HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Mission Statement

As members of Queen of All Saints Parish we are a community united in the Catholic faith, nourished by the Eucharist, and sent to make Christ known to all through word and deed.

Stewardship

"He said, 'Come.' Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus." Matthew 14:29

When you hear Jesus calling, do you respond immediately and trust that He knows what He's doing? If so, you are walking on water! When we say "yes" to Jesus, we feel the power of His presence in our lives. We can feel the freedom it gives us! Listen how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has intended for you.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

In the days before modern harbors a ship had to wait for the flood tide before it could make it to port. The term for this situation in Latin was “ob portu,” that is, a ship standing over against port, waiting for the moment when it could ride the turn of the tide to harbor.

The English word “opportunity” is derived from this original meaning. The captain and crew were ready and waiting for that one moment, for they knew that if they missed it, they would have to wait for another tide to come in. Reflecting on this Latin origin of “opportunity” and its nautical foundation, William Shakespeare wrote,

There is a tide in the affairs of men,
Which, taken at the flood, leads to fortune;
Omitted, all the voyage of their life
Is bound in shallows and in miseries.
On such a full sea we are now afloat,
And we must take the current when it serves,
Or lose our ventures.

St. Peter in today’s Gospel is not going to miss his opportunity. While others in the boat cry out in fear and shriek, “It is a ghost,” Peter implores Jesus to allow him to approach the Lord by walking on the water, too. Here is Peter’s chance, here is an extraordinary opportunity. Who knows if this opportunity would ever present itself again?

We know things didn’t go well for Peter. There were doubts; he became frightened; he began to sink. Jesus had to stretch out his hand and save him. But still we can admire St. Peter’s willingness to give it a go, to imitate Jesus.

“We must take the current when it serves,” Shakespeare wrote. We must be ready to be like Jesus; we must be ready to be extraordinary. Or, as noted above, “Lose our ventures.” In those days, that meant being stuck with product and materials on their ships rather than marketplaces, product that diminishes in value until it becomes worthless. The business venture becomes a loss.

For us, sitting in fear and doubt, staying in the boat, means that we will lose the blessings that may have come to us. We will not know fully the excitement of imitating Christ, we will not know the joy of accomplishing that which many thought could not be done. We may not walk on water, but one could answer the call to the priesthood and religious life, or one could decide not to cohabitate before marriage and stay pure, or one could make a large donation to church or charity rather than keep the money for self or one could defend the teachings of the Church when so many want to ridicule or ignore them. There are many ways and times when Jesus implores us to get out of the boat.

As mentioned, it didn’t go well with St. Peter this time, but he recovered. It may be difficult for us, too, and sometimes we will fail. But this venture of faith for us will be profitable, even heavenly, if we do not miss the opportunity.

May God bless you always,

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - FAITH

How strong is our faith in the Risen Christ? According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "faith is the theological virtue by which we believe in God and believe all that he has said and revealed to us, and that Holy Church proposes for our belief, because he is truth itself" (CCC 1814). As missionary disciples of Christ, we must bear witness to it, and spread it to others. Peter took a leap of faith by walking to Jesus on the water, but he lost his faith when he saw how dangerous the sea looked to him. Similarly, we too often lose faith quickly when the storms of life toss us around to places where we do not like to go. We must pray for Christ to strengthen the gift of faith He has given to us in baptism so that we might be bolder witnesses to the world.

LIVING ROSARY FOR LIFE

Sunday, August 16, 2020
2:30 p.m.

Assumption Parish - Mattese
4725 Mattis Rd, 63128

We will gather in Church on August 16 to honor Our Lady under her title of Queen of Heaven. On October 11, 1954, Pope Pius XII established the Feast of the Queenship of Mary to be celebrated throughout the world, and commanded that on that day each year, the world should renew its consecration to her. In the future the Feast came to be celebrated on August 22.

"The purpose of the Feast is that all may recognize more clearly and venerate more devoutly the merciful and motherly sovereignty of her who bore God in her womb? (Ven. Pius XII, Ad Caeli Reginam).

On the day of her Assumption, Mary our Mother was solemnly crowned by Christ and received by the whole court of Heaven as Queen.

What Christ has done in Heaven and the Church has done on our behalf we should now do individually, that is, we should recognize Mary's Queenship, enthrone her in our homes, consecrate ourselves to her and, by this means establish in our lives the reign of Mary Immaculate Queen of the Universe.

"O Mary Immaculate Queen, glorious Queen of the Universe, most powerful Virgin, merciful Mother of a merciful God and refuge of sinners, we consecrate ourselves to thy Royal and Immaculate Heart."

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

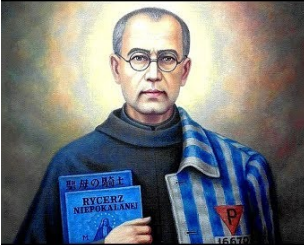

Tuesday ~ 8:45 a.m.—7:00 p.m.

Because Jesus loves you infinitely, unlimited is the joy you bring to His Sacred Heart when you come to spend an hour with Him in the Blessed Sacrament. In an apparition to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, Jesus spoke these moving words: "I have a burning thirst to be honored by men in the Blessed Sacrament."

All parishioners are encouraged to come and spend some time in prayer in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ.

SAINT MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

Born Raymund Kolbe on January 8, 1894, in the Kingdom of Poland, part of the Russian Empire. He was very active in promoting the Immaculate Virgin Mary and is known as the Apostle of Consecration to Mary. Much of his life was strongly influenced by a vision he had of the Virgin Mary when he was 12.

“That night I asked the Mother of God what was to become of me. Then she came to me holding two crowns, one white, the other red. She asked me if I was willing to accept either of these crowns. The white one meant that I should persevere in purity, and the red that I should become a martyr. I said that I would accept them both.”

Things to know about Maximilian Kolbe:

- One year after his vision, Kolbe and his elder brother, Francis joined the Conventual Franciscans. In 1910, Kolbe was given the religious name Maximilian, after being allowed to enter the novitiate, and in 1911, he professed his vows. In 1918, he was ordained a priest.
- At the age of 21, Kolbe earned a doctorate in Philosophy from the Pontifical Gregorian University. He would also earn a doctorate in Theology by the time he was 28.
- He founded a religious group focused on evangelization. He opened a religious house near Warsaw, Niepokalanow—the City of the Immaculate, and later he traveled to Japan and opened another house in Nagasaki.
- He was master of the news media. He made use of the most modern printing technology and distribution strategies for his evangelization materials, his arsenal in the Militia’s spiritual warfare. The friars started a radio station and Fr. Kolbe even had plans for a movie studio.
- Maximilian volunteered to die in place of a stranger in the German death camp of Auschwitz, located in German-occupied Poland during World War II.
- He was canonized October 10, 1982 by Pope John Paul II. The prisoner whom St. Maximilian saved in Auschwitz, Franciszek Gajowniczek, was present at Maximilian’s canonization
- St. Maximilian is the patron saint of families, prisoners, journalists, political prisoners, drug addicts and the pro-life movement.
