HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Mission Statement

As members of Queen of All Saints Parish we are a community united in the Catholic faith, nourished by the Eucharist, and sent to make Christ known to all through word and deed.

Stewardship

"For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's." Romans 14:8

This is the essence of stewardship - everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts that God has given us, especially our very own lives. Pray to God, daily, and ask Him how He is calling you to live the life He intended for you.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Corrie ten Boom was a member of a Christian family living in Amsterdam, Holland, during World War II. Practicing their faith, the ten Boom family allowed their home to be a hiding place for Jews and members of the Dutch Resistance. Betrayed, they were arrested and Corrie and her sister Betsie were sent to a concentration camp.

After the war, Corrie became an author and a speaker about her Christian faith, especially about the necessity of forgiveness. Mercy at times was difficult to share, as it once was written:

“Suddenly Corrie caught sight of him in the congregation at Munich - the former SS man who had been their guard at Ravensbruck camp. Somehow she managed to go on speaking, but scenes of horror and anguish from those days crowded into her mind. It was not for herself she cared - she remembered her poor sister, Betsie, ill, frail, yet made to strip while those mocking guards examined their prisoners. Now the leader of them was here in church.

After the service he came up the church toward her, smiling broadly and with outstretched hand, “Thank you for your message,” he said, “Jesus has washed away my sin.” Corrie looked at him unable to lift her hand from her side. She had preached forgiveness, but how could she show it to the very person who had humiliated and hurt her beloved sister? For a long moment she paused, still unable to shake his hand, and she prayed to Jesus to help her.

As she took the former guard’s hand, Corrie felt an amazing current passing from herself to him and love filled her heart. So, she concluded, “I discovered that when God tells us to love our enemies, God gives, along with the command, the love itself.” (Corrie’s sister Betsie already knew that. Before her death in the camp, Betsie told Corrie, ‘There is no pit so deep that God is not deeper still’).”

The poor fellow in today’s Gospel never learned that lesson, never examined the length and depth of God’s love. How could he? He was too busy thinking about himself, how he could manipulate the master in order to receive mercy, how he could bully another servant who owed him money, how he could callously throw the man in prison. For this ungrateful person mercy only moved from one person to another, and then it stopped. No passing on, no spreading of God’s love.

The Lord expects more of us. Like Corrie ten Boom said, God has given the command to love our enemies, indeed, to love all as we love our self. But the Lord did not leave us with no examples or resources to obey this command. The Lord supplies the love. May we never fail to share it.

Please join me in welcoming the two seminarians sent to help part-time at our parish. Unlike Jacob Braun, Will and Zach will live and study at the seminary and only come to Queen of All Saints a few hours a week. We are glad that they have been sent to us and we pray that God will guide them as they share their faith with us.

May God bless all of you,

In Christ,

Fr. Hambrough

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL
BUILD MY CHURCH

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

The Annual Catholic Appeal helps Catholic Charities of St. Louis impact more than 120,000 people each year. To see this year's ACA video, click on the following link: <https://archstl.org/stewardship/page/annual-catholic-appeal>.

The Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) unifies us as Catholics in the Archdiocese of St. Louis. Each year we demonstrate we are one Church in our efforts to assist those who are suffering and abandoned. Catechetical programs introduce our young children to the love and peace of the Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ. Our newly ordained priests join their new parishes with enthusiasm and great hope. Your support means thousands will find grace and mercy through the Annual Catholic Appeal.

QAS Goal: $180,687
Total to Date: $140,634

The 2020 Annual Catholic appeal is now underway. If you have not completed your campaign pledge card, you may contact the parish office or go online to their website, ARCHSTL.ORG/ACA or go to the online giving link on the Queen of All Saints website, QASSTL.ORG.

Fallen and Redeemed Man

Reflecting on the wounded and sinful state of man after Adam's expulsion from the Garden of Eden, St. Anselm writes: "He [Adam] was satisfied to the full; we sigh with hunger. He had everything he needed; we go begging. He happily possessed those things and abandoned them in misery; we unhappily do without them and miserably desire them, but alas, we remain empty-handed. Why did he not preserve for us, as he could easily have done, what we so woefully lack? Why did he thus shut us out from the light and cover us with darkness? Why did he take away our life and inflict death upon us?"

