HIGHLIGHTS

Pope Francis's Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Mission Statement

As members of Queen of All Saints Parish we are a community united in the Catholic faith, nourished by the Eucharist, and sent to make Christ known to all through word and deed.

Stewardship

"You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel..."

Ezekiel 33:7

Many of us are generous with our gifts. However, many of us are not generous in proportion to the gifts we have been given. How often do we give at the minimum level required? Remember, the Lord calls us to nurture and develop our gifts. He calls us to be generous with all the gifts He has given us, especially the one that means the most to us.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Jesuit Father William Byron, at one time President of Catholic University, penned these words:

“I know a business professor who puts the following question on his mid-term examination: ‘What is the name of the worker who cleans this classroom and the corridor outside?’ His response to the howls of protest from angry students: ‘I’m preparing you to become a good employer. If you don’t know the little people by name, you won’t be providing good leadership in your organization. And if you think the question was unfair, I’ll make it up to you by telling you now that the exact same question will be on the final exam!’

“On Labor Day think about the work you do. Be grateful for all the gifts that enable you to do it. Think about the workers who stand behind so many of the products and services you tend to take for granted. Think of those who are unemployed or on the margins of the workforce in low-paying jobs. Well beyond our borders are those who are trapped between misery and workplace exploitation. Labor Day prayer might open up the question of what we can do to make the world of work a better place for all of them.”

The prophet Ezekiel in today’s First Reading is given work by God. “You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel,” says the Lord. It will be the prophet’s job to keep close watch for danger - the danger being disobedience towards God - and to warn the people they are in danger. Ezekiel accepts his task and boldly proclaims the ways of God, informing the wicked people they are heading for destruction. It surely wasn’t the easiest of jobs, or the most glamorous, or the one that brought personal wealth. But it was a good job because it came from God.

Over a thousand years ago St. Benedict taught his monks “Laborare est orare,” - “to work is to pray.” The vocations we have, the calling we received, and the work we do should mean so much more to us than a paycheck. Our work’s foundation is not in our education or skill, but in our hearts. There the Lord instructs us and encourages us to make whatever we do to earn a living a holy action, a job that comes from God. Each day each worker has the opportunity to make the world a better place, to be aware of those who work with us or near us, and to watch for chances where we can bring to others the love Christ brings to us.

Labor Day, especially in 2020, also demands that we pray for the millions out-of-work in this time of pandemic. May God hear our prayers, bring relief to our suffering world, and guide everybody to work which is pleasing to Him. Happy Labor Day!

May God bless all of you,

In Christ,

FORM MATTERS

You may have heard about the priest from the Archdiocese of Detroit, who learned that he was invalidly baptized as an infant by a deacon, who said

“We Baptize. . .” instead of “I Baptize. . .” With the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith confirming that the change of this single word invalidates this priest’s Baptism, and consequently all of his other sacraments, it is worth investigating what makes a sacrament valid.

Conditions for Valid Sacraments

The outward sign of every sacrament is composed of four things: matter, form, minister, and recipient. In the Baptism of this Detroit priest, almost everything was done correctly: the Deacon, as the proper minister, poured water over the head of the proper recipient, i.e., an unbaptized person. The problem is that the deacon changed one of the words of the Baptismal formula, meaning that the proper form was not utilized. When this happens, there is no sacrament. So, what are matter and form?

Matter

The matter of a sacrament is made up of “material elements and sensible gestures.” For Baptism, the “material element” is the water that is used for the sacrament. The “sensible gesture” would be the action of pouring water over the head of the recipient. But these elements and actions are not enough on their own to convey the full spiritual meaning of the sacrament. For that, we need what is called the form of the sacrament.

Form

The form of a sacraments is given by words that make explicit the meaning of the sensible elements and gestures. In the case of Baptism, the proper form is for the minister to say, “I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” By saying this, the minister “enacts ministerially the sign-presence of Christ, who acts in his Body (the Church) to give his grace. . .”¹ To say “We baptize you,” instead of “I baptize you” is to obscure the reality that it is Jesus Christ who baptizes, rather than us. It is Jesus Christ who infuses human souls with grace and lifts them from the stupor of sin. To some, this may look like liturgical quibbling at first glance, but attentiveness to sacramental form is absolutely crucial for the life of the Church.

Meet Baby Isabella. As a single professional, her mother was in the target market for abortion. But as she drove into the abortion facility, she discovered people praying for her and her unborn baby. Some held signs, and all were peaceful and loving. These people were 40 Days for Life.

Coalition for Life St. Louis is the local host of 40 Days for Life, which brings together thousands of Christians for 40 days of continuous prayer, fasting, and peaceful vigil in front of the abortion facility. This Fall, 40 Days for Life will run September 23rd – November 1st. Queen of All Saints has adopted Saturday Oct 3, 2020 to be the loving presence of Christ outside the abortion facility at 4251 Forest Park Ave. St. Louis 63108. We pledge to stand (or bring your lawn chair) there 7am-7pm in peaceful, prayerful witness for all those at risk for abortion. Contact Kevin Niewoehner at 314-488-6307 or kevinniewoehner@sbcglobal.net to sign up for your hour(s) today. Baby Isabella is here today because her mother found help, love, and hope during 40 Days for Life. You may just make the difference for another family.

WHAT IS THE RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process of preparation whereby one inquires into the teachings of and pursues entrance into the Catholic Church. For each person, it is the journey through phases of maturation in Faith whereby one readies to commit oneself to Jesus Christ and His Church through seeking the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist/First Holy Communion).

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE IN RCIA CLASSES?

- Any Unbaptized person seeking to know and encounter Jesus Christ, enter into his divine life through Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist, and follow him in a life of Christian discipleship. Such a person, after a period of inquiry into the faith and initial conversion to Christ is called a Catechumen.
- Any Baptized person from another Christian community seeking to become Catholic and enter into full communion with Christ and His Church through the reception of the sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion. Such a person, after a period of inquiry into the faith, is called a Candidate.
- Any Baptized Catholic looking to increase their devotion as a disciple of Jesus Christ through further study of the Faith or to complete their sacraments of initiation by receiving Confirmation and/or First Holy Communion.

KEEP CHILDREN SAFE DURING THE PANDEMIC

In order to keep our school children safe during this pandemic, one of the many ways we can do this and keep our school open is for classes to spread out and socially distance. Teachers are using the fields and the south parking lot during school hours to provide more learning and activity spaces during this time. We ask parishioners to remain outside these cones between 7:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Access to parking garages below the school during these hours may be on foot. NO VEHICLES, please. Thank you for helping keep our children safe.
