HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Mission Statement

As members of Queen of All Saints Parish we are a community united in the Catholic faith, nourished by the Eucharist, and sent to make Christ known to all through word and deed.

Stewardship

"Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves...." Philippians 2:3

Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But, if we truly believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends and those who make you angry.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The parishioner had been asked to give a talk at a parish retreat but he couldn't get his thoughts together. Increasingly frustrated and spiritually stymied, he decided to go to the local diner and get a cup of coffee. Though the hour was late, he hoped that being around other people might provide some kind of inspiration.

While seated at the counter, three men came in - loud, dirty, bums, the parishioner thought. One of the three loudly announced, "Tomorrow's my birthday." Another said, "So what." The three had a donut and a cup of coffee and left.

After they left, the man asked the waitress, "Do these guys come in here all the time?" She said, "Yes, they come in every morning about one o'clock. They work second shift at some factory, some kind of job that obviously get them dirty. " The parishioner asked if they would be in the next night at 1 a.m., on the guy's birthday. "I'm sure they will be, they're in every morning," she replied.

The next day, the parishioner called some friends and they arranged to throw a surprise party for the man, whose name they did not know. They bought decorations and hung them around the diner. They arranged with the waitress for lots of food to be ready at one o'clock, and they purchased a special birthday cake. When the three dirty workers arrived at the usual time, the diner was full of people who shouted, "Surprise!"

The birthday boy was overwhelmed, moved, and speechless. When he finally spoke, his words were choked with emotion. He asked if he could take the entire cake home. He wanted to sit and just look at it. It was the first time in his life he had been given a birthday cake.

After introductions were made, food eaten, and the party was over, the waitress came to the parishioner and said, "I bet you belong to some church." "Yes," came the response, "I belong to a church that throws birthday parties for a down-on-his-luck guy at one o'clock in the morning." The waitress said, "I want to join that church."

I hope today's Walk for the Poor evokes the same thought from those who see it. We can be thankful that our parish St. Vincent de Paul Society has organized today's walk, allowing us to give witness to our community that we are a people - a parish - that cares for others, especially the poor. Not only do we get to wear cool shirts as a sign of our commitment to the poor, we also get to donate money, food, coupons and clothing to help those in difficult situations. Best of all, the good we do today in the Walk for the Poor remains with us forever.

Back in the third century St. Cyprian wrote, "Charity is the bond of brotherhood, the foundation of peace, the steadfastness and firmness of unity; it is greater than both faith and hope, it excels both good works and suffering for the faith; and, as eternal virtue, it will abide with us forever in the kingdom of heaven." That makes today a big deal, something attached to us into eternity. Today's walk helps the poor; it also helps us on our journey to God.

Steadfastness, firmness, the foundation of peace, the bond of brotherhood are on display today. "I'll bet you belong to some church" receives an answer from the St. Vincent de Paul Society and Queen of All Saints Parish.

May God bless all of you,

In Christ,

Fr. Hambrough

September 10, 2020

Dear Friends in Christ,

The call to be deacon is to serve. On Sunday, October 4, 2020, there will be a special collection for the formation of permanent deacons in the Archdiocese of St. Louis. This collection relieves some of their financial burden for studies to become a deacon. Since 1977, 487 men have been ordained as permanent deacons in the Archdiocese. There are 211 active deacons ordained for the Archdiocese and 102 retired deacons. There are 44 men in formation at this time. When the permanent diaconate program was initiated in the Archdiocese in January 1977, men went through a two-year formation program, with a third year of post-ordination formation. Since then, the program has gradually expanded to five years of formation, plus three more years of post-ordination formation. Deacons serve in parishes, hospitals, archdiocesan agencies, and other organizations. They offer their time, talent and energy to strengthen our church in St. Louis and do not receive compensation for their work. Their service extends into many areas of parish life, including the proclamation of the Gospel, liturgical functions, administration, and charitable works. Many active deacons continue to be employed full-time, requiring them to balance family lives and professions with their ministry as a deacon.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Mitchell T. Rozanski

FROM OUR SEMINARIAN JAKE BRAUN

Confirmation: A Sacrament of Initiation

Along with Baptism and the Holy Eucharist, Confirmation is one of the three Sacraments of Initiation. Until more recent history, all three of these Sacraments were given to infants on the same day. In fact, many Eastern Rite Catholics still receive the Sacraments in that order, with Reconciliation coming only after the children have reached the age of reason. Putting aside historical and pastoral reasons for why the Sacrament of Confirmation is generally received sometime after 7th grade in the U.S., it is worth investigating the purpose and effects of this amazing Sacrament.

What is Confirmation For?

According to a document from the Second Vatican Council called Lumen Gentium, Baptized Christians “are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit.” Like the Apostles at Pentecost, those who are Confirmed receive not only a mission from Christ, to be his disciples on earth, but also the strength to carry out that mission. Lumen Gentium continues, “Hence they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed.” Confirmation represents, and causes, the spiritual growth into maturity and strength that precedes true discipleship. As disciples of Jesus, those who are Confirmed are commissioned to be living signs of Jesus Christ’s redeeming mission to a world that is desperately in need of redemption.

The Effects of Confirmation

Like the Sacrament of Baptism, Confirmation leaves an indelible mark on the soul of the recipient. But, there are many other effects from the Sacrament of Confirmation, which serve to both deepen the graces received at Baptism and give us the same graces that the Apostles received at Pentecost. St. Ambrose puts it well, when he says to those who have been Confirmed, “Recall then that you have received the spiritual seal, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence, the spirit of holy fear in God’s presence. Guard what you have received. God the Father has marked you with his sign; Christ the Lord has confirmed you and has placed his pledge, the Spirit, in your hearts.” By Confirmation, we are not only more closely united with all three Persons of the Holy Trinity in grace, but we are also given the task of publicly witnessing to the reality of Jesus Christ, who lived, died, and rose for us. With the special graces of this Sacrament, we are also given the strength to carry out this task.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Congratulations to our recently baptized parishioner, Charlotte Nicole Dreeste, child of Jeffrey and Meagan Dreeste, baptized in Christ on September 20, 2020, at Queen of All Saints Church.

