old man was approached by a group of businessmen. A vein of valuable copper had been discovered on his plot of land. They wanted to buy his property. Money, though, meant nothing to the old man; he just wanted to live in peace in his little cabin. He declined their offer. A fortune was to be made here, they argued, as well as many jobs for the people in the town. The old man, however, would not budge.

When people heard about the copper and the prosperity it would bring their town, they turned on the old man. Their anger grew to a dangerous level and they threatened their former friend, "Unless you are out of this place by sunset, we will drag you out!"

Sunset came, and the old man was still in his cabin. When the mob came to the cabin, they were met by the old man's priest.

"The old man realizes he is going to die before this is over," Father told them, "and he asked me to come out on his behalf and read you his last will and testament."

The crowd fell silent while impatiently waiting for the priest to get on with it. Deliberately, Father began to read from a sheet of paper.

"I leave my fishing rod to you, Pete," Father read from the old man's will. "You caught your first bass with it when you were seven. I leave my rifle to you, Clem. I remember who I taught you to shoot with it. I leave my tin whistle to you, Sarah, grateful for all the beautiful melodies you would play on it."

And the list went on. The old man left his few possessions - his leather boots, his knife, his frying pan, his worn Bible - to the person whom it would mean the most.

One by one, the townsfolk hung their heads in shame and returned to their homes in the silence of the night.

Today's Gospel challenges us to consider just what it is that we consider true wealth. Is it a lot of possessions? A life of ease and comfort? Or is it something more? More special? More inspiring? More sacred?

I'm constantly reminded of my personal wealth every time I go to Ireland. And it's not because I can afford to buy a ticket, stay in a bed-and-breakfast, or buy a round at a pub. No, it's the people. Living on the other side of the Atlantic from most of my relatives makes me appreciate more their hospitality and friendship. It's that "absence makes the heart grow fonder" kind of thing. Being able to see my aunts or my cousins only every three or four years makes me cherish our relationships that much more and allows me to be grateful to have such wonderful people in my life. Truly, they are treasures. So, while there might be other uses for the few thousand dollars I just spent on going over there, like investing the money or, like the guy in the Gospel, putting it in barns so that my life would be more comfortable, I find it better to use my treasures to discover again the treasure that is my family, both those with whom I travel and those we go to see.

On this special weekend celebrating this great parish's Fiftieth Anniversary I appreciate once more the many people who didn't stick their talents, time or resources into a barn, but instead used them to make QAS an extraordinary place, a place where God is praised and God's love is shared in many, many ways. Mary, our Mother and Queen, has been there all along, praying for us constantly. We are grateful to her.

I am grateful to Archbishop Rozanski coming to our parish to celebrate a special Mass for our Anniversary and to our 50th Anniversary committee for their work in making this a special weekend, a treasure whose value cannot be measured.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS TO HOLD THIRD RACHEL'S VINEYARD RETREAT SEPTEMBER 16-18, 2022

Men, women, and couples wounded by abortion are invited to attend the third archdiocesan Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreat, Sept. 16-18, 2022. Rachel's Vineyard, offered through the Archdiocese of St. Louis Abortion Healing Ministry, has helped 320,000-plus women and men globally since its founding in 1993 by psychologist Dr. Theresa Burke (see <https://rachelvineyard.org/>).

The retreat will be held in a comfortable and prayerful setting in the St. Louis area, with proper COVID-19 precautions in place (exact location shared at registration). The cost is $100 to attend which includes two night's lodging, all meals and materials. To register by September 6 or for more information, contact 314.406.0815 or hopehealing@archstl.org. All information and inquiries are kept confidential.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Rock Steady Boxing STL-Fenton is a not for profit exercise program for Parkinson's Patients. Volunteers are needed to assist the "Boxers" as they work through the exercise circuits. Contact Mary LeGrand at 314-406-3678 for more information.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

First, let's all celebrate the important victory for life—the end of federally mandated protection for abortion.

Second, the end of abortion is not complete, however. Abortion is still legal in many states, including our neighboring states of Illinois and Kansas.

Planned Parenthood St. Louis is still open and serving as a logistics center for the abortion industry. We know that they are continuing to give STD testing, prescribing morning after pills, and referring women to Planned Parenthood in Fairview Heights, Illinois—less than 30 miles from St. Louis.

Let's all pray for the closing of our local Planned Parenthood. Join your fellow parishioners on Saturday, October 8th between 7 am and 7 pm as we engage in a peaceful and prayerful vigil. Sign up to pray for one hour—just one hour—in front of Planned Parenthood, 4251 Forest Park Blvd.

To sign up, please call, text or email Kevin Niewoehner, (314) 488-6307, kevinniewoehner@sbcglobal.net

QAS Parents in Prayer

A Monthly Rosary for Our Day School & PSR Community

Why is saying the rosary important? Catholics use the rosary to pray to God through the intercession of Mary. With the prayers of the rosary, we ask Mary to pray for us and to guide us by the example of her son, Jesus. The prayers of the rosary are simple, meaningful, and they bring us peace.

Who can participate? We invite our entire parish community to come together and pray for our day school and PSR communities, even if you do not have children in the day school or PSR. If you are new to the devotion, we will have easy to follow guides for saying the rosary available and children are welcome to participate, as well! Bring your rosary if you have one, but we will have extras available. It takes less than 20 minutes to pray the rosary.

When and where will this event take place? Except for the month of August, QAS Parents in Prayer will be held on the first Sunday of the month at 10:00 am. We will meet in front of the school (weather permitting) or inside the church by the statue of Mary. A specific location will be announced prior to each month's meeting. Meeting dates are:
