STEWARDSHIP

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last."

Luke 13:30

Our cultural standards are different from God's standards. We often rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards. When God asks you, "What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?" How will you respond?

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

To prepare for battle in Europe during World War II, two privates participating in war games were assigned the mission of guarding a bridge and they were ordered to stay there until relieved.

The two were new to the army but determined to be good soldiers so they went to the bridge, took up positions at opposite ends and guarded it...and guarded it...and guarded it. They held their positions for three days and nights, with neither food nor blankets, and very little sleep. They were eventually found rather than “relieved.” You see, the two were guarding the wrong bridge! They had lost their way and had taken positions on a bridge several miles away from their assigned bridge. One might suppose they were reprimanded for making such a mistake. On the contrary, they were given military honors for guarding their position with such faithfulness.

Such is the kind of faithfulness Jesus demands in today’s Gospel. It would be tempting to act like those in the story who cry out, “Lord, open the door for us...we ate and drank in your company and you taught in our streets.” Which means, of course, that we saw you, Jesus, and we heard you, Jesus, but we didn’t trust you or follow you, Jesus. Now, however, we expect you, Jesus, to listen as we shout - or scream, “open the door for us,” for, after all, Jesus should do what we tell him.

“Sorry,” the Lord would say. Faith and discipleship is a lot more than that. It requires more than noticing Jesus or listening for a while. It calls for, even demands, obedience and commitment, the kind of commitment shown in the story above. One can imagine the two soldiers wondering, discussing, pondering, “where’s our relief? Should we leave? Are we in the right spot?” Yet despite such questions and doubts they remained faithful to their posts and followed their orders. It surely was difficult to be there for three days. But the difficulties went away and the rewards came.

As you read the Archbishop’s letter in today’s bulletin and also the article with questions and answers about the All Things New initiative, you may be thinking that difficult days lie ahead of us and you may be considering your response to whatever plans may be announced. As the Archbishop’s letter says, the priests were informed two days ago about the first round of preliminary plans for the parishes in the Archdiocese (as indicated in the letter, plans for parish and diocesan schools will be published later at a still unknown date). Now that the priests have heard these plans, it becomes our task, as individuals or as groups representing various areas of the Archdiocese, to forward suggestions to Archbishop Rozanski and his advisors about what we think would be helpful for the future. Once those suggestions have been accepted or denied, then another round of plans will be promulgated to parishioners, and their suggestions, or approval, will be gathered. This process will be occurring throughout the autumn. As mentioned in this column previously, final plans for the Archdiocese will be announced on Pentecost Sunday, 2023.

I can tell you this much: expect larger parishes, both in number and area. Right now, the Diocese has been divided into 15 areas and one major task is to ascertain how many priests will be available in 10-15 years to serve a given area. For instance, if an area now has 18 priests, what can be done when there are only 13 priests? If another area currently has 14 priests, what’s to be done in ten years when there are just seven priests? Among other matters, these are the topics that must now be addressed.

The answers may be met with anger or confusion. They may cause difficulty. But these answers are given to a people who possess the Catholic faith. People are expected to trust, to be committed, to remain hopeful. May we be that people.

May God bless all of you.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

August 21, 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Please let me start by thanking you for your thoughtful consideration and honest feedback to our various All Things New surveys, outreach and strategic planning endeavors. Your prayers and input have been most valuable to this effort.

As I write, I'm reflecting on something the Holy Father said several years ago that remains true and especially relevant to us in the Archdiocese of St. Louis. Pope Francis said "we are not living an era of change, but a change of era." The All Things New pastoral planning process is going to bring historic change to the Archdiocese of St. Louis. We know that our current model is not sustainable. As we start to look at potential plans for parishes, ministries and schools to ensure a vibrant presence and future for the Archdiocese, I'd like to update you as to where we are in the process.

In this next phase, we will begin a conversation with our archdiocesan priests and parishioners to discuss draft models, which are based on demographics, sacramental data and feedback received from the Disciple Maker Index survey and other consultative bodies. This past Friday, we presented the information we gathered and preliminary proposals for parishes to our priests to gather their feedback. Then, over the next several months, we will share updated proposals in a series of listening sessions hosted at each parish to hear your thoughts about the proposed models. Please let me remind you that these parish models are preliminary and will be adjusted based on your feedback. Specific information regarding schools will be released later.

Our goal is to implement a vision for evangelization that is accessible to all and empowers every Catholic to spread the Gospel message – today and for generations to come.

This is our primary focus as Catholics, and so I urge you all to bear this in mind as we take the next steps. We are called to collaborate as the Catholic Church rather than compete as many individual churches. I encourage you to engage with us during our listening sessions with an open heart and mind, as we continue to discern where the Lord is leading us. We will continue to update you through allthingsnew.archstl.org. May God bless you, your family and your parish community.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Mitchell T. Rozanski
Archbishop of St. Louis

What is All Things New?

