Stewardship

"Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?" James 2:5

What is more important - being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society tells us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we are rich in faith, we keep God first and experience true joy and peace. When we put possessions first, we soon realize we can never have enough and happiness is fleeting. When we put faith over possessions, we truly realize it is better to give than receive.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Author Stephen King wrote, “Amateurs wait for inspiration. The rest of us just get up and go to work.” Labor Day weekend gives us the opportunity to thank God for the blessings we have received through our work and prompts us to pray for those who struggle to find gainful employment. While there are jobs aplenty out there, many of them are not the type of work for which people have been trained or educated. Let us pray that soon all people may be able to use their abilities and skills and find jobs which will allow them to provide for their families and contribute to the good of society.

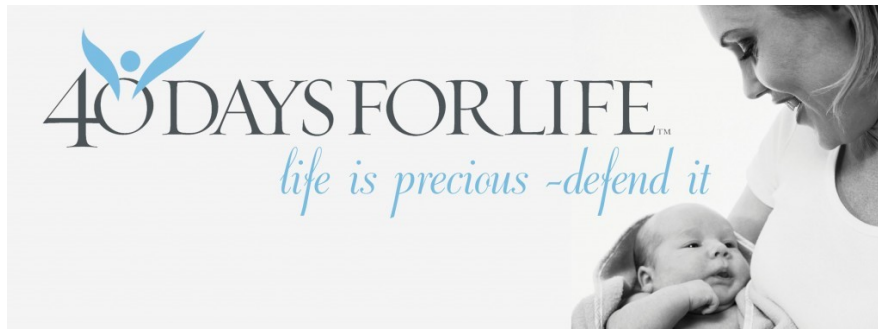

The Gospel today tells us about some people who didn’t wait inspiration, they just got up and took their deaf friend to Jesus from there the Lord too over. Looking up to heaven for strength and touching the man as a sign of compassion, Jesus commands that the man’s ears be opened and the voice be perfected. Immediately the cure happens and the praise begins. Jesus is no amateur. He just goes to work, and when he does, blessings flow from heaven.

Some of you are retired from the working world. Some of you still rise five or more days a week to put in an honest day’s work. Some of you have not yet started your careers. But all of us have been called by Christ to labor in his vineyard and produce good fruit, fruit that is pleasing to God and beneficial to God’s people. My hope is that your work and mine is top-notch, the highest of quality, a masterpiece for the Lord. May that be our ambition, for as Ralph Waldo Emerson said long ago, “Without ambition one starts nothing. Without work one finishes nothing. The prize will not be sent to you. You have to win it.

Elsewhere in this bulletin you will find the prayer offered at Ground Zero in New York by Pope Benedict XVI in 2008 and again by Pope Francis in 2015. Any of us born before 1995 vividly remembers the horrors of twenty years ago, September 11, 2001. What a shocking day - a day of terror, loss, mourning, and prayer, lots of prayers. Like me, perhaps you will be watching various shows or documentaries this week about that fateful day. In watching such shows, I find myself intrigued by the power of the human spirit (a spirit, I believe, animated by God), saddened that some people could inflict such tragedy on other people, uplifted by so many who performed such acts of heroism, and compelled to cry out to God in prayer. “O Lord,” I will say, “turn our hearts from dreadful evil. Turn our hearts to Christ, your Son.” This prayer I will offer while reflecting on the evil revealed in 2001 while simultaneously pleading with God to halt the evils still among us in 2021. I encourage you to do the same, especially using the prayer of the popes on Saturday, the twentieth anniversary of that terrible day.

May God bless you all.

In Christ,
Fr. Hambrough

We will join the ranks of 1,000,000 volunteers in 816 cities across 61 nations for this peaceful lifesaving campaign. With God's help, 40 Days for Life has witnessed 16,742 babies saved from abortion. 196 abortion worker conversions and 104 closed abortion centers.

PAPAL PRAYER WHEN VISITING GROUND ZERO

*O God of love, compassion, and healing, look on us, people of many different faiths and traditions, who gather today at this site,
the scene of incredible violence and pain.
We ask you in your goodness to give eternal light and peace to all who died here —
the heroic first responders:
our firefighters, police officers,
emergency service workers, and Port Authority personnel, along with all the innocent men and women who were victims of this tragedy simply because their work or service brought them here on September 11, 2001.
We ask you, in your compassion to bring healing to those who, because of their presence here that day, suffer from injuries and illness.
Heal, too, the pain of still-grieving families
and all who lost loved ones in this tragedy.
Give them strength to continue their lives with courage and hope.
We are mindful, as well, of those who suffered death,
injury, and loss
on the same day at the Pentagon and in Shanksville, Pennsylvania.
Our hearts are one with theirs as our prayer embraces their pain and suffering.
God of peace, bring your peace to our violent world:
peace in the hearts of all men and women and peace
among the nations of the earth.
Turn to your way of love
those whose hearts and minds are consumed with hatred.
God of understanding,
overwhelmed by the magnitude of this tragedy,
we seek your light and guidance
as we confront such terrible events.
Grant that those whose lives were spared may live so that the lives lost here may not have been lost in vain.
Comfort and console us,
strengthen us in hope,
and give us the wisdom and courage to work tirelessly for a world where true peace and love reign among nations and in the hearts of all.*