With great poignancy, Anselm highlights the pitiful existence of man outside the walls of Eden. By disobeying God, Adam abandoned perfect happiness and friendship with his Creator. The progenitor of the human race thereby doomed his descendants to lives that begin with suffering and end in death. It is not hard to see why Anselm's reflection is tinged with anger and frustration.

In answer to man's infidelity, the Incarnate Son of God, Jesus Christ, chose to do more than help man climb back into Eden. Rather, Christ chose to endure pain, so that our pain might be imbued with purpose and meaning. By suffering, Jesus ensures that our own suffering can be redeemed, and oriented to supernatural ends. By becoming man and choosing to bear the agonies of a fallen world, Jesus not only restores man to a state of friendship with God, but makes it possible that human beings enjoy the privilege of adopted sonship. Of course, all of this requires tremendous grace, which man neither earns nor deserves, despite his noblest striving.

Thankfully, the means of salvation have already been given to us by Jesus Christ, who instituted the Seven Sacraments, which He entrusted to His Church. Over the next several weeks, I will be writing about the Sacraments — why they are necessary for salvation and what they do —starting with Baptism. I hope you all will find this brief series on the Sacraments helpful.

In Christ,
Jake Braun

Welcome Seminarians From Kenrick Seminary

Hi! My name is Zach Eischeid. I am from Elgin, Nebraska in the Archdiocese of Omaha. I am the youngest of three. I went to Pope John XXIII High School and attended Benedictine College for two years majoring in Mass Communication and Theology. However, after the two years, I transferred to Saint John Vianney College Seminary at the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota. I'm excited to be here and get to know the parishioners. It will be a great way to experience parish life as I continue in Theology II at Kenrick-Glennon.

Hello, my name is Will Targy. I am a first year Theology student at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. I am originally from Bellevue, Nebraska and I am studying for the Archdiocese of Omaha. I have four sisters, one older and three younger. In college, I studied World Religions and Philosophy at the University of Nebraska at Omaha. After college I worked as a FOCUS missionary for three years at universities in Maryland and Virginia. I then moved back to Nebraska and worked as a youth minister in my home parish for six years. I entered the Pre-Theology program at Kenrick in 2018, and it has been a very blessed and grace-filled experience. I look forward to getting to know all the families and parishioners here at Queen of All Saints.

SACRAMENTS OF RECONCILIATION AND HOLY EUCHARIST

With the arrival of seminarian Jacob Braun to Queen of All Saints, and with another seminarian to be assigned here part-time, our parish has two people available to bring Holy Communion to those not able yet to come to Mass. If you would like to receive our Eucharistic Lord, or if you would like to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation from one of the priests, please contact Fr. Hambrough, 314-380-4020, or phambrough@archsstl.org.

WHAT IS THE RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process of preparation whereby one inquires into the teachings of and pursues entrance into the Catholic Church. For each person, it is the journey through phases of maturation in Faith whereby one readies to commit oneself to Jesus Christ and His Church through seeking the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist/First Holy Communion).

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE IN RCIA CLASSES?

- Any Unbaptized person seeking to know and encounter Jesus Christ, enter into his divine life through Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist, and follow him in a life of Christian discipleship. Such a person, after a period of inquiry into the faith and initial conversion to Christ is called a Catechumen.
- Any Baptized person from another Christian community seeking to become Catholic and enter into full communion with Christ and His Church through the reception of the sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion. Such a person, after a period of inquiry into the faith, is called a Candidate.
- Any Baptized Catholic looking to increase their devotion as a disciple of Jesus Christ through further study of the Faith or to complete their sacraments of initiation by receiving Confirmation and/or First Holy Communion.

GREAT TIME TO REGISTER FOR PREVENT AND PROTECT STL

NEW SAFE ENVIRONMENT REQUIREMENTS AT NO COST TO YOU!

PLEASE NOTE

Due to the pandemic, the Archdiocesan Office has started offering a Zoom Live Session of the original, mandatory Protecting God's Children Workshop to first time people while the stay-at-home and social distancing orders are in place. They will continue to add Zoom classes as needed. This is yet another reason to register now in the new system, Prevent and Protect STL, while you may have some time on your hands. If you need assistance, feel free to call me at home at 314-221-3352 or email me at schroederj@qasstl.org.