We all know that the Church of today is not the same that it was 50, 100 or 150+ years ago, and yet we are still functioning in many ways out of the same mode of evangelization. We have inherited a great treasure of Catholic institutions from previous generations, but as the Catholic population and society have shifted over the past several decades, they are no longer as effective or sustainable as they once were.

We are closer now to 2050 than to 1950. We need to ask ourselves what our parishes, ministries and institutions need to look like in order to effectively share the faith in a way that is suitable and sustainable for our children and generations to come.

All Things New is evaluating the effectiveness of the Church in St. Louis in proclaiming the Gospel and identifying opportunities for improvement and renewal within all parishes, schools and curia offices and agencies.

Why is the Archdiocese of St. Louis making these changes now?

- Our Catholic population continues to decline and age.
- Our priests are aging and as a result, their number is declining.
- Mass attendance and sacramental participation continue to decline.
- Fewer children attend Catholic Schools and Religious Education (PSR).
- Our resources are finite and need to be realigned.

On August 19, 2022, Archbishop Rozanski met with Archdiocesan priests.

What was shared?

The Archbishop and Fr. Chris Martin, Vicar for Strategic Planning, shared the next phase of All Things New with archdiocesan priests, which included proposed parish models based on our Planning Areas.

A Planning Area is a number of parishes and schools in a geographic region which will be considered together to develop proposed structural options for the future. There are 15 planning areas in the Archdiocese.

They saw several options as to how parishes in their specific Planning Area could be structured and collaborate in the future. Each option is termed a “model.” The models are “unfinished” because they need your insight and feedback.

What’s next?

Archdiocesan priests will evaluate the Planning Areas and Models and offer feedback. Their feedback will be incorporated into the models. Then, the updated Planning Areas and Models will be shared at every parish in listening sessions. The purpose of the listening sessions is to gather your input on these proposed options that are specific to your parish so that over the next year a recommendation can be presented to Archbishop Rozanski for his discernment.

Modelled parishes are generally much larger than current parishes. On average, parishes are 2 to 2.5 x larger.

What happens after the Listening Sessions?

All parishioners across the Archdiocese will have an opportunity to provide feedback through an open-ended survey about their parish’s model options after the listening sessions. This feedback will be incorporated into revised models which will be refined with input from the pastors and key parish leaders throughout the winter 2022 and into 2023. Once a final recommended grouping of parishes and schools is determined, the model will also include the following:

- Recommendations concerning buildings to be used by the merged parish
- The number of priests initially assigned
- Suggested evangelization and ministry strategies

What is the timeline for this?

While decisions will be made in spring 2023, implementation will not begin until fall 2023 and will extend through 2026. Implementation will occur in a phased approach over time to allow for orderly planning and transition at the local level, led by your pastor and supported by the Archdiocese.

What can we as local Catholics do now?

You are encouraged to attend your parish’s listening sessions with open hearts and minds. Continue to attend Mass, participate in the Sacraments and pray for the power of the Holy Spirit to pour out upon the Church of St. Louis, to grant us the gift of true discernment, so we may do His will in all things.

All young adults whether single, discerning, married, priest or religious, with or without children, ages 18-39 are encouraged to fill out the survey.

QAS Parents in Prayer

A Monthly Rosary for Our Day School & PSR Community

Why is saying the rosary important? Catholics use the rosary to pray to God through the intercession of Mary. With the prayers of the rosary, we ask Mary to pray for us and to guide us by the example of her son, Jesus. The prayers of the rosary are simple, meaningful, and they bring us peace.

Who can participate? We invite our entire parish community to come together and pray for our day school and PSR communities, even if you do not have children in the day school or PSR. If you are new to the devotion, we will have easy to follow guides for saying the rosary available and children are welcome to participate, as well! Bring your rosary if you have one, but we will have extras available. It takes less than 20 minutes to pray the rosary.

When and where will this event take place? QAS Parents in Prayer will be held on the first Sunday of the month at 10:00 am. We will meet in front of the school (weather permitting) or inside the church by the statue of Mary. A specific location will be announced prior to each month's meeting. Meeting dates are:

|---------------------------|--------------------------|
| September 4 th | February 5 th |
| October 2 nd | March 5 th |
| November 6 th | April 2 nd |
| December 4 th | May 7 th |
| January 1 st | |

If you need more information or are interested in volunteering for this event, please contact Leslie Pollman at pollmanl@qasstl.org.

The weekly collection remains absolutely essential to our parish operations. As we gather for Mass, please continue to give via WeShare or Faith Direct or by bringing or mailing your contribution to the Parish Office. Please use the slot in the door. Thank you for your generosity.