EXPECTANT MOTHER'S BLESSING

Next Sunday, September 12th, is the "second Sunday of the month" and therefore is the expectant mother's blessing. This special blessing will take place following the 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses. All those expecting a child, through their pregnancy or awaiting adoption of a child, are encouraged to come for this blessing every month. As a parish, we continue to pray for the unborn babies who will soon join our congregation. Let us pray for good health and safe deliveries.

MARTHAS FUNERAL LUNCH MINISTRY

Luke 10:38-40 says: "Martha welcomed Jesus into her house and then proceeded to serve a meal to all present." The Gospel tells how Martha welcomed Jesus and His disciples into her home and provided a meal and gracious hospitality. When a family loses a loved one they are often overwhelmed with decisions, grief and turmoil. As a parish community, we can support grieving parishioners by offering to provide the funeral luncheon.

The parish provides the meat and paper products and volunteers bring the side dishes and provide hospitality. Additional volunteers are needed to help serve the funeral luncheons and to bring a side dish such as a vegetable, salad, potato casserole, dessert, etc.

Thank you for considering this simple way to serve, as Martha served.

For more information on this ministry contact Jeannine at 565-6085 or sinakmomoffive@yahoo.com.

LET'S PLAY CARDS

Come one, come all! There will be cards, dominos, or any game you want to play, in the Church Hall on Wednesday, September 8, 12:00 noon until 2:30 p.m.

It's free, and cake, coffee, and tea will be served. Make it a Special Day. Bring your spouse, a friend, or a shut-in.

The only time cards will be cancelled on the 2nd Wednesday of each month is if there is a Funeral Luncheon in the Hall.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Contentment is not the fulfillment of what you want, but the realization of how much you already have.

ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITY

We have contracted with Guide Book Publishing (GBP) to publish a printed Guide Book & Directory for our congregation that will be updated and delivered directly to your homes annually.

This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: ministries, organizations, committees, activities, and events. This book is being provided at no cost to our congregation. Local businesses are being solicited to advertising in this book.

If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the parish office at 846-8207.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! -SAINTS DRAW US CLOSER TO CHRIST

One of the most beneficial sources of inspiration in our Catholic Faith is the lives of the saints. The saints, like Christ, offer us a vast number of ways in which we can deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow the Lord. The Penances that saints have taken on through the centuries are excellent models for us and give us ideas for denying ourselves and thus surrendering our lives to Christ. Extra prayer, fasting, sleeping on the ground, waking up in the middle of the night to pray, abstaining from alcohol, etc. are just a few of the many actions we can take to grow closer to Christ. What is essential to remember is that these practices must not become a source of pride for us. We must focus on how the actions draw us closer to Christ and allow us to participate in His divine life. We must remember that God must be the source and goal of all of our thoughts, words, and actions. He is worth the sacrifices that we make. archstl.org/dynamic

QAS Seraphim Singers Children's Choir

The QAS Children's Choir, Seraphim Singers, is beginning the new season and is accepting new members. The choir practices in church on most Mondays, from 4:30-5:30 pm. Our first rehearsal is Monday, September 13. The choir is for children grades two through eight. Practices continue through the school year. If your child has conflicts with a sport or other activity, we can work out a compromise in order to attend both. Mrs. Kriste Ludwig is the director for Seraphim Singers. Children and parents are welcome to attend the first rehearsal and see if the choir is right for you. Returning members are encouraged to bring a friend or two! Please send an email to Mrs. Ludwig to reserve your spot and to have a music packet prepared for your student. Write "Seraphim Singers" in the subject line.

Please e-mail Mrs. Ludwig for more information: lkriste@hotmail.com

HAITI COLLECTION

Archbishop Rozanski has asked parishes to participate in a special collection for the devastation caused by a 7.2 magnitude earthquake in Haiti. Haiti is one of the poorest nations in the world, with 60 percent of its population living below the poverty line.

Baskets on the tables near the 3 entrances of Church are designated for the special collection for Haiti.

Please be generous to those in need.

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA

This weekend, the archdiocese will be taking up the National Collection for The Catholic University of America, which is a national research university with over 5,700 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 250 academic programs in the heart of Washington, D.C. By giving to the collection, you are supporting both future Catholic leaders, religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional, Faith-rooted education and the University's various research and training initiatives that support dioceses and parishes in responding to the most pressing needs of their faithful. Please give generously. Learn more at: collection.Catholic.edu.