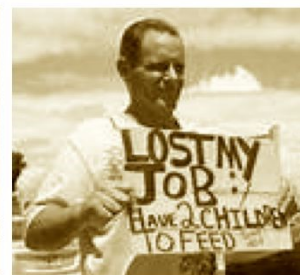

May the blessing of the Lord be always upon Charlotte Nicole, and may God watch over and cherish this child whom God has blessed with the grace of Baptism.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Congratulations to our recently baptized parishioners, Grayson Daniel and Kade Alexander Jackson, children of Joshua and Melissa Jackson, baptized in Christ on September 20, 2020, at Queen of All Saints Church.

May the blessing of the Lord be always upon Grayson Daniel and Kade Alexander, and may God watch over and cherish these children whom God has blessed with the grace of Baptism.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN ENTERING THE CATHOLIC CHURCH OR AT LEAST LEARNING MORE ABOUT ITS TEACHINGS?

WHAT IS THE RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)?

This year's RCIA classes are starting now. If you or someone you know might be interested in entering the Church, you can contact Fr. Philipp by phone at (314)-380-4021 or by email at (philipp@qasstl.org) to get more information.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process of preparation whereby one inquires into the teachings of and pursues entrance into the Catholic Church. For each person, it is the journey through phases of maturation in Faith whereby one readies to commit oneself to Jesus Christ and His Church through seeking the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist/First Holy Communion).

GREAT TIME TO REGISTER FOR PREVENT AND PROTECT STL

NEW SAFE ENVIRONMENT REQUIREMENTS AT NO COST TO YOU!

PLEASE NOTE

Due to the pandemic, the Archdiocesan Office has started offering a Zoom Live Session of the original, mandatory Protecting God's Children Workshop to first time people while the stay-at-home and social distancing orders are in place. They will continue to add Zoom classes as needed. This is yet another reason to register now in the new system, Prevent and Protect STL, while you may have some time on your hands. If you need assistance, feel free to call me at home at 314-221-3352 or email me at schroederj@qasstl.org.

The Archdiocese of St. Louis has developed a new system for safe environment compliance called Prevent and Protect STL. EVERYONE (clergy, employees, and volunteers) ministering to minors and vulnerable adults in the Archdiocese are required and asked to register in the new system ASAP. This includes those new to service and those who are currently in service. For those who have already attended a Protecting God's Children workshop, your previous training date will transfer to this new system. However, in addition to attending a live Protecting God's Children workshop, all clergy, volunteers, and employees will register for an updated background screening, view two new online training modules on abuse reporting and the Code of Ethical Conduct, and agree to the updated Code of Ethical Conduct. Please read all instructions before beginning. Please allow about 1 hour of your time to complete ALL modules. (You may log in and out at your convenience, if desired.)

Please go to www.preventandprotectstl.org to register. Enter the pass code, stlprotect, when prompted. Contact your parish Child Safety Coordinator, Jan Schroeder, 314-846-8207, or schroederj@qasstl.org, with any questions or for further assistance.

Meet Baby Isabella. As a single professional, her mother was in the target market for abortion. But as she drove into the abortion facility, she discovered people praying for her and her unborn baby. Some held signs, and all were peaceful and loving. These people were 40 Days for Life.

Coalition for Life St. Louis is the local host of 40 Days for Life, which brings together thousands of Christians for 40 days of continuous prayer, fasting, and peaceful vigil in front of the abortion facility. This Fall, 40 Days for Life will run September 23rd – November 1st. Queen of All Saints has adopted Saturday Oct 3, 2020 to be the loving presence of Christ outside the abortion facility at 4251 Forest Park Ave. St. Louis 63108. We pledge to stand (or bring your lawn chair) there 7am-7pm in peaceful, prayerful witness for all those at risk for abortion. Contact Kevin Niewoehner at 314-488-6307 or kevinniewoehner@sbcglobal.net to sign up for your hour(s) today. Baby Isabella is here today because her mother found help, love, and hope during 40 Days for Life. You may just make the difference for another family.

Say Good-bye to Clogged Gutters!
CALL BY 9/30 TO RECEIVE
75% OFF LABOR*
*Does not include cost of material.
Offer expires 9/30/20
Receive a $25 Lowe's Gift Card with FREE in-home estimate!
All participants who attend an estimated 60-90 minute in-home product consultation will receive a $25 gift card. Retail value is $25. Offer sponsored by LeafGuard Holdings Inc. Limit one per household. Company purchases, sells, and installs seamless gutter protection. This offer is valid for homeowners over 18 years of age. If insured or involved with a partner, both collaborating persons must attend and complete presentation together. Participants must have a photo ID. Be able to understand English, and be legally able to enter into a contract. The following persons are not eligible for this offer: employees of Company or affiliated companies or entities, their immediate family members, previous participants in a Company in-home consultation within the past 12 months and all current and former Company customers. Gift may not be extended, rescheduled, or substituted except that Company may substitute a gift of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Gift card will be mailed to the participant via first class United States Mail within 21 days of receipt of the presentation. No valid in-home consultation with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer not sponsored or promoted by Lowe's and is subject to change without notice prior to expiration. Expires 9/30/20
