Stewardship

“Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not.” Exodus 16:4

When the Israelites gathered more than their daily portion of manna, the surplus became wormy and rotten. In the same way today, self-reliance, pride and ego leads to hoarding and excessive surplus of goods and money. Living a stewardship lifestyle helps us discern our “wants” from our “needs”. Living a grateful and generous lifestyle reminds us that God will provide all that we need and that we have plenty to share.

FROM OUR PAROCHIAL VICAR

Dear Parishioners,

Over the past two weeks at daily Mass, we have been reading through one of my favorite stories of the Old Testament: the release of the Israelites from slavery in Egypt, and the struggle in the desert immediately following. When God encountered Moses in the burning bush in Exodus 3:7-8, He revealed that He has heard the cries of Israel, and that He will come to save them. The Lord called Moses, who committed the sin of murder just one chapter earlier, to such a lofty mission to free the chosen people from slavery. Sure enough, the Lord worked many mighty deeds and brought about the plagues to free Israel. As if that wasn't enough, God divided the Red Sea and allowed Israel to escape the Egyptians. Through the miracles He worked, God's saving power was made evidently clear.

The irony in all this is that even that was not enough for the people of Israel. As soon as they pass through the Red Sea and were in the desert, the complaining began.... In Exodus 16:3 they said to Moses, "would that we had died at the Lord's hand in the land of Egypt, as we sat by our fleshpots and ate our fill of bread! But you had to lead us into this desert to make the whole community die of famine!" How soon we forget all that God has done for us! The Israelites were so weak that they didn't even recognize the holes in their logic. As you "ate your fill of bread"? Do you mean, while you were still slaves? The people of Israel were so concerned with the immediate need in front of their faces, they forgot the great miracles that God had worked to bring them to this point. Not to mention later in Exodus 32: 1-6, when Moses was up on Mount Sinai and the Israelites grew impatient and began worshipping a golden calf. Even though they were technically "free" from slavery in Egypt, the people were still suffering under the bonds of a different type of slavery: idolatry. God always draws His people deeper, and He will not stop until He frees them even from this type of slavery.

I would consider this one of my favorite stories of the Old Testament because I can closely relate to this story. It is easy to read this story and just think, "Those stupid Israelites! Just remember what God did for you and be grateful. It is not that difficult." But, how often do I forget all the great works God has done to bring me to that point? How often do I get so caught up in the concerns right in front of me and forget all the great works God has done! I know it is easy to recall that God is good in general terms, but the Lord invites us to reflect on His goodness in the particulars. How has God freed you from the bonds of sin? How has God gone to great lengths to show you His love? We can see many instances of this in the Scriptures, but what about in your own life? Because, if God really is all-powerful and all-loving, then His Love and His saving work are not just limited to the Scriptures. He greatly desires to manifest His personal Love for you in the events of your life as well. God loves to work in the minor details, that are so easy to miss if we aren't aware. We can also be confident that, although God can work in miraculous and dramatic ways, like He did with Israel in the book of Exodus, He also labors to love you in the ordinary events of your daily life. This week, I would invite you to take some quiet time in prayer and reflect on the particular ways in which God has labored to love you in your life. We recognize that no matter what, He will never abandon us—just like He was loyal to the unfaithful children of Israel. Looking forward to serving all of you!

Fr. Detwiler

OUR LADY OF FATIMA

During the First World War (1917), the Blessed Virgin appeared to three shepherd children near Fatima, in Portugal, about 60 miles from Lisbon. Her six visits began in May and ended in October, the month of the Rosary. She requested the daily recitation of the Rosary, penance, and devotion to her Immaculate Heart.

At Fatima, our Heavenly Mother identified the cause of the difficulties of today's world as its rejection of God - in a single word, sin. She told us that the solution to our problems lay in the conversion of sinners - in our returning to God, and in accepting the mission of praying for the conversion of sinners, helping them to avoid the fate of eternal loss. Unless and until sufficient numbers of people return to God matters will only worsen. Souls will continue to be lost and wars and civil disturbance will continue. Our Heavenly Mother has assured us that in the end her Immaculate Heart will triumph.

SAY "YES" TO OUR LADY

HOW TO LIVE THE FATIMA MESSAGE:

1. Daily Offering of Sacrifices in Reparation for Sin and Conversion of Sinners

Offer up each day the sacrifices demanded by the duties required of your state in life, as well as whatever hardships and difficulties God permits in your life.

2. The Daily Rosary

The blessed Mother requested the daily Rosary at each of the six apparitions, in reparation for sin, the conversion of sinners, and especially for world peace.

3. Devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Consecrate yourself to Jesus through the Immaculate Heart of Mary and wear the brown Scapular as a sign of your consecration.

4. Practice the First Saturday Communion of Reparation

On December 10, 1925, Our Lady requested this devotion to Sister Lucia while she was at the Dorothean Convent, on five consecutive months with the intention of making reparation for the blasphemies against her Immaculate Heart. The essential elements of the practice of the First Saturday Devotion are:

- Go to Confession (May be 8 days before or after)
- Receive Holy Communion
- Pray five decades of the Rosary
- Meditate for 15 minutes on the mysteries of the Rosary
- The above exercises should be performed on the first Saturday of five consecutive months with the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - The Bread of Life

"Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." We have heard this so many times before that many of us don't give it a second thought. But, imagine if you heard this for the first time, what would your reaction be? For some, there is immediate disbelief, it isn't logical and they can't get beyond their own limited human thinking. For others, they have known Jesus and are one of his disciples, yet they can't comprehend what Jesus is offering. For some, they can comprehend what He is offering, but are not willing to undergo the transformation needed to be fully committed. And for some, their faith was so strong that they were willing to die for it. Starting today, stop taking the Eucharist for granted. Recognize the tremendous gift that we are given - we become tabernacles of the Lord every time we participate in Holy Communion. Share the joy of your friendship with the Holy Trinity with others and encourage them to invite the Lord into their hearts and bodies.

IF YOU MISS A STEP, YOU WILL RECEIVE AN EMAIL FROM THE SAFETY COORDINATOR TO COMPLETE THE PROCESS!!!

Go to <https://www.preventandprotectstl.org>

Click "Register" below the LOG IN button (image at right).

If you are active at more than one location, click the ADD PARISH/LOCATION button and repeat the steps above. With more than one location, please click the "This is my main/primary location" circle to indicate where you are employed or, if you are a volunteer, where most of your ministry or service is performed.

Complete your personal information. Please enter your legal first name (no nicknames) for the purpose of the background screening.

**If you have previously attended a PGC workshop, the system will find and ask you to confirm your previous record of attendance. You will not be prompted to register for an upcoming workshop.

You may use the links in your approval checklist to access these requirements. These steps may be completed all at once or may be completed separately at your convenience. Please note: if you do not complete all modules and decide to finish at a later date, you will need your User name and Password. You will receive an automated email weekly to remind you which requirements are outstanding. When all compliance requirements have been completed, your account will be approved and you will be clear to work with minors and vulnerable adults.