The Archdiocese of St. Louis has developed a new system for safe environment compliance called Prevent and Protect STL. EVERYONE (clergy, employees, and volunteers) ministering to minors and vulnerable adults in the Archdiocese are required and asked to register in the new system ASAP. This includes those new to service and those who are currently in service. For those who have already attended a Protecting God's Children workshop, your previous training date will transfer to this new system. However, in addition to attending a live Protecting God's Children workshop, all clergy, volunteers, and employees will register for an updated background screening, view two new online training modules on abuse reporting and the Code of Ethical Conduct, and agree to the updated Code of Ethical Conduct. Please read all instructions before beginning. Please allow about 1 hour of your time to complete ALL modules. (You may log in and out at your convenience, if desired.)

Please go to www.preventandprotectstl.org to register. Enter the pass code, stlprotect, when prompted. Contact your parish Child Safety Coordinator, Jan Schroeder, 314-846-8207, or schroederj@qasstl.org, with any questions or for further assistance.

Meet Baby Isabella. As a single professional, her mother was in the target market for abortion. But as she drove into the abortion facility, she discovered people praying for her and her unborn baby. Some held signs, and all were peaceful and loving. These people were 40 Days for Life.

Coalition for Life St. Louis is the local host of 40 Days for Life, which brings together thousands of Christians for 40 days of continuous prayer, fasting, and peaceful vigil in front of the abortion facility. This Fall, 40 Days for Life will run September 23rd – November 1st. Queen of All Saints has adopted Saturday Oct 3, 2020 to be the loving presence of Christ outside the abortion facility at 4251 Forest Park Ave. St. Louis 63108. We pledge to stand (or bring your lawn chair) there 7am-7pm in peaceful, prayerful witness for all those at risk for abortion. Contact Kevin Niewoehner at 314-488-6307 or kevinniewoehner@sbcglobal.net to sign up for your hour(s) today. Baby Isabella is here today because her mother found help, love, and hope during 40 Days for Life. You may just make the difference for another family.

LIVING ROSARY FOR LIFE

Sunday, September 20, 2020
Assumption Parish - Mattese
4725 Mattis Rd., 63128
2:30 p.m.

Please come pray with us. We will gather in Church.

Mary suffered torment in her soul. It is Mary's selfless act of letting her Son be sacrificed for our salvation that makes her the Queen of Martyrs.

As we pray the Living Rosary for Life this month, let us take time to reflect on the Seven Sorrow of Our Blessed Mother:

1. Flight into Egypt
2. Prophecy of Simeon
3. Loss of the Child Jesus
4. Meeting Jesus on the Way of the Cross
5. Crucifixion
6. Taking Down of Jesus from the Cross
7. Burial of Jesus

As we reflect on Mary's Seven Sorrows, we unite ourselves with the Passion of Christ and His holy Mother's suffering.

A relic of the True Cross will be available for veneration.

Say Good-bye to Clogged Gutters!
CALL BY 9/30 TO RECEIVE
75% OFF LABOR*
*Does not include cost of material.
Offer expires 9/30/20
Receive a $25 Lowe's Gift Card with FREE in-home estimate!
All participants who attend an estimated 60-90 minute in-home product consultation will receive a $25 gift card. Retail value is $25. Offer sponsored by LeafGuard Holdings Inc. Limit one per household. Company purchases, sells, and installs seamless gutter protection. This offer is valid for homeowners over 18 years of age. If insured or involved with a partner, both collaborating persons must attend and complete presentation together. Participants must have a photo ID. Be able to understand English, and be legally able to enter into a contract. The following persons are not eligible for this offer: employees of Company or affiliated companies or entities, their immediate family members, previous participants in a Company in-home consultation within the past 12 months and all current and former Company customers. Gift may not be extended, rescheduled, or substituted except that Company may substitute a gift of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Gift card will be mailed to the participant via first class United States Mail within 21 days of receipt of the presentation. Gift is valid in conjunction with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer not sponsored or promoted by Lowe's and is subject to change without notice prior to expiration. Expires 9/30/20.
Guaranteed not to clog for as long as you own your home, or we'll clean your gutters for free.
