Stewardship

*"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all."
Mark 9:35*

Jesus teaches us that we are called to love one another. Love involves sacrifice. Sacrifice is a word that many of us don't like to hear. We think it means that we must give up something that we want. However, the literal meaning of sacrifice is "to make holy," from the words "sacer" = sacred and "facere" = to make. In other words, we make our lives holy by sharing our gifts in the service of God.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The priests recently received some statistics from the Archdiocese informing us of the number of Catholics in the Archdiocese and where these Catholics once resided, and where they reside now. For instance, in 1950 the South City Deanery had 49 parishes for 128,330 Catholics. In 2020 that same deanery had but 26 parishes for 34,460 Catholics. Quite a drop in parishes and Catholics! Conversely, in 1950 the St. Charles Deanery had only 17 parishes for just 12,300 Catholics. Today in St. Charles there are 23 parishes for 101,000 Catholics. It's not hard to discern population shifts when one looks at the figures presented.

Such information was sent to us as the archdiocese begins a study to evaluate our resources along with the number of priests we have to staff our parishes. Already we have seen many changes in recent years. In 1930 this archdiocese had 203 parishes, now we have 178. Some churches have closed for good, some parishes have merged with other parishes. Study will soon begin to determine if more closings and/or mergers are necessary.

Particularly upsetting about the figures are numbers estimating unregistered Catholics, i.e. people not signed up in any parish, and the total reported Catholics in the archdiocese. In 1960 the estimated number of unregistered Catholics was 2,000. Today, it's 75,000. The total of all Catholics peaked in 1990 at 535,400. Sadly, today that number has dipped under 500,000 for the first time in fifty years. The trends are not promising.

But the Catholic faith is promising, along with hopeful, glorious, and redemptive. Some people just don't know that - and it's your job to tell them. You see, many of you have more contact with the unbaptized or the non-Catholics than we in the rectory do. Most of the people we see every day or each week are Catholic, some devout, some struggling. But you, in your family and neighborhoods certainly would have more contact with non-Catholics or the non-baptized. Perhaps it's someone who married into your family. Maybe it's the couple who moved in next door. It could be someone in the group at work with whom you have lunch five days a week or who sits next to you while your children practice a sport. Should you be the person who invites them to consider the Catholic faith? Yes. Should you be the one who informs them that at your parish - at Queen of All Saints - there are a group of people eager to join them in a journey of faith that may result in their Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation? Yes.

Faithful members of our parish compose the group that leads the program called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults - R.C.I.A.

These parishioners, along with Fr. Detwiler and myself, are ready to share the beauty of our Catholic faith with your neighbor, friend, or relative. All they need is for you to point them in the right direction, even offer to come with them. You know that Jesus sent his disciples out to share the news of the Kingdom of God and you know those disciples went with great haste, even when to speak of Christ put them in mortal danger. Today, you and I have the responsibility to speak of Jesus Christ and invite others to join His flock. Watch the bulletin for information about the RCIA. Invite one, or more, people to check it out. And pray for the courage to do so. Those sad numbers listed above won't change for the better unless we offer the good news of our wonderful Catholic faith to others.

May God bless you all,

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

Deacons: Caring for You...Since A.D. 33

Please Support This Year's Deacon Formation Collection. Did you know that, over the last four decades, dozens of Deacons of the Archdiocese of St. Louis have, in addition to their parish service, volunteered countless hours of selfless, loving care for those in our midst who are suffering and in need?

Like those first seven ordained by the apostles, our deacons are called to be ministers of charity and models of Christ-like compassion for the sick, the poor, the imprisoned, and the dying. Deacons "wash the feet" of the faithful each day, seeing the face of Christ revealed in their ailing brothers and sisters. Deacons can be found sharing the Joy of the Gospel, offering us comfort in every facet of daily life—nursing homes, hospitals, hospices, prisons, schools, airports, businesses, and more. You can help our future deacons be Christ's hands and feet with your charitable donation to this year's Deacon Formation Collection. Deacon formation in the archdiocese relies heavily on the support of the annual Deacon Formation Collection, held this coming October 2nd and 3rd. Please be as generous as possible. God bless you for your support!

Blood is amazing stuff. Did you know that adults have approximately 16 pints of blood in their body at any given time? One collection unit of blood is about 1 pint. It takes roughly 14 hours for your body to replace a donated pint of blood. In the U.S. alone, 41,000 units of blood are used each day. Only about 5% of healthy Americans donate blood. Multiple donations account for over 80% of the blood used for transfusions.

There is no substitute for blood.

You have the power to help people you may not even know. All it takes is for you to roll up your sleeve and donate a pint of blood. Remember, whole blood and blood products such as platelets can't be manufactured; they can only be given freely through the compassionate generosity of donors.

If you are at least 17 year's old, weigh at least 110 pounds and are in general good health, please give the gift of life!

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! -GENEROSITY

God, our Creator, is infinitely generous. We've all heard the statement that no one can "Out-give" God. In one parable, Jesus rebukes the servants who are unsatisfied with receiving the same amount of pay as those who worked significantly less. We should not be envious because the Lord is generous. Rather, we should embrace His generosity and the bounty He has bestowed on us and rejoice in the blessings that others have. The world today suffers much from the sin of envy, and many people cannot rejoice when others receive blessings. "Envy is a capital sin. It refers to the sadness at the sight of another's goods and the immoderate desire to acquire them for oneself, even unjustly. When it wishes grave harm to a neighbor it is a moral sin" (CCC 2539). We must be careful with jealousy and reject it. Instead be grateful for all the gifts you and your family and friends have received. Respond by being generous with your God-given gifts. archstl.org/dynamic

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.

AMEN.

Select the type of location where you are a volunteer or employee.

- *Parish or Parish School
- *Non-Parish School or Program
- *Archdiocesan Agency
- *Non-Archdiocesan Organization

Select the specific location by name. (ex. Queen of All Saints)

Click the roles associated with your employment/service at that location.

If you are active at only one location, this will be your "primary" location.

If you are active at more than one location, click the ADD PARISH/LOCATION button and repeat the steps above. With more than one location, please click the "This is my main/primary location" circle to indicate where you are employed or, if you are a volunteer, where most of your ministry or service is performed.

Complete your personal information. Please enter your legal first name (no nicknames) for the purpose of the background screening.

Create a username, password and password clue. (BE SURE TO SAVE THIS INFORMATION TO AVOID RE-REGISTERING. DOUBLE BACKGROUND CHECKS ARE COSTLY TO OUR PARISH!!!)

Agree to the Terms of Use and click SUBMIT.

You will then be prompted to submit information for a background screening, register for a *Protecting God's Children workshop, view TWO ONLINE TRAINING MODULES and agree to the Code of Ethical Conduct. You have to complete ALL steps to complete the process.

*If you have previously attended a PGC workshop, the system will find and ask you to confirm your previous record of attendance. You will not be prompted to register for an upcoming workshop.

You may use the links in your approval checklist to access these requirements. These steps may be completed all at once or may be completed separately at your convenience. Please note: if you do not complete all modules and decide to finish at a later date, you will need your User name and Password. You will receive an automated email weekly to remind you which requirements are outstanding. When all compliance requirements have been completed, your account will be approved and you will be clear to work with minors and vulnerable adults.

Should you need any assistance, please contact ocyp@archstl.org
